Placing Aesthetics Robert E. Wood, 2000-03-15 Examining select high points in the speculative tradition from Plato and Aristotle through the Middle Ages and German tradition to Dewey and Heidegger Placing Aesthetics seeks to locate the aesthetic concern within the larger framework of each thinker's philosophy In Professor Robert Wood's study aesthetics is not peripheral but rather central to the speculative tradition and to human existence as such In Dewey's terms aesthetics is experience in its integrity Its personal ground is in the heart which is the dispositional ground formed by genetic cultural and personal historical factors by which we are spontaneously moved and in turn are inclined to move both practically and theoretically in certain directions Prepared for use by the student as well as the philosopher Placing Aesthetics aims to recover the fullness of humanness within a sense of the fullness of encompassing Being It attempts to overcome the splitting of thought even in philosophy into exclusive specializations and the fracturing of life itself into theoretical practical and emotive dimensions
