The corridor was shrouded with shadows, its dark walls flickering with an almost-spectral impermanence. The only light cast on the scene came from a glowing candelabra gripped in the hand of a woman in white. With a shudder, she stepped towards the corridor's end, the silent swish of her long gown gliding noiselessly across the floor. There, a door stood slightly ajar; the open crack an invitation for the darkness to creep in.

A low murmur of music seeped through the frame, an organ thrum that filled the ominous silence. Black hair cascaded over the woman's shoulders, framing her deathly white features. With her free hand, she reached for the door handle, her fingers trembling as if in fear of what she would find within.

As the organ music swelled in warning, a dark shadow fell across the woman's back. She turned in horror, her mouth gaping wide in a
