Power, 2021-03-24 Drawing on a wide diversity of sources this volume constitutes an additional layer to the phenomenon of trauma by exemplifying its experience within the context of the church specifically the worldwide Anglican Communion a family of churches rooted in the English appropriation of the Reformation As shown here a wide variety of analytic techniques can be deployed to examine trauma in the context of the church At an uncertain moment characterized by institutional breakup and decline in several Anglican churches this volume addresses an urgent need in the literature of church history as constituencies both within the church and without come to terms with ongoing and wide ranging experiences of trauma The variety of traumas and the responses official and otherwise documented in this collection reflect the wide ranging testimony of the contributors Shedding light for the first time on significant traumatic episodes these narratives examine a difficult and seemingly inexhaustible topic The Literature of Absolute War Nil Santiáñez, Nil Santiáñez-Tió, 2020-05-28 This is the first comparative transnational approach to the language of absolute war and the literature on World War II New Approaches in Teaching History Frederic

Krome,2024-02-14 Science fiction literature and film are an underappreciated source for the teaching of history Finding material that can excite a student s curiosity can be a key towards greater student engagement especially among students who are taking history as a requirement rather than from interest The discovery that they can read or watch science fiction as part of their classwork often comes as a pleasant surprise Beyond its popularity however utilizing science fiction for class assignments has certain pedagogical advantages it introduces students to new vistas in historical thought helps them learn how literature and film can be applied as a primary source and can encourage participation in projects that are enjoyable Each chapter provides case studies focusing on a different subject in the modern history curriculum and in addition to providing an analysis of specific texts and or cinematic sources gives suggestions on assignments for the students
