Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty peasants suffering from famine exploited urban laborers homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative innovating strategies of representing the nation the social other time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol Andreev Chekhov Turgenev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai s multi scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans Eurasian axis of world literature The Sablethorn Accord Krystal Graham,2025-02-05 In a world where shadows are currency and light is a curse two outcasts forge a pact that will shatter the heavens Nyxara Veythra a witch stripped of her shadow by betrayal walks the ashen wastes of Umbrathis as a living scar her body marked by phantom fissures where her silhouette once clung Thalorin Veyth a thief cursed to disintegrate at sunrise into golden motes stumbles into her path with an offer infiltrate the Eclipse Consortium s celestial vaults to reclaim her shadow and cure his affliction Together they ignite a heist that will unravel realms From the Bazaar of Broken Hours where time fractures into shards and merchants hawk stolen minutes to the Luminous Gaol a prison spun from liquid mirrors that reflect the darkest sins of those who gaze into them Nyxara and Thalorin face trials that test their fragile alliance Nyxara bargains with starved chronophages and confesses buried truths while Thalorin trades ribs for borrowed time his body unraveling faster with every step But the heart of their heist lies in the Vault of Crystallized Shadows where Nyxara s stolen shadow pulses with sentient malice fused to the crown of her betrayer Kaelvir As the thieves pact frays they uncover a deeper betrayal the shadow itself hungers to infest Nyxara s void while Thalorin s true name a secret that could unmake him has been whispered to their enemies In a final desperate gambit Nyxara and Thalorin must choose merge with their curses and risk annihilation or let their bond dissolve into cosmic dust Their collision of light and void will birth a new entity a living paradox that drifts through realms mending fractured time and whispering secrets to starved chronophages
