Shadows Illuminated Women In A Rural Culture:

Shadows Illuminated Terry Jaakkola, Teresa A. Jaakkola, Julia Lambert Frericks, 1996-12-01      Germans in Minnesota Kathleen Neils Conzen, 2009-08 Minnesota is often associated with its Scandinavian heritage but in fact Germans are the largest single immigrant group in Minnesota history and were the largest ancestry group in the 2000 census Author Kathleen Neils Conzen tells the story of German Americans and their profound influence on Minnesota history and culture Conzen recounts their triumphs and struggles over the last 150 years in a clear and concise narrative Landing in poverty Germans transformed acres of wilderness into productive farms and brought to America their love of art music and sociability Immigrants came to America intent on creating in the words of one agent an earthly paradise of this Minnesota and a new Germany soon rose in Stearns County Conzen explores not only the well known enclaves in Brown and Stearns Counties but also looks at the smaller communities of Winona on the Iron Range and along the North Shore as well as in the Twin Cities In recent times a renewed interest in German heritage can be seen in towns like New Ulm home to the thirty two foot statue of Hermann the German hero of the wars against the ancient Roman legions and Heritagefest the ethnic heritage festival that occurs every summer      Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System. Women's Studies Librarian, University of Wisconsin System. Women's Studies Librarian-at-Large, 1996      Under the Shadow of Nationalism Mariko Asano Tamanoi, 1998-03-01 The contribution of rural women to the creation and expansion of the Japanese nation state is undeniable As early as the nineteenth century the women of central Japan's Nagano prefecture in particular provided abundant and cheap labor for a number of industries most notably the silk spinning industry Rural women from Nagano could also be found working from a very young age as nursemaids domestic servants and farm laborers In whatever capacity they worked these women became the objects of scrutiny and reform in a variety of nationalist discourses not only because of the importance of their labor to the nation but also because of their gender and domicile the countryside was the centerpiece of state ideology and practice before and during the war during the Occupation and beyond Under the Shadow of Nationalism explores the interconnectedness of nationalism and gender in the context of modern Japan It combines the author's long term field research with a painstaking examination of the documents behind these discourses produced at various levels of society from the national government records social reformers reports ethnographic data to the local teachers manuals labor activists accounts village newspapers It provides a wide ranging yet in depth look at a key group of Japanese women as national subjects through the critical chapters of Japanese modernity and postmodernity      Great Lakes and Midwest Catalog Partners Book Distributing, 2007      The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Global in scope but refusing a familiar totalizing theoretical framework the essays in The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital demonstrate how localized and resistant social practices including anticolonial and feminist struggles peasant revolts labor organizing and various cultural movements challenge contemporary capitalism as a highly differentiated mode of production Reworking Marxist critique these essays on Asia Latin America the Caribbean North America and Europe advance a new understanding of cultural politics within the context of transnational neocolonial capitalism This perspective contributes to an overall critique of traditional approaches to modernity development and linear liberal narratives of culture history and democratic institutions It also frames a set of alternative social practices that allows for connections to be made between feminist politics among immigrant women in Britain women of color in the United States and Muslim women in Iran Egypt Pakistan and Canada the work of subaltern studies in India the Philippines and Mexico and antiracist social movements in North and South America the Caribbean and Europe These connections displace modes of opposition traditionally defined in relation to the modern state and enable a rethinking of political practice in the era of global capitalism Contributors Tani E Barlow Nandi Bhatia Dipesh Chakrabarty Chungmoo Choi Clara Connolly Angela Davis Arturo Escobar Grant Farred Homa Hoodfar Reynaldo C Ileto George Lipsitz David Lloyd Lisa Lowe Martin F Manalansan IV Aihwa Ong Pragna Patel Jos Rabasa Maria Josefina Salda a Portillo Jaqueline Urla In the Shadow of the Great War Jochen Böhrer, Ota Konrád, Rudolf Kučera, 2021-01-10 Whether victorious or not Central European states faced fundamental challenges after the First World War as they struggled to contain ongoing violence and forge peaceful societies This collection explores the various forms of violence these nations confronted during this period which effectively transformed the region into a laboratory for state building Employing a bottom up approach to understanding everyday life these studies trace the contours of individual and mass violence in the interwar era while illuminating their effects upon politics intellectual developments and the arts Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Celeste Vaughan Curington, 2024-09-13 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Race Gender and Care Work in Portugal examines the everyday lives of an African descendant care service workforce that labors in an ostensibly anti racial Europe and against the backdrop of the Portuguese colonial empire While much of the literature on global care work has focused on Asian and Latine migrant care workers there is comparatively less research that explicitly examines African care workers and their migration histories to Europe Sociologist Celeste Vaughan Curington focuses on Portugal a European setting with comparatively liberal policies around family settlement and naturalization for migrants In this setting rapid urbanization in the late twentieth century along with a national push to reconcile work and family has shaped the growth of paid home care and cleaning service industries Many researchers focus on informal work settings where immigrant rights are restricted and many workers are undocumented or without permanent residence status Curington instead examines workers who have accessed citizenship or permanent residence status and also explores African women s experiences laboring in care and service industries in the formal market revealing how deeply colonial and intersectional logics of a racialized and international division of reproductive labor in Portugal render these women hyper invisible and hyper visible as appropriate workers in Lisbon The Long Shadow of the Border Ida Marie Savio Vammen, Signe Cold-Ravnkilde, Hans Lucht, 2023-06-19 This book delves beyond the spectacular images of African migrants struggling to scale border fences or cross the Mediterranean in unseaworthy rubber dinghies by unpacking the policies and emerging practices that shape contemporary border governance in the expanding EU African borderlands For decades Africa has been the scene of a wide range of European interventions aimed at restraining irregularised migration to Europe creating an accelerated moment of control and confinement Today the externalisation of Europe's borders into Africa encompasses agreements on the return of migrants securitised border operations and projects under the EU's Emergency Trust Fund for Africa At a time when safe and legal mobility is limited and the human social and political conditions of African migrants are severely challenged this book emphasises how European efforts are both assisted but also resisted by local actors with agendas of their own Based on ethnographic fieldwork the different contributions vividly portray how African lives continue to be shaped by Europe's desire to contain and govern human mobility and how dominant spatial geopolitics are contested on various levels This book will be of particular value to students and researchers interested in African studies International Politics Border Governance Anthropology Human Geography and Global Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics

