Shadow Passion:

Passion's Shadow Nicole Conn, 1995-01-01 Lindsay Brennan is a Portland architect whose devotion to her work takes the place of other things in her life Sondra Pinchot an interior designer has always depended on the comfort of alcohol And Samantha Sondra's dutiful daughter is trapped in an affair that's become nothing but a habit Now fate brings the three women together and their private addictions give way to deeper passions But sometimes love can be an addiction too Originally published by Simon Schuster 1995

Radical Passion Andrew Harvey, 2012-10-23 This culmination of award winning author Andrew Harvey's life's work bridges the great divide between spiritual resignation and engaged spiritual activism A manifesto for the transformation of the world through the fusion of deep mystical peace with the clarity of radical wisdom it is a wake up call to put love and compassion to urgent focused action According to Harvey we are in a massive global crisis reflected by a mass media addicted to violence and trivialization at a moment when what the world actually needs is profound inspiration a return to the heart centered way of the Divine Feminine the words of the mystics throughout the ages and the cultivation of the nonviolent philosophies of Gandhi Nelson Mandela Aung San Suu Kyi and the Dalai Lama Harvey's concepts of radical passion and sacred activism fly in the face of restraint of pessimism of denial of all that is inhumane fusing the mystic's passion for God with the activist's passion for justice and for healing the division between heaven and earth heart and will body and soul prayer and action Sacred activism asks that we engage deeply on a personal spiritual and political level so as to become a fully empowered fully active and contemplative humanity that can turn tragedy into grace and desolation into the opportunity to build and co create a new world Unlike many spiritual books Radical Passion does not veil the dark with artificial hope It explores the catastrophes of our current times and celebrates the ecstatic hope and divinity that is possible right now and in the future

Passion of a Silhouette Prentis L. Caudill, 2025-07-25 This is a book of poems that still shows the true beauty of God's own design. A book of passion.

From Judgment to Passion Rachel Fulton Brown, 2002-12-18 Devotion to the crucified Christ is one of the most familiar yet most disconcerting artifacts of medieval European civilization. How and why did the images of the dying God man and his grieving mother achieve such prominence, inspiring unparalleled religious creativity as well such imitative extremes as celibacy and self flagellation? To answer this question Rachel Fulton ranges over developments in liturgical performance, private prayer, doctrine, and art. She considers the fear occasioned by the disappointed hopes of medieval Christians convinced that the apocalypse would come soon; the revulsion of medieval Jews at being baptized in the name of God born from a woman; the reform of the Church in light of a new European money economy; the eroticism of the Marian exegesis of the Song of Songs; and much more. Devotion to the crucified Christ is one of the most familiar yet disconcerting artifacts of medieval European civilization. How and why did the images of the dying God man and his grieving mother achieve such prominence, inspiring unparalleled religious creativity and emotional artistry even as they fostered such imitative extremes as celibacy, crusade, and self flagellation? Magisterial in style and comprehensive in scope, From Judgment to Passion is the first systematic attempt to explain the origins and initial development of European devotion to Christ in his suffering humanity and Mary in her compassionate grief. Rachel Fulton examines liturgical performance, doctrine, private prayer, scriptural exegesis, and art in order to illuminate and explain the powerful desire shared by medieval women and men to identify with the crucified Christ and his mother. The book begins with the Carolingian campaign to convert the newly conquered pagan Saxons in particular, with the effort to explain for these new converts the mystery of the Eucharist, the miraculous presence of Christ's body at the Mass. Moving on to the early eleventh century when Christ's failure to return on the millennium of his Passion, A.D. 1033, necessitated for believers a radical revision of Christian history, Fulton examines the novel liturgies and devotions that arose amid this apocalyptic disappointment. The book turns finally to the twelfth century when, in the wake of the capture of Jerusalem in the First Crusade, there occurred the full flowering of a new, more emotional sensibility of faith, epitomized by the eroticism of the Marian exegesis of the Song of Songs and by the artistic and architectural innovations we have come to think of as quintessentially high medieval. In addition to its concern with explaining devotional change, From Judgment to Passion presses a second crucial question: How is it possible for modern historians to understand not only the social and cultural functions but also the experience of faith, the impulsive engagement with the emotions, sometimes ineffable of prayer and devotion? The answer, magnificently exemplified throughout this book's narrative, lies in imaginative empathy, the same incorporation of self into story that lay at the heart of the medieval effort to identify with Christ and Mary in their love and pain.

Purpose, Passion & Pursuit Peter E. Donaldson, 2017-10-20 In his writing Purpose, Passion, Pursuit, Peter E. Donaldson intelligently and quite eloquently stirs the nest of complacency and challenges us to make the best of what we are. You are worth as much as you think you are worth. So why devalue yourself? In

Chapter 5 Puzzle Pieces he explores the concept and understanding of purpose by examining three rudiments being Origin Process and Time In this section he brilliantly unfolds the truth that our purpose has everything to do with Gods divine plan and nothing to do with happenstance If youre like me then youre all about obtaining a better more fulfilled life If youre looking for the place where you really fit and can be your authentic you then read on Pastor Richard J Brown Kingsway Community Life Centre Peters sage words come to us out of the abundance of his lived experience with God Even more they come at a time when people the world over are searching in every corner for true meaning in life Chapter after chapter like a teacher who expounds knowledge he lays a new plank upon which the foundation of pursuing purpose is built In these pages his encounters with God unfold as they are seasoned with his unabashed belief in the Word of God which gives weight and authority to them What a captivating read Honestly where was this book with these transforming expressions when I was assessing the rudiments of my own destiny and just launching out into life Thats precisely the point Pursuing your best life doesnt begin today and end tomorrow its a lifetime experience that uncovers Gods supreme destiny for you If after reading this prophetic volume you are challenged to change the trajectory of your life then it was well worth the read If not I invite you to pick it up again and comb through these pages to fully grasp how it is certainly possible to passionately pursue your God ordained purpose As a result your life obviously will never be the same again Pastor John M Scott Director Youth Young Adult Ministries Ontario Conference of Seventh Day Adventists
