Family Mediation Howard H. Irving, Michael Benjamin, 1995-07-19 Preface by Hugh McIsaac Family mediation has quickly become a significant means of legal dispute resolution recognized in most North American jurisdictions as a relief to already overburdened judicial systems Using an innovative practical approach the authors of Family Mediation incorporate the pivotal principles of family therapy into this new context the judicial realm of family mediation The practice model therapeutic family mediation thoroughly treats history specific issues and practice in an ecosystemic approach and responds to feminist critique of mediation In addition the authors offer important perspectives on mediating with multicultural populations and the role of the mediator in child custody disputes and child protection cases Through examination of family mediation research as well as helpful case history vignettes the authors of this volume take action to fill significant gaps between family therapy and mediation Family Mediation provides a new take on family mediation that will benefit not only professionals and researchers in family studies social work clinical psychology and sociology but also professional and volunteer mediators conciliation court personnel and family law specialists Family Mediation is an excellent blend of scholarship and practice and it is the best of the books I have read on family mediation First it is clear and well written Second it provides an in depth current review of the divorce literature The literature on divorce is large uneven and difficult to interpret The authors have done a service to the profession by skillfully reviewing and integrating this literature Stephen J Bahr Brigham Young University This book is one of the most comprehensive and well researched texts on mediation to date The authors have compiled an immense array of information regarding the history of family mediation the practice and knowledge base a review of literature regarding divorce the principles of mediation gender and cultural issues elements in a child custody dispute sharing parenting cultural issues and the use of mediation in dependency and they include an excellent summary of research conducted Of particular value is the enormous scope of the review of literature and the work of others not only in Canada but also the United States Australia and Great Britain underscoring the international nature of this transformation What Howard H Irving and Michael Benjamin have done is chart a major shift in the handling of conflict and they have done it very well Family and Conciliation Courts Review Howard H Irving and Michael Benjamin have surveyed and summarized an immense amount of material within the covers of this volume presenting it in a clear readable style It is one of the rare texts on mediation that does justice to the complexity of families generally and families in North America particularly to their diversity of culture to the scope of feminist thought and gender differences and to the ranges of social class Their attention to divergent forms of mediation and differences in practice across jurisdictions is broadly sighted An excellent choice for a text in mediation Mary A Duryee Family Court Services Alameda County Oakland CA Howard H Irving and Michael Benjamin grapple with what is the most difficult event that confronts almost half of all modern families divorce Historically the developmental issues and problems surrounding divorce have been solved in the courts But modern day courts are overwhelmed by an avalanche of divorce cases more than a million a year and are unable to meet the needs of separating parties Family Mediation offers a fundamentally different approach from the conventional legal system The empirical research and clinical experience Irving and Benjamin bring to bear on this subject have resulted in the seminal work in this area This delightful and thoughtful book is a must for the modern mediation practitioner who works with families and children Duncan Lindsey Professor UCLA and Editor in Chief Children and Youth Services Review This book is unique in providing a complete overview of relevant subject areas for family mediation under one cover Its writing is timely because it dispels some of the myths in the rapidly expanding field of family mediation Family Mediation is a comprehensive text that follows the development of family mediation through the present and concludes with the predictors of future directions It is perhaps the most thorough critical review of the literature pertaining to family mediation and develops an inclusive practical model of practice for practitioners The book is readable responsible and of interest to family mediators and the family law lawyers who work closely with them It may become a must as a background for the novice family mediator about to embark on a course of training Laurel Pearson McWhinney Metcalfe and Associates Toronto Canada Statistical Reference Index ,1990 Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley,2008-01-05 Now in its ninety eighth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge The complete text of Canadian Who's Who is also available on CD ROM in a comprehensively indexed and fully searchable format Search astronaut or entrepreneur of the year aboriginal achievement award and Order of Canada and discover a wealth of information Fast easy and more accessible than ever the Canadian Who's Who on CD ROM is an essential addition to your electronic library Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Media, Children, and the Family Dolf Zillmann,Jennings Bryant,Aletha C. Huston,2013-11-05 This book brings together a group of scholars to share findings and insights on the effects of media on children and family Their contributions reflect not only widely divergent political orientations and value systems but also three distinct domains of inquiry into human motivation and behavior social scientific psychodynamic or psychoanalytical and clinical practice Each of these three domains is privy to important evidence and insights that need to transcend epistemological and methodological boundaries if understanding of the subject is to improve dramatically In keeping with this notion the editors asked the authors to go beyond a summary of findings and lend additional distinction to the book by applying the binoculars of their particular perspective and offering suggestions as to the implications of their findings One of the goals of the conference that resulted in this book was consensus building in the area of media and family From examining the findings and insights of a diverse group of scholars it seems that consensus building in several areas is a distinct possibility Addressing the concerns of educators about the influence of the mass media of communication entertainment programs in particular on children and the welfare of the nuclear family this volume projects directions for superior programming especially for educational television The influence of sex and violence on children and adults is given much attention and the development of moral judgment and sexual expectations among other things is explored The critical analysis of media effects includes examination of positive contributions of the media such as the search for missing children and exemplary educational programs International Books in Print ,1997 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1984 Criminal Justice Review ,2004