A Dream of Light & Shadow

Marjorie Agosin, 1995 Sixteen original essays on women writers from Mexico Guatemala Honduras Costa Rica Colombia Ecuador Uruguay Argentina and Brazil are gathered in this book Each establishes the relationship between the biography of the subject and her literary production Some of these writers like Nobel Prize winner Gabriela Mistral Elena Poniatowska and Victoria Ocampo are well known others are still largely undiscovered All of them defy the limits imposed upon them by society and all have been able to find freedom through creative imagination All the writers included here are vitally concerned with the problems women face in Latin America Children and mothers are the central focus of their lives and of many of their writings These writers have participated in essential ways in the history of their respective countries and in the intellectual history of Latin America and at the same time their greatest contribution has been in the sharing of the private details of personal stories their own and others In the strong connections that many of them have had with each other

Marjorie Agosin sees a culture of sisterhood

Wandering Women Laura Di Bianco,2022-12-06 Wandering Women Urban Ecologies of Italian Feminist Filmmaking explores the work of contemporary Italian women directors from feminist and ecological perspectives Mostly relegated to the margins of the cultural scene and concerned with women s marginality the compelling films Wandering Women sheds light on tell stories of displacement and liminality that unfold through the act of walking in the city The unusual emptiness of the cities that the nomadic female protagonists traverse highlights the absence of and their wish for life sustaining communities Laura Di Bianco contends that women s urban filmmaking while articulating a claim for belonging and asserting cinematic and social agency brings into view landscapes of the Anthropocene where urban decay and the erasure of nature intersect with human alienation Though a minor cinema it is also a powerful movement of resistance against the dominant male narratives about the world we inhabit Based on interviews with directors Wandering Women deepens the understanding of contemporary Italian cinema while enriching the field of feminist ecocritical literature

In the Shadow of Chedis and Minarets Andrea Witbooi,2024-10-22 Born in South Africa in 1956 Andrea Witbooi grows up between two opposing laws the rule of apartheid with its enforced racial segregation and discrimination and the law of God to love your neighbour as yourself Through the life and ministry of her father she witnesses how the love of Jesus overcomes hatred and brings hope healing and transformation to youngsters living in perilous conditions in Johannesburg s townships This awakens a deep yearning to also invest her life for God s purposes But where and how Following God s prompting her adventurous journey leads her to the Kingdom of Thailand She studies the Thai language and grapples with everyday life ruled by unfamiliar cultural norms embedded in a Buddhist worldview Then another move takes her to the Muslim dominated South of Thailand Together with her growing family she makes her home in provincial towns and villages where the pillars of Islam determine the religious behavioural and dietary rules of the local communities As a Christian foreigner she experiences both friendship and hostility trust and suspicion acceptance and rejection This biographical narrative reflects how God s comforting nearness help and protection carried Andrea Witbooi through times of upheaval and feelings of up rootedness loneliness and confusion Her story also opens a window into the daily lives and struggles of Thai and Malay individuals and families whom she grew to love deeply

