Sexing The Caribbean Gender Race And Sexual Labor:

Sexing the Caribbean Kamala Kempadoo, 2004-12-01 This unprecedented work provides both the history of sex work in this region as well as an examination of current day sex tourism Based on interviews with sex workers brothel owners local residents and tourists Kamala Kempadoo offers a vivid account of what life is like in the world of sex tourism as well as its entrenched roots in colonialism and slavery in the Caribbean

Sexing the Caribbean Kamala Kempadoo, 2004 Sex and the Sexual during People's Leisure and Tourism Experiences Neil Carr, Yaniv Poria, 2010-05-11 Sex and the sexual have for far too long been consigned to the dark corners by social scientists in general and tourism and leisure scholars in particular Sex and the Sexual During People's Leisure and Tourism Experiences seeks to begin to rectify this situation by bringing the position and nature of sex and the sexual into the light of academic debate As such this book is designed to highlight cross disciplinary emerging work on sex and the sexual in leisure and tourism and provide the readers with insights into this social realm It encompasses a broad array of sex related issues and tourism and leisure environments from across a variety of countries The book should appeal to researchers and students across the humanities and social sciences both for the value of the research in its own right and the ability of it to be used as a lens through which to view the position of sex and the sexual as well as tourism and leisure in today's world Overall it is argued that sex and the sexual should play a part in the academic discourse especially if we wish to describe what is actually happening out there as far as tourism and leisure are concerned

Gender, Sex, and Sexualities Nancy Dess, Jeanne Marecek, Leslie Bell, 2018-01-15 Questions about gender sex and sexualities have spurred political religious and juridical debates around the world This book offers readers up to date knowledge concerning these matters as well as tools for critical analysis Its contributions by leading scholars from around the world will stimulate novel thinking among students and scholars within psychology and related fields

Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution Isabel Crowhurst, Susan Dewey, Chimaraoke Izugbara, 2021-03-30 Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is about sex work and prostitution third sector organizations TSOs non governmental and non profit organizations that provide support services to and advocate for the well being of people operating in the sex industries With a focus on three vast and extremely diverse regions Africa the Americas and Europe this book provides a unique vantage point that shows how interlinked these organizations histories and configurations are TSOs are fascinating research sites because they operate as zones of contestation which translate their understandings of sex work and prostitution into different support practices and advocacy initiatives This book reveals that these organizations are not external to normative power but participate in it and are subject to it conditioning how they can exist who they can reach out to where and what they can achieve Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is a resource for scholars policymakers and activists involved in research on and work with third sector organizations in the fields of sex work and prostitution gender and sexuality and human rights among others

Sex Tourism in Bahia Erica Lorraine

Williams,2013-10-30 For nearly a decade Brazil has surpassed Thailand as the world s premier sex tourism destination As the first full length ethnography of sex tourism in Brazil this pioneering study treats sex tourism as a complex and multidimensional phenomenon that involves a range of activities and erotic connections from sex work to romantic transnational relationships Erica Lorraine Williams explores sex tourism in the Brazilian state of Bahia from the perspectives of foreign tourists tourism industry workers sex workers who engage in liaisons with foreigners and Afro Brazilian men and women who contend with foreigners stereotypical assumptions about their licentiousness She shows how the Bahian state strategically exploits the touristic desire for exotic culture by appropriating an eroticized blackness and commodifying the Afro Brazilian culture in order to sell Bahia to foreign travelers

New Sociologies of Sex Work Kate Hardy,Sarah

Kingston,2016-05-06 Sex work studies have seen an expansion in publications over the past decade drawing together disciplines from across the social sciences namely sociology criminology and social policy There has however been a tendency for research and writing to focus on the more obvious aspect of the sex industry the visible elements of female street prostitution and those features which attract media attention such as the criminalised aspects of the sex trade The sex industry is diverse in terms of its organisation presentation participants and how it is located in the broader context of globalisation and regulation there is a need for publications which demonstrate this breadth This book makes an outstanding contribution to the sociology of sex work through advancing theoretical policy methodological and empirical ideas as each chapter pushes the boundaries of a specific area by offering new and critical research as well as commentary

