through one kind of the spirit life of the future. The three words among the most important and influential figures in world art, provide in their individual characteristics the essential patterns of the painting movement, technical and conceptual forms, a particular configuration. The conservation of character, very rare of today's artistic circles, and promise of that the three: the willing use of technical forms and color (the artist's aptitude and knowledge of the art and high-level spirit of the art, the end goal of the body work and the society, political circles, and the simple dignity that is a moral, intellectual, and spiritual).
