Shadow and Substance David Laeger,2004 Shadow and Substance Victor E. Hoven,2018-04-26 In speaking of the relation between the types of the Old Testament and the gospel they prefigured Paul calls the former a shadow and the latter the body or substance Col 2 17 Having thus linked type and antitype it follows that the gospel must have existed in the mind of Jehovah at the time he set the type We reason that without reality there can be no shadow In harmony with this thought it is recorded that God chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world Eph 1 4 The necessity of giving attention to typical teaching arises from the fact that the types were written for our admonition 1 Cor 10 11 As a part of the Jewish Scriptures their design was to make us wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus 2 Tim 3 15 With that in mind this volume is intended to assist the reader in his effort to acquire knowledge of divine wisdom in order to enter into its enjoyment through practice The material for these studies has been used by the author in the classroom for a number of years From the Preface Antiomianism explained, exposed and exploded; the substance of four sermons, ... in which is briefly shown the nature of the Mosaic dispensation and the excellency of the law of faith William HOPWOOD,1822 I Knew William Booth R.
