Shadows Of War Violence Power And International Profiteering In The Twenty First Century:

Shadows of War Carolyn Nordstrom, 2004-05-17 Annotation This book captures the human face of the frontlines revealing both the visible and the hidden realities of contemporary war power and international profiteering in the 21st century

Shadows of War, 2004 In this provocative and compelling examination of the deep politics of war Carolyn Nordstrom takes us from the immediacy of war zone survival through the offices of power brokers to vast extra legal networks that fuel war and international profiteering

Watching War on the Twenty-First Century Stage Clare Finburgh Delijani, 2017-07-27 What do we watch when we watch war Who manages public perceptions of war and how Watching War on the Twenty First Century Stage Spectacles of Conflict is the first publication to examine how theatre in the UK has staged debated and challenged the ways in which spectacle is habitually weaponized in times of war The battle for hearts and minds and the war of images are fields of combat that can be as powerful as armed conflict And today spectacle and conflict the two concepts that frame the book have joined forces via audio visual technologies in ways that are more powerful than ever Clare Finburgh's original and interdisciplinary interrogation provides a richly provocative account of the structuring role that spectacle plays in warfare engaging with the works of philosopher Guy Debord cultural theorist Jean Baudrillard visual studies specialist Marie Jos Mondzain and performance scholar Hans Thies Lehmann She offers coherence to a large and expanding field of theatrical war representation by analysing in careful detail a spectrum of works as diverse as expressionist drama documentary theatre comedy musical satire and dance theatre She demonstrates how features unique to the theatrical art namely the construction of a fiction in the presence of the audience can present possibilities for a more informed engagement with how spectacles of war are produced and circulated If we watch with more resistance we may contribute in significant ways to the demilitarization of images And what if this were the first step towards a literal demilitarization

The Architecture of Illegal Markets Jens Beckert, Matías Dewey, 2017-07-26 From illegal drugs stolen artwork and forged trademarks to fraud in financial markets the phenomenon of illegality in market exchanges is pervasive Illegal markets have great economic significance have relevant social and political consequences and shape economic and political structures Despite the importance of illegality in the economy the field of economic sociology unquestioningly accepts the premise that the institutional structures and exchanges taking place in markets are law abiding in nature This volume makes a contribution to changing this Questions that stand at the centre of the chapters are What are the interfaces between legal and illegal markets How do demand and supply in illegal markets interact What role do criminal organizations play in illegal markets What is the relationship between illegality and governments Is illegality a phenomenon central to capitalism Anchored in economic sociology this book contributes to the analysis and understanding of market exchanges in conditions of illegality from a perspective that focuses on the social organization of markets Offering both theoretical reflections and case studies the chapters assembled in the volume address the consequences of the illegal production distribution and consumption of products for the architecture of markets It also focuses on the underlying causes and the political and social concerns stemming from the infringement of the law

The Land of Open Graves Jason De Leon, 2015-10-23 In this gripping and provocative ethnography of death National Book Award winner and MacArthur Genius Fellow Jason De Leon sheds light on one of the most pressing political issues of our time the human consequences of US immigration and border policy The Land of Open Graves reveals the suffering and deaths that occur daily in the Sonoran Desert of Arizona as thousands of undocumented migrants attempt to cross the border from Mexico into the United States Drawing on the four major fields of anthropology De Leon uses an innovative combination of ethnography archaeology linguistics and forensic science to produce a scathing critique of Prevention through Deterrence the federal border enforcement policy that encourages migrants to cross in areas characterized by extreme environmental conditions and high risk of death For two decades systematic violence has failed to deter border crossers while successfully turning the rugged terrain of southern Arizona into a killing field Featuring stark photography by Michael Wells this book examines the weaponization of natural terrain as a border wall first person stories from survivors underscore this fundamental threat to human rights and the very lives of non citizens as they are subjected to the most insidious and intangible form of American policing as institutional violence In harrowing detail De Leon chronicles the journeys of people who have made dozens of attempts to cross the border and uncovers the stories of the objects and bodies left behind in the desert The Land of Open Graves will spark debate and controversy

