Shadow Of The Third Century:

Shadow of the Third Century Alvin Boyd Kuhn, 2019-01-13 Shadow of the Third Century A Revaluation of Christianity first published in 1949 begins with the assertions that a true history of Christianity has never before been written and that the roots of the Christian religion lie in earlier religions and philosophies of the ancient world The author Alvin Boyd Kuhn asserts that Christianity as we know it took the form it did due to a degeneration of knowledge rather than to an energization produced by a new release of light and truth into the world In the ancient world knowledge was commonly passed down by esoteric traditions its inner meaning known only to the initiated The Gospels according to Kuhn should therefore be understood as symbolic narratives rather than as history Sacred scriptures are always written in a language of myth and symbol and the Christian religion threw away and lost their true meaning when it mistranslated this language into alleged history instead of reading it as spiritual allegory This literalism necessarily led to a religion antagonistic toward philosophy Moreover it produced a religion that failed to recognize its continuity with and debt to earlier esoteric schools As evidence of this Kuhn finds that many of the gospel stories and sayings have parallels in earlier works in particular those of Egypt and Greece The transformation of Jesus followers into Pauline Christians drew on these sources Moreover the misunderstanding of true Christianity led to the excesses of misguided asceticism Overall the book seeks to serve as a clarion call to the modern world to return to the primitive Christianity which the founder of Christian theology Augustine proclaimed had been the true religion of all humanity With its many citations from earlier works Shadow of the Third Century also serves as a bibliographic introduction to alternative histories of Christianity Shadow of the Third Century Alvin Boyd Kuhn, 1992 ANF04. The Fathers of the Third Century George Anson Jackson, 1881 Retrospective Columns Samuel Holzman, 2025-10-07 An innovative study of how and why ancient Greek builders sometimes combined older and contemporary carving styles when making capitals The Ionic order of ancient Greek architecture gradually evolved over the course of the sixth century BCE In Retrospective Columns Samuel Holzman examines an overlooked group of nine Ionic monuments that are varied in design but have capitals that combine the pillowy convex volutes of sixth century Ionia on one side and the crisp concave volutes of more contemporary styles on the other Such hybrid capitals had a surprising longevity and range spanning Greece Italy and Turkey between 550 and 250 BCE Why did ancient Greek builders sometimes revert to older carving styles and combine them with newer ones One old theory is that outdated styles were a labor saving shortcut a notion Holzman puts to rest with a marble carving experiment that recreated the volutes of one capital Rather he argues that hybrid capitals represented an important parallel to other trends in Greek art notably bilingual Attic vases which combined older and newer painting techniques for sheer visual delight By studying the chiaroscuro carving effects and painted polychrome decoration of Ionic architecture Holzman shows that ancient viewers were primed to look for differences in such details which the book illustrates with many original drawings and diagrams Exploring works of Ionic architecture from different periods in Ionia the Cyclades Athens and the Northern Aegean Retrospective Columns demonstrates that their builders ultimately returned to outmoded elements to establish continuity with the past reinforcing community identities and architectural tradition
