Shadows On The Land:

The Shadow Land Elizabeth Kostova, 2017 Kostova's new novel is a tale of immense scope that delves into the horrors of a century and traverses the culture and landscape of this mysterious country. Suspenseful and beautifully written, it explores the power of stories, the pull of the past, and the hope and meaning that can sometimes be found in the aftermath of loss. Praise for Elizabeth Kostova's The Historian: Quite extraordinary. Kostova is a natural storyteller. She has refashioned the vampire myth into a compelling contemporary novel, a late night page turner. San Francisco Chronicle: Hypnotic, a thrill ride through history. The Denver Post: Part thriller, part history, part romance. Kostova has a keen sense of storytelling and she has a marvelous story to tell. Baltimore Sun: Kostova's vampire is no campy Lugosi knockoff. Shadow Land, Or, The Seer Elizabeth Oakes Prince Smith, 1852 Shadow Land: a story with a purpose. By the author of "Philip Paternoster, etc." [i.e. Charles Maurice Davies.] etc, 1860 Shadow Land E. D'Esperance, 1996-09 Eva's Adventures in Shadow-Land Mary Dummett Nauman, 1872 Painting, Science, and the Perception of Coloured Shadows Paul Smith, 2021-03-17 Many artists and scientists including Buffon, Goethe, and Philipp Otto Runge, who observed the vividly coloured shadows that appear outdoors around dawn and dusk or indoors when a candle burns under waning daylight, chose to describe their colours as beautiful. Paul Smith explains what makes these ephemeral effects worthy of such appreciation or how depictions of coloured shadows have genuine aesthetic and epistemological significance. This multidisciplinary book synthesises methodologies drawn from art history, close pictorial analysis, psychology, and neuroscience, theories of colour constancy, history of science, the changing paradigms used to explain coloured shadows, and philosophy, theories of perception, and aesthetic value drawn from Wittgenstein and Merleau-Ponty. This title will be of interest to scholars in art history, art theory, and the history of science and technology. Out of the Shadows Sarah Singleton, 2008 Set in Elizabethan England, this fantasy features a fast-paced plot, a cat and mouse game between hunter and hunted, and an exploration of questions about religious faith and fanaticism. The Making of Land and the Making of India Nikita Sud, 2020-11-30 What is land and how is it made? In this path-breaking study of sites in western, eastern, and southern India, Nikita Sud argues that land is not simply the solid surface of the earth. It is best understood as a materially and conceptually dynamic realm intimately tied to the social. As such, land transitions across porous registers of territory, property, authority, the sacred, history, and memory, and contested access and exclusion. While states, markets, and politics in post-liberalization India try to make land suitable for growth and development, the relationship between the soil and institutions is never straightforward. A state attempting to order a layered topography is frequently stretched into shadowy domains of informality and unsanctioned practices. A market may be advanced but remains precariously embedded in sociality. Politics could challenge the land making of the state and markets. It may also effect compromises. Attempts at constructing a durable landed order thus reveal our own dis-orders. In attempting to make the land, Sud's intriguing study shows how the land simultaneously makes us. Emerson Bennett's
