coffee and treats at Libby's in Marple Bridge one dismal Wednesday morning in January. An idea was formed when a group of like-minded women friends decided to try to write some of these stories down to raise money for The Christie Hospital in Manchester. None of us has made any money from the writing of these stories. Sounds easy, doesn't it? The first part, perhaps, the most difficult part, was finding what to write about: experimenting with rhythm, style, tone, and words to express our stories in a way we hoped would be of interest to someone else. But as our confidence increased and we bounced stories and ideas around between each other, writing and rewriting, we discovered that we liked the sound of our own voices. So here are our offerings. We hope you will enjoy them, read them, and hopefully return to them occasionally. We hope to entertain you and to make you reflect on your own lives and experiences as you share ours.

Fiction is the art of the possible, of making imaginary words real, of being able, if only in a limited word count, to put this world to rights. The best fiction is challenging and yet familiar, complex and yet sure of itself, able to disrupt or ruffle but also able to smooth out differences, to restore, to heal. The stories in Tell Tales know a thing or two about the challenges of living and how they are to be overcome by generosity, attention, and good faith. The stories presented here anonymously, in a spirit of inclusiveness, all too rarely encountered, speak to lives that are knotty and difficult and at times impossible, as all our lives frequently are. They are sharp and clever, funny and kind. So is the project. All proceeds from the sale of this anthology go to the Christie Hospital, which does such excellent work in caring for those who most need our care. I am happy to support this book and I urge you to buy it for yourself and for everyone you know, to take heart from its big heart and to enjoy it as I have done.

Horrific True Crime Stories Danielle Tynning, 2020-10-10

Real life is stranger and more frightening than fiction, and this book serves to cement that principal even further. In this compilation, there are eleven cases of some of the most deplorable, unjust, and violent crimes I've come across. From cannibals to rapists to the sickest, most twisted criminals you've not yet heard of, you'll read about them all in this book. I'll tell you the story of Rurik Jutting, a British banker living in Hong Kong who held two women hostage, tortured them, and raped them over a number of days. You'll learn about Issei Sagawa, a Japanese cannibal who killed and ate a woman but walks free on the streets today. Then there's the vile, three-week torture of an Australian woman who, when she was eventually rescued, paramedics initially thought she was dead. You can also read about the Hello Kitty murder, which is as bizarre as it sounds and as equally haunting. But please be warned: the cases in this book are highly disturbing and include graphic and distressing descriptions. Please take this trigger warning seriously, as this book depicts horrific crimes that involve sexual abuse, domestic abuse, child abuse, and graphic violence throughout. This book is intended to explore the evil in this world and expose the heinous behaviour some people are capable of. Please heed this warning before continuing to read. The book fits under the following categories: Serial Killers, True Crime, Murder, and Mayhem, True Crime Cases, True Crime Biography.
