Morris Whiton,1898 The Origin of Civilisation and the Primitive Condition of Man Sir John Lubbock,1882 The Origin of Civilisation and the Primitive Condition of Man Sir John Lubbock,1871 The Shadow Christ Gerald Stanley Lee,1896 Relations Marilyn Strathern,2020-04-17

The concept of relation holds a privileged place in how anthropologists think and write about the social and cultural lives they study In Relations eminent anthropologist Marilyn Strathern provides a critical account of this key concept and its usage and significance in the English speaking world Exploring relation's changing articulations and meanings over the past three centuries Strathern shows how the historical idiosyncrasy of using an epistemological term for kinspersons relatives was bound up with evolving ideas about knowledge making and kin making

She draws on philosophical debates about relation such as Leibniz's reaction to Locke and what became its definitive place in anthropological exposition elucidating the underlying assumptions and conventions of its use. She also calls for scholars in anthropology and beyond to take up the limitations of Western relational thinking especially against the background of present ecological crises and interest in multispecies relations. In weaving together analyses of kin making and knowledge making Strathern opens up new ways of thinking about the contours of epistemic and relational possibilities while questioning the limits and potential of ethnographic methods.