Wartime Shakespeare Amy Lidster, 2023-10-26 This is the first book length interdisciplinary study of how Shakespeare has been mobilized in performance at times of conflict spanning the eighteenth to the twenty first century It sets out a brand new critical methodology that recognizes how wartime theatre is mediated by networks of production and reception that control its meaning and impact Performances of Shakespeare's plays like the texts themselves do not have single or fixed meanings and one production context often brings together conflicting agendas and responses Amy Lidster explains how differing productions of Shakespeare shed light on issues at the heart of conflicts and negotiate concepts such as patriotism commemoration and propaganda With wide ranging transhistorical coverage she argues that wartime Shakespeare is defined by its malleability and plural mis understandings which determine its power to shape the experience of war the political issues at stake during a period of crisis and the construction of narratives of conflict

Returned Deborah Boehm, 2016-05-10 Returned follows transnational Mexicans as they experience the alienation and unpredictability of deportation tracing the particular ways that U S immigration policies and state removals affect families Deportation an emergent global order of social injustice reaches far beyond the individual deportee as family members with diverse U S immigration statuses including U S citizens also return after deportation or migrate for the first time The book includes accounts of displacement struggle suffering and profound loss but also of resilience flexibility and imaginings of what may come Returned tells the story of the chaos and design of deportation and its aftermath

Peacebuilding in the African Great Lakes Region Kenneth Omeje, Tricia Redeker Hepner, 2013-06-19 Driven by genocide civil war political instabilities ethnic and pastoral hostilities the African Great Lakes Region primarily Uganda Rwanda Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi has been overwhelmingly defined by conflict Kenneth Omeje Tricia Redeker Hepner and an international group of scholars many from the Great Lakes region focus on the interlocking conflicts and efforts toward peace in this multidisciplinary volume These essays present a range of debates and perspectives on the history and politics of conflict highlighting the complex internal and external sources of both persistent tension and creative peacebuilding Taken together the essays illustrate that no single perspective or approach can adequately capture the dynamics of conflict or offer successful strategies for sustainable peace in the region

Suspect Communities Nicole Nguyen, 2019-10-29 The first major qualitative study of countering violent extremism in key U S cities Suspect Communities is a powerful reassessment of the U S government's countering violent extremism CVE program that has arisen in major cities across the United States since 2011 Drawing on an interpretive qualitative study it examines how the concept behind CVE aimed at combating homegrown terrorism by engaging Muslim community members teachers and religious leaders in monitoring and reporting on young people has been operationalized through the everyday work of CVE actors from high level national security workers to local community members with significant penalties for the communities themselves Nicole Nguyen argues that studying CVE provides insight into how the drive to bring liberal reforms to contemporary security regimes through community driven and ideologically ecumenical programming has in fact further institutionalized anti Muslim racism in the United States She forcefully contends that the U S security state has designed CVE to legitimize and shore up support for the very institutions that historically have criminalized demonized and dehumanized communities of color while appearing to learn from and attenuate past practices of coercive policing racial profiling and political exclusion By undertaking this analysis Suspect Communities offers a vital window into the inner workings of the U S security state and the devastating impact of CVE on local communities

A Criminological Biography of an Arms Dealer Yarin Eski, 2022-01-31 For many the arms trade and its dealers are the root cause of regional wars and global terrorism In both public and academic debates arms dealers are considered immoral as they profit from conflict due to their key position in the international arms trading business Nevertheless there seems to be little to no interest in the personal lives of those actively involved In his criminological biography of a licensed arms dealer Yarin Eski provides an in depth interdisciplinary approach to and understanding of the global arms trade revealing a deep insider view placed in a wider sociocultural context From early discussions about childhood and career choices to reflections on becoming and being an arms trader Eski offers a methodologically embedded approach and advances biographical writing in the field of Criminology It is a unique and thought provoking contribution to the fields of criminology ethnography sociology critical security studies policing studies war studies and international politics and offers an unparalleled insight from within

