Sexual Sites Seminal Attitudes:

Sexual Sites, Seminal Attitudes Sanjay Srivastava, 2004-03-20 Discussions on sexuality in the South Asian context have tended to focus largely on men's preoccupations through notions such as semen anxiety. Another restrictive framework is the excessive importance ascribed to religion in everyday life. The result has been a rather narrow debate on sexuality. By providing accounts of a myriad sites and meanings of sexuality, this remarkable volume broadens the debate on sexuality in South Asia. It combines perspectives from history, anthropology, and cultural and literary studies to provide an interdisciplinary exploration of the cultures of and the multiple meanings and contestations that gather around masculinities and sexualities. The collection is unique in the breadth of its theoretical concerns, its focus on hitherto marginalized sexual identities, and its novel juxtapositions of analyses of colonial discourses with those of postcolonised modernity. Sexual Sites, Seminal Attitudes, 2004 Discussions on sexuality in the South Asian context have tended to focus largely on men's preoccupations through notions such as semen anxiety. Sexuality Reimagined Shailja Tandon, 2023-05-08 The book examines how medical knowledge is produced around bodies that do not fit in the heteronormative framework of the state's rationale and processes. The marginal bodies studied in this research are termed MSM: men who have sex with men, categorized as a high risk group in the backdrop of HIV/AIDS. These Queer bodies entered the registers of epidemiology and governmentality. This classification is the point of departure for the book. The book interrogates and asks how does a sexual subject become a political question? To answer this political trajectory, the book analyses the category of risk in biomedicine. It investigates how the category of risk becomes critical to the Indian state's rationale and policies, wherein through the ambit of health and population, sexuality is managed. Unearthing the sexual politics in South Asia, the book, based on rich empirical evidence derived from the lived experiences of MSM, narrates the construction of sexual subjectivity and masculinity. The process of construction occurs in negotiation with the Indian state, bringing forth the dimension of the Indian state as a medico-legal governmentality regime and how MSM takes on the identity of a medicalized subject.

Sex Work in Nepal Lisa Caviglia, 2017-09-05 This book explores sex work in Nepal as a social and analytical category. Narrating stories of those subsumed under such definition, it examines changes as well as continuities characterising socio-cultural norms and perceptions through an analysis of sexual consumption. It also highlights the ways in which the development sector, media, and local community discourses frame sex work as a distinct category. How does the work of development aid projects affect the understanding of the sex worker category? How are visual and media images employed to mark spaces of perdition in the Nepalese urban setting and what forms of imagination do they trigger How are intimate practices and relations transformed by imported notions of love and how do standards of propriety related to such interactions shift This book attempts to answer some of these questions An in depth and intimate ethnography the book deconstructs the sex worker category against the backdrop of global influences within local urban surroundings and points to the contradictions therein Furthermore through thorough descriptions of the experiences agency decision making processes and lives of those labelled as sex workers the book challenges concepts such as deviance and victimhood It proposes a counternarrative by rethinking ideas of gender objectification marginality symbolic violence and discrimination This book will greatly interest researchers and scholars in women and gender studies sociology and social anthropology South Asian studies and social sciences as well as NGOs and those involved in the development sector

International Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities, Handbook of Postcolonial Archaeology Jane Lydon,Uzma Z Rizvi,2016-07-01 This essential handbook explores the relationship between the postcolonial critique and the field of archaeology a discipline that developed historically in conjunction with European colonialism and imperialism In aiding the movement to decolonize the profession the contributors to this volume themselves from six continents and many representing indigenous and minority communities and disadvantaged countries suggest strategies to strip archaeological theory and practice of its colonial heritage and create a discipline sensitive to its inherent inequalities Summary articles review the emergence of the discipline of archaeology in conjunction with colonialism critique the colonial legacy evident in continuing archaeological practice around the world identify current trends and chart future directions in postcolonial archaeological research Contributors provide a synthesis of research thought and practice on their topic The articles embrace multiple voices and case study approaches and have consciously aimed to recognize the utility of comparative work and interdisciplinary approaches to understanding the past This is a benchmark volume for the study of the contemporary politics practice and ethics of archaeology Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress

