relegated to the margins into dialogue with work long regarded as canonical After mapping sidelined marginalized and forgotten women folklorists Sottilotta narrows the focus onto four writers and collectors who were inspired by Italian and Irish insular contexts Laura Gonzenbach who collected Sicilian wonder tales Grazia Deledda who wrote Sardinian ethnographic sketches legends and fairy tales Jane Wilde who published anthologies of Irish folklore and Augusta Gregory who collected traditional narratives in the west of Ireland Situated within an ongoing process of rediscovery of lesser known collectors tellers and tales in the European tradition Sottilotta relocates these figures within a broader transcultural framework Throughout Sottilotta emphasizes the role of women as crucial intermediaries between different cultural groups in particular between the world of the folk and the world of scholarly folklore studies Unearthing rare archival material and reading these writings from the perspective of gender Sottilotta sheds light on the identity dynamics that animated the cultural phenomenon of collecting folk and fairy tales in this era Women in Ulster Politics, 1890-1940 Diane Urguhart, 2000 Focusing on the political role of women in north east Ulster this book considers the suffrage campaign women s involvement in unionist and nationalist associations and their position in municipal and national politics The extent of women's political influence its effect and the means by which it was gained are all examined Urguhart teaches at the School of Modern History Queen's University Belfast Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR A Century in Focus W.
