Stamps, Nationalism and Political Transition Stanley D Brunn,2022-08-08 This book explores how states in political transition use stamps to promote a new visual nationalism Stamps as products of the state and provide small pieces of information about a state s heritage culture economies and place in the world These depictions change over time reflecting political and cultural changes and developments The volume explores the transition times in more than a dozen countries from Africa Latin America Asia and Europe Specifically addressed are the stamp topics issues and themes in the years before and after such major changes occurred for example from a European colony to political independence or from a dictatorship to democracy The authors compare the personalities histories and cultural representations before the transition period and how the state used the after event to define or redefine its place on the world political map The final three chapters consider

Xunmei s Circle and the Travels of Jack Chen 1926 1938 Paul Bevan explores how the cartoon manhua emerged from its place in the Chinese modern art world to become a propaganda tool in the hands of left wing artists The artists involved in what was largely a transcultural phenomenon were an eclectic group working in the areas of fashion and commercial art and design The book demonstrates that during the build up to all out war the cartoon was not only important in the sphere of Shanghai popular culture in the eyes of the publishers and readers of pictorial magazines but that it occupied a central place in the primary discourse of Chinese modern art history Stanley Gibbons British Commonwealth Stamp Catalogue
