technology politics and aesthetics The trilogy The Nihilist Order traces the genealogy of the nihilist totalitarian syndrome Until now nihilism and totalitarianism were considered opposites one an orderless state of affairs the other a strict regimented order On closer scrutiny however a surprising affinity can be found between these two concepts that dominated the history of the first half of the twentieth century Starting with Nietzsche's philosophy this book traces the development of an intellectual school characterised by the paradoxical dual purpose of a wish to destroy coupled with a strong desire to create imposing structures This explosive combination of nihilist leanings together with a craving for totalitarianism was an ideal of philosophers cultural critics political theorists engineers architects and aesthetes long before it materialised in flesh and blood not only in technology but also in fascism Nazism bolshevism and radical European political movements Friedrich Nietzsche Georges Sorel the Italian Futurists led by Filippo Tommaso Marinetti and Ernst Jünger were all well known intellectual and cultural figures Here they are seen and understood in a different light as creators of a modern political mythology that became a source of inspiration for belligerent ideological camps Among the ideas propagated by this school and later adopted by totalitarian regimes were historical nihilism a revolt against the rationalistic and universalistic pretensions of the Enlightenment an affirmation of the dynamism of modern life and the replacement of the traditional Judeo-Christian values of good and evil by other dualities such as authenticity and decadence Concurrently there took place affirmation of the technological era the creation of a new man and a violent order and the birth of a new political style in place of traditional world views When channelled into the political sphere these aesthetic nihilist ideas paved the way for the rise of totalitarianism

"The Mutable Perspectives of Flight" Michelle Paluch-Mishur, 2004 Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago, 2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family longtime Chicago collectors The catalog comprises 135 drawings prints and sculptures from the collection all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston Toulouse Lautrec Matisse and Picasso form the backbone of the collection with nearly 30 works of art apiece Suzanne Folds McCullagh curator of prints drawings Art Inst of Chicago provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection Authored by a bevy of contributors the well written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries It does however belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections Kraig A Binkowski Delaware Art Museum Wilmington 135 colour illustrations
