The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture addresses the cultural social and intellectual terrain of myth manners and historical memory in the American South Evaluating how a distinct southern identity has been created recreated and performed through memories that blur the line between fact and fiction this volume paints a broad multihued picture of the region seen through the lenses of belief and cultural practice The 95 entries here represent a substantial revision and expansion of the material on historical memory and manners in the original edition They address such matters as myths and memories surrounding the Old South and the Civil War stereotypes and traditions related to the body sexuality gender and family such as debutante balls and beauty pageants institutions and places associated with historical memory such as cemeteries monuments and museums and specific subjects and objects of myths including the Confederate flag and Graceland Together they offer a compelling portrait of the southern way of life as it has been imagined lived and contested Beyond Blurred Lines Nickie D. Phillips, 2016-10-19 From its origins in academic discourse in the 1970s to our collective imagination today the concept of rape culture has resonated in a variety of spheres including television gaming comic book culture and college campuses Beyond Blurred Lines traces ways that sexual violence is collectively processed mediated negotiated and contested by exploring public reactions to high profile incidents and rape narratives in popular culture The concept of rape culture was initially embraced in popular media mass media social media and popular culture and contributed to a social understanding of sexual violence that mirrored feminist concerns about the persistence of rape myths and victim blaming However it was later challenged by skeptics who framed the concept as a moral panic Nickie D Phillips documents how the conversation shifted from substantiating claims of a rape culture toward growing scrutiny of the prevalence of sexual assault on college campuses This in turn renewed attention toward false allegations and away from how college enforcement policies fail victims to how they endanger accused young men Ultimately she successfully lends insight into how the debates around rape culture including microaggressions gendered harassment and so called political correctness inform our collective imaginations and shape our attitudes toward criminal justice and policy responses to sexual violence challenges the enforceability of the arbitration provision the challenge must be heard by a court Rent A Center West Inc v Jackson 130 S Ct 2772 2010 The lack of timeliness in filing a discrimination action is an affirmative defense and the burden of proof is on the employer Salas v Wisconsin Department of Corrections 493 F 3d 913 922 7th Cir 2007 A federal employee's premature filing of a sexual harassment employment discrimination and retaliation complaint did not constitute a failure to exhaust administrative remedies so as to deprive the district court of subject matter jurisdiction Brown v Snow 440 F 3d 1259 11th Cir 2006 A majority of states impose a shorter period for filing with their agencies though so the filing deadline is not always extended when a state has its own agency The "single filing rule" under which a party who has not filed an EEOC charge or received a right to sue notice may "piggyback" his or her judicial action on the claim of a party who has satisfied those prerequisites has been described as a "carefully limited exception" to Title VII's procedural requirements Price v Choctaw Glove and Safety Co 459 F 3d 595 5th Cir 2006 Provided that an act contributing to the claim occurs within the filing period the court may consider the entire period of the hostile environment for purposes of determining liability Jordan v City of Cleveland 464 F 3d 584 6th Cir 2006 The Supreme Court has held that a plaintiff's timely filing of an EEOC intake questionnaire which was followed by an affidavit stating "Please force Federal Express to end their age discrimination" constituted a charge cautioning however that its permissiveness is limited Sex Discrimination and Sexual Harassment in the Work Place Lawrence Solotoff, Henry S. all seem to reduce the risk of sexual exploitation and abuse occurring By using a statistical analysis followed by case studies of the UN peacekeeping missions in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Liberia and the Golan Heights the author demonstrates the importance these factors have in the peacekeepers behavior on the mission providing a solid basis upon which future policy recommendations can be made