Nimo's War, Emma's War Cynthia Enloe,2010-06-02 Nimo Maha Safah Shatha Emma Danielle Kim Charlene In a book that once again blends her distinctive flair for capturing the texture of everyday life with shrewd political insights Cynthia Enloe looks closely at the lives of eight ordinary women four Iraqis and four Americans during the Iraq War Among others Enloe profiles a Baghdad beauty parlor owner a teenage girl who survived a massacre an elected member of Parliament the young wife of an Army sergeant and an African American woman soldier Each chapter begins with a close up look at one woman s experiences and widens into a dazzling examination of the larger canvas of war s gendered dimensions Bringing to light hidden and unexpected theaters of operation prostitution sexual assault marriage ethnic politics sexist economies these stories are a brilliant entryway into an eye opening exploration of the actual causes costs and long range consequences of war This unique comparison of American and Iraqi women s diverse and complex experiences sheds a powerful light on the different realities that together we call perhaps too easily the Iraq war

Principled Engagement Morten B. Pedersen,David Kinley,2016-04-08 What is the best way to promote human rights in grossly repressive states when neither sanctions nor trade and investment have much effect This book examines the concept of Principled Engagement as an often overlooked alternative strategy for alleviating human rights violations and improving the framework of human rights protection Beginning with an explanation of the concept and a comparison with the alternatives of Ostracism and Business as Usual the book argues that Principled Engagement deserves greater attention and explains how it works and what factors contribute to its success or failure Case studies provide a rare scholarly inquiry into the effectiveness of the basic underlying ideas and analyse and assess specific cases including from China Burma Zimbabwe and Liberia Written by leading academics and practitioners the book takes a general comparative approach to human rights policy that teases out broad lessons about what works Ultimately this is a study that challenges scholars and practitioners alike to take a fresh look at how human rights are promoted internationally

Young People and Everyday Peace Helen Berents,2018-03-19 Young People and Everyday Peace is grounded in the stories of young people who live in Los Altos de Cazuc an informal peri urban community in Soacha to the south of Colombia s capital Bogot The occupants of this community have fled the armed conflict and exist in a state of marginalisation and social exclusion amongst ongoing violences conducted by armed gangs and government forces Young people negotiate these complexities and offer pointed critiques of national politics as well as grounded aspirations for the future Colombia's protracted conflict and its effects on the population raise many questions about how we think about peacebuilding in and with communities of conflict affected people Building on contemporary debates in International Relations about post liberal everyday peace Helen Berents draws on feminist International Relations and embodiment theory to pay meaningful attention to those on the margins She conceptualises a notion of embodied everyday peace amidst violence to recognise the presence and voice of young people as stakeholders in everyday efforts to respond to violence and insecurity In doing so Berents argues for and engages a more complex understanding of the everyday stemming from the embodied experiences of those centrally present in conflicts Taking young people's lives and narratives seriously recognises the difficulties of protracted conflict but finds potential to build a notion of an embodied everyday amidst violence where a complex and fraught peace can be found Young People and Everyday Peace will be of interest to scholars of Latin American Studies International Relations and Peace and Conflict Studies

Why America's Top Pundits Are Wrong Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2005-01-17 In this fresh literate and biting critique of current thinking on some of today's most important and controversial topics leading anthropologists take on some of America's top pundits This absorbing collection of essays subjects such popular commentators as Thomas Friedman Samuel Huntington Robert Kaplan and Dinesh D Souza to cold hard scrutiny and finds that their writing is often misleadingly simplistic culturally ill informed and politically dangerous Mixing critical reflection with insights from their own fieldwork twelve distinguished anthropologists respond by offering fresh perspectives on globalization ethnic violence social justice and the biological roots of behavior They take on such topics as the collapse of Yugoslavia the consumer practices of the American poor American foreign policy in the Balkans and contemporary debates over race welfare and violence against women In the clear vigorous prose of the pundits themselves these contributors reveal the hollowness of what often passes as prevailing wisdom and passionately demonstrate the need for a humanistically complex and democratic understanding of the contemporary world Available November 2004 Pub Date January 2005