Body/Sex/Work Carol Wolkowitz,Rachel Lara Cohen,Teela Sanders,2013-02-27 Body Sex Work focuses on the intimate embodied and sexualised labour that occurs within body work and sex work Bringing together an internationally renowned group of academics it explores empirically and theoretically labour processes workplace relations regulation and resistance in some of the many work sites that make up the body work and sex work sectors The book makes a key contribution to research recognising the embodiment of labour and the body reframing the key questions in critical studies of work and employment Key Benefits The first book that draws together the sub disciplines of body work and sex work Written by leading international experts Contains cutting edge empirical research on contemporary topics Body Sex Work is an ideal companion for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students of labour and organisation studies body studies gender and sexuality It will also appeal to researchers and lecturers in these fields

Trafficking and Prostitution

Reconsidered Kamala Kempadoo,2017-07-05 Trafficking and prostitution are widely believed to be synonymous and to be leading international crimes This collection argues against such sensationalism and advances carefully considered and grounded alternatives for understanding transnational migrations forced labor sex work and livelihood strategies under new forms of globalization From their long term engagements as anti trafficking advocates the authors unpack the contemporary international debate on trafficking They maintain that rather than a new white slave trade we are witnessing today more broadly an increase in the violation of the rights of freedom of movement decent employment and social and economic security Critical examinations of state anti trafficking interventions including the U S led War on Trafficking also reveal links to a broader attack on undocumented migrants tribal and aboriginal peoples poor women men and children and sex workers The book sheds new light on everyday circumstances popular discourses and strategies for survival under twenty first century economic and political conditions with a focus on Asia but with lessons globally Contributors Natasha Ahmad Vachararutai Boontinand Lin Chew Melissa Ditmore John Frederick Matthew S Friedman Josephine Ho Jagori Ratna Kapur Phil Marshall Jyoti Sanghera Susu Thatun Motherhood, Childlessness and the Care of Children in Atlantic Slave Societies Camillia Cowling, Maria Helena Pereira Toledo Machado, Diana Paton, Emily West, 2020-05-21 This book provides critical perspectives on the multiple forms of mothering that took place in Atlantic slave societies Facing repeated child death mothering was a site of trauma and grief for many even as slaveholders romanticized enslaved women s work in caring for slaveholders children Examining a wide range of societies including medieval Spain Brazil and New England and including the work of historians based in Brazil Cuba the United States and Britain this collection breaks new ground in demonstrating the importance of mothering for the perpetuation of slavery and the complexity of the experience of motherhood in such circumstances This pathbreaking collection on all aspects of the experience politics and representations of motherhood under Atlantic slavery analyses societies across the Atlantic world and will be of interest to those studying the history of slavery as well as those studying mothering throughout history This book comprises two special issues originally published in Slavery Abolition and Women s History Review Handbook of the International Political Economy of Production Kees van der Pijl, 2015-01-30 This Handbook provides a state of the art overview of the changing world of global production Chapters cover the geography of why and where jobs are moving in both manufacturing and services The authors discuss topics relating to the human and natura Contradictory Indianness Atreyee Phukan, 2022-07-15 As Contradictory Indianness shows a postcolonial Caribbean aesthetics that has from its inception privileged inclusivity interraciality and resistance against Old World colonial orders requires taking into account Indo Caribbean writers and their reimagining of Indianness in the region Whereas for instance forms of Indo Caribbean cultural expression in music cuisine or religion are more readily accepted as creolizing thus Caribbeanizing processes an Indo Caribbean literary imaginary has rarely been studied as such Discussing the work of Ismith Khan Harold Sonny Ladoo Totaram Sanadhya LalBihari Sharma and Shani Mootoo Contradictory Indianness maintains that the writers engagement with the regional and transnational poetics of the Caribbean underscores symbolic bridges between cultural worlds conventionally set apart the Africanized and Indianized and distinguishes between cultural worlds assumed to be the same indenture and South Asian Indianness This book privileges Indo Caribbean fiction as a creolizing literary imaginary to broaden its study beyond a narrow canon that has inadvertently or not enabled monolithic and unidimensional perceptions of Indian cultural identity and evolution in the Caribbean and continued to impose a fragmentary and disconnected study of post indenture aesthetics within indenture s own transnational cartography

Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies Engin Isin, Peter Nyers, 2014-06-27 Citizenship studies is at a crucial moment of globalizing as a field What used to be mainly a European North American and Australian field has now expanded to major contributions featuring scholarship from Latin America Asia Africa and the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies takes into account this globalizing moment At the same time it considers how the global perspective exposes the strains and discords in the concept of citizenship as it is understood today With over fifty contributions from international interdisciplinary experts the Handbook features state of the art analyses of the practices and enactments of citizenship across broad continental regions Africas Americas Asias and Europes as well as deterritorialized forms of citizenship Diasporicity and Indigeneity Through these analyses the Handbook provides a deeper understanding of citizenship in both empirical and theoretical terms This volume sets a new agenda for scholarly investigations of citizenship Its wide ranging contributions and clear accessible style make it essential reading for students and scholars working on citizenship issues across the humanities and social sciences Conceiving Cuba Elise Andaya,2014-05-30

After Cuba s 1959 revolution the Castro government sought to instill a new social order Hoping to achieve a new and egalitarian society the state invested in policies designed to promote the well being of women and children Yet once the Soviet Union fell and Cuba s economic troubles worsened these programs began to collapse with serious results for Cuban families Conceiving Cuba offers an intimate look at how with the island s political and economic future in question reproduction has become the subject of heated public debates and agonizing private decisions Drawing from several years of first hand observations and interviews anthropologist Elise Andaya takes us inside Cuba s households and medical systems Along the way she introduces us to the women who wrestle with the difficult question of whether they can afford a child as well as the doctors who with only meager resources at their disposal struggle to balance the needs of their patients with the mandates of the state Andaya s groundbreaking research considers not only how socialist policies have profoundly affected the ways Cuban families imagine the future but also how the current crisis in reproduction has deeply influenced ordinary Cubans views on socialism and the future of the revolution Casting a sympathetic eye upon a troubled state Conceiving Cuba gives new life to the notion that the personal is always political Suspicion Nicole Charles,2021-11-02

In 2014 Barbados introduced a vaccine to prevent certain strains of the human papillomavirus HPV and reduce the risk of cervical cancer in young women Despite the disproportionate burden of cervical cancer in the Caribbean many Afro Barbadians chose not to immunize their daughters In Suspicion Nicole Charles reframes Afro Barbadian vaccine refusal from a question of hesitancy to one of suspicion Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork black feminist theory transnational feminist studies and science and technology studies Charles foregrounds Afro Barbadians gut feelings and emotions and the lingering trauma of colonial and biopolitical violence She shows that suspicion far from being irrational is a fraught and generative affective orientation grounded in concrete histories of mistrust of government and coercive medical practices foisted on colonized peoples By contextualizing suspicion within these longer cultural and political histories Charles troubles traditional narratives of vaccine hesitancy while offering new entry points into discussions on racialized biopolitics neocolonialism care affect and biomedicine across the Black diaspora Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient Dougla Poetics Kavyta Kay,2024-12-04 Rooted in lived experiences and real conversations this book challenges mixed race studies which often prioritise Black white binaries in the Global North while excluding multiracial experiences across the Global South Subverting Empire Will Jackson, Emily Manktelow, 2015-07-15 Across their empire the British spoke ceaselessly of deviants of undesirables ne'er-do-wells petit tyrants and rogues With obvious literary appeal these soon became stock figures This is the first study to take deviance seriously bringing together histories that reveal the complexity of a phenomenon that remains only dimly understood