The Liberal Heartland Jon K. Lauck, Catherine McNicol Stock, 2025-04-29 Over the last two decades the political narrative of the liberal coasts and the conservative heartland has become something of a truism leading many Democrats to write off much of the Midwest as a Republican stronghold Today's polarized divide between rural and urban voters makes it easy to forget that things have not always been this way The Liberal Heartland is a powerful reminder that the American Midwest has a progressive legacy that rivals the coasts Across twenty chapters The Liberal Heartland traces the political history of this region from the post New Deal period to the rise of the New Right and Donald Trump's right wing populism The contributors explore the way liberals and progressives across the Midwest fought for expanding environmental protection engaged in community activism developed a queer labor coalition before Stonewall struggled for women's rights and representation in the Great Plains states opposed the death penalty and mobilized for Indigenous self determination among other topics In addition to well known leaders like Harry Truman and George McGovern the book highlights lesser known figures such as Lydia Cady Langer Mary Jean Collins Richard Hatcher Jim Jontz and Paul Wellstone A companion to the 2020 volume The Conservative Heartland The Liberal Heartland explores the history of the Midwest from a less acknowledged perspective recounting often forgotten stories that demonstrate the importance of the Midwest for New Deal liberalism and various forms of left wing politics This is a long overdue book that represents a fresh look at the American heartland

The Shadow Puppet Theatre of Malaysia Beth Osnes, 2014-01-10 This comprehensive book explores the Malaysian form of shadow puppet theatre highlighting its unique nature within the context of Southeast Asian and Asian shadow puppet theatre traditions Intended for a Western audience not familiar with Asian performance and practices the text serves as a bridge to this highly imaginative form An in depth examination of the Malaysian puppet tradition is provided as well as performance scripts designs for puppet characters instructions for creating a shadow screen and easy directions for performance Another section then considers the practical pedagogical and ethical issues that arise in the teaching of this art

Under the Shadow of Napoleon Michael Bonura, 2012-05-07 The way an army thinks about and understands warfare has a tremendous impact on its organization training and operations The central ideas of that understanding form a nation's way of warfare that influences decisions on and off the battlefield From the disasters of the War of 1812 Winfield Scott ensured that America adopted a series of ideas formed in the crucible of the Wars of the French Revolution and epitomized by Napoleon Reflecting American cultural changes these French ideas dominated American warfare on the battlefields of the Mexican American War the American Civil War the Spanish American War and World War I America remained committed to these ideas until cultural pressures and the successes of German Blitzkrieg from 1939 1940 led George C Marshall to orchestrate the adoption of a different understanding of warfare Michael A Bonura examines concrete battlefield tactics army regulations and theoretical works on war as they were presented in American army education manuals professional journals and the popular press to demonstrate that as a cultural construction warfare and ways of warfare can be transnational and influence other nations

Cultures of Energy Sarah Strauss, Stephanie Rupp, Thomas Love, 2016-06-16 This path breaking volume explores cultures of energy the underlying but under appreciated dimensions of both crisis and innovation in resource use around the globe Theoretical chapters situate pressing energy issues in larger conceptual frames and ethnographic case studies reveal energy as it is imagined used and contested in a variety of cultural contexts Contributors address issues including the connection between resource flows and social relationships in energy systems cultural transformation and notions of progress and collapse the blurring of technology and magic social tensions that accompany energy contraction and sociocultural changes required in affluent societies to reduce dependence on fossil fuels Each of five thematic sections concludes with an integrative and provocative conversation among the authors The volume is an ideal tool for teaching unique contemporary and comparative perspectives on social theories of science and technology in undergraduate and graduate courses

Between Shadows and Noise Amber Jamilla Musser, 2024-01-12 In Between Shadows and Noise Amber Jamilla Musser theorizes sensation as a Black feminist method for aesthetic interpretation and criticism that uses the knowledges held by the body to access the unrepresentable Thinking through Blackness empire and colonialism Musser examines artworks ranging from Ming Smith's Flamingo Fandango Jordan Peele's Us and Katherine Dunham's Shango to Samita Sinha's This ember state Titus Kaphar's A Pillow for Fragile Fictions and Teresita Fernandez's Puerto Rico Burned 6 She engages with these works from an embodied situatedness to grapple with the questions and sensations of racialization and difference that the works produce Throughout Musser rethinks how we consider the relationships between race representation and politics by dwelling in those spaces and concepts that elude Western norms of representation objectivity and logic In so doing she explores ways of being and knowing that exceed overdetermined parameters while offering a blueprint for sensing imagining and living otherwise