With Respect to Sex Gayatri Reddy,2010-05-15 With Respect to Sex is an intimate ethnography that offers a provocative account of sexual and social difference in India The subjects of this study are hijras or the third sex of India individuals who occupy a unique liminal space between male and female sacred and profane Hijras are men who sacrifice their genitalia to a goddess in return for the power to confer fertility on newlyweds and newborn children a ritual role they are respected for at the same time as they are stigmatized for their ambiguous sexuality By focusing on the hijra community Gayatri Reddy sheds new light on Indian society and the intricate negotiations of identity across various domains of everyday life Further by reframing hijra identity through the local economy of respect this ethnography highlights the complex relationships among local and global sexual and moral economies This book will be regarded as the definitive work on hijras one that will be of enormous interest to anthropologists students of South Asian culture and specialists in the study of gender and sexuality

Passionate Modernity Sanjay Srivastava,2020-11-29 Combining historical and ethnographic analysis this book deals with the making of the heterosexual imagination from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present in the Indian context This unique book uses methods from anthropology cultural studies and history to explore the making of modern cultures of sexuality in India It provides an analysis of the sexual and domestic politics of the period by focusing on the vast corpus of publications and journals on sexology from the 1920s to the 1940s and links Indian activities with those in other parts of the world The author analyzes material that has thus far been outside the purview of scholarly studies namely footpath pornography magazines such as Sexology Mirror in Hindi women s magazines dealing explicitly with sex and sexuality

Urban Utopias Tereza Kuldova, Mathew A. Varghese, 2017-03-09 This book brings anthropologists and critical theorists together in order to investigate utopian visions of the future in the neoliberal cities of India and Sri Lanka Arguing for the priority of materiality in any analysis of contemporary ideology the authors explore urban construction projects special economic zones fashion ramps films archaeological excavations and various queer spaces In the process they reveal how diverse co existing utopian visions are entangled with local politics and global capital and show how these utopian visions are at once driven by visions of excess and by increasing expulsions It s a dystopia already in the making one marred by land grabs and forced evictions rising inequality and the loss of urbanity and civility

HIV/AIDS in India Sunita Manian, 2017-06-14 India ranks third in the number of people living with HIV AIDS globally The country has high levels of poverty and inequality poor healthcare infrastructure especially away from the metropolitan areas and a legacy of colonialism that bequeathed laws criminalizing non heteronormative sexualities These factors mean that many minority groups do not receive adequate access to preventative and treatment programs This book explores the HIV AIDS epidemic in India Based on research in Tamil Nadu it presents experiences of those marginalized by their sexuality and or gender their struggles and their triumphs Based on interviews with male and female sex workers men who have sex with men aravanis male to female transgenders and HIV positive women groups usually not included in the policy making by Indian government agencies international donors and international NGOs the author uses an interdisciplinary approach The approach highlights the historical and cultural context while providing contemporary narratives The book thus presents a deeper multi dimensional understanding of the context of the disease and comprehends the roots of the stigma and discrimination that exacerbate the epidemic An important study of the global HIV AIDS epidemic this book will be of interest to researchers in the field of South Asian Studies Sexuality and Gender Studies Health Sciences and Public Health

Beyond Emasculation Adnan Hossain, 2022-02-03 This book is based on long term ethnographic research with hijras the emblematic figure of South Asian sexual and gender difference in Dhaka Bangladesh It proposes the hijra as a counter cultural formation that embodies not only a direct contrast to hegemonic patterns of masculinity but also as an alternative subculture offering the possibility of varied forms of erotic pleasures and practices otherwise forbidden in mainstream society While most studies view hijras as an asexual emasculated third sex gender this book calls into question the phallogentric logic that obscures alternative sites and sources of bodily power and pleasure emphasizing how hijras craft their own subject position Ethnographically rich and theoretically engaged this book will cause a new global re examination of both hijras in particular and the wider range of male femininities in general
