Congress. Senate. Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments,1948 Virginia Woolf, the War Without, the War Within Barbara Lounsberry,2020-01-06 Choice Outstanding Academic Title In her third and final volume on Virginia Woolf s diaries Barbara Lounsberry reveals new insights about the courageous last years of the modernist writer s life from 1929 until Woolf s suicide in 1941 Woolf turned more to her diary and to the diaries of others for support in these years as she engaged in inner artistic wars including the struggle with her most difficult work The Waves and as the threat of fascism in the world outside culminated in World War II During this period the war began to bleed into Woolf s diary entries Woolf writes about Hitler Mussolini and Stalin copies down the headlines of the day and captures how war changed her daily life Alongside Woolf s own entries Lounsberry explores the diaries of 18 other writers as Woolf read them including the diaries of Leo Tolstoy Dorothy Wordsworth Guy de Maupassant Alice James and Andr Gide Lounsberry shows how reading diaries was both respite from Woolf s public writing and also an inspiration for it Tellingly shortly before her suicide Woolf had stopped reading them completely The outer war and Woolf s inner life collide in this dramatic conclusion to the trilogy that resoundingly demonstrates why Virginia Woolf has been called the Shakespeare of the diary Lounsberry s masterful study is essential reading for a complete understanding of this extraordinary writer and thinker and the development of modernist literature The Last Great War of Antiquity James Howard-Johnston,2021-05-13 The last and longest war of classical antiquity was fought in the early seventh century It was ideologically charged and fought along the full length of the Persian Roman frontier drawing in all the available resources and great powers of the steppe world The conflict raged on an unprecedented scale and its end brought the classical phase of history to a close Despite all this it has left a conspicuous gap in the history of warfare This book aims to finally fill that gap

The war opened in summer 603 when Persian armies launched co ordinated attacks across the Roman frontier Twenty five years later the fighting stopped after the final forlorn counteroffensive thrusts of the Emperor Heraclius into the Persians Mesopotamian heartland James Howard Johnston pieces together the scattered and fragmentary evidence of this period to form a coherent story of the dramatic events as well as an introduction to key players Turks Arabs and Avars as well as Persians and Romans and a tour of the vast lands over which the fighting took place The decisions and actions of individuals particularly Heraclius a general of rare talent and the various immaterial factors affecting morale take centre stage yet due attention is also given to the underlying structures in both belligerent empires and to the Middle East under Persian occupation in the 620s The result is a solidly founded critical history of a conflict of immense significance in the final episode of classical history Investigation of Un-American Propaganda Activities in the United States United States.
