Shaitan A Novel:

The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction Areti Dragas, 2014-08-31 Focusing on the figure of the storyteller this study breaks new ground in the approach to reading contemporary literature by identifying a growing interest in storytelling For the last thirty years contemporary fiction has been influenced by theoretical discourses textuality and writing Only since the rise of postcolonialism have academic critics been more overtly interested in stories where high theory frameworks are less applicable However as we move through various contemporary contexts engaging with postcolonial identities and hybridity to narratives of disability and evolutionary accounts of group and individual survival a common feature of all is the centrality of story which posits both the idea of survival and the passing on of traditions The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction closely examines this preoccupation with story and storytelling through a close reading of six contemporary international novelists that are either about actual storytellers or engage with the figure of the storyteller revealing how death of the author has given birth to the storyteller Offspring Fictions Matt Kimmich, 2008-01-01 Offspring Fictions Salman Rushdie's Family Novels is the first book length study that examines families and especially the parent child relationship in Rushdie's core works It argues that Sigmund Freud's concept of the family and the author's variations thereon are central to a full understanding of the four novels Midnight's Children Shame the controversial The Satanic Verses and The Moor's Last Sigh a quasi sequel to Rushdie's first success Through close readings that make use of a variety of critical approaches Offspring Fictions provides a sustained examination of how the parents and children that people Rushdie's fictions reflect the larger issues his work is concerned with nationalism religion history and authorship Aimed primarily at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader Offspring Fictions provides a clear and insightful analysis of Rushdie's family tetralogy Catalogue of Arabic Printed Books in the British Museum: A-Z, 1894-1901 British Museum. Performance and Performativity in Contemporary Indian Fiction in English Maria-Sabina Draga Alexandru,2015-02-04 This book starts with a consideration of a 1997 issue of the New Yorker that celebrated fifty years of Indian independence and goes on to explore the development of a pattern of performance and performativity in contemporary Indian fiction in English Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy and Vikram Chandra Such fiction which constructs identity through performative acts is built around a nomadic understanding of the self and implies an evolution of narrative language towards performativity whereby the text itself becomes nomadic A comparison with theatrical performance Peter Brook s Mahabharata and Girish Karnad s theatre of roots serves to support the argument that in both theatre and fiction the concepts of performance and performativity transform classical Indian mythic poetics In the mythic symbiosis of performance and storytelling in Indian tradition within a cyclical pattern of estrangement from and return to the motherland and or its traditions myth becomes a liberating space of consciousness where rigid categories and boundaries are transcended

this book reveals how postcolonial writing can encourage the enlarged sense of moral and political responsibility needed to supplant ongoing forms of imperial violence with cosmopolitan institutions relationships and ways of thinking The Power of the Story Michael Hanne,1996 A spirited well researched volume T his highly readable study is an impressive work of contemporary criticism richly deserving its intended general and academic audiences Choice Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1982 State Sponsored Literature Asha Rogers,2020-03-05 Debates about the value of the literary rarely register the expressive acts of state subsidy sponsorship and cultural policy that have shaped post war Britain In State Sponsored Literature Asha Rogers argues that the modern state was a major material condition of literature even as its efforts were relative partial and prone to disruption Drawing from neglected and occasionally unexpected archives she shows how the state became an integral and conflicted custodian of literary freedom in the postcolonial world as beliefs about literature s public were radically challenged by the unrivalled migration to Britain at the end of Empire State Sponsored Literature retells the story of literature s place in post war Britain through original analysis of the institutional forces behind canon formation and contestation from the literature programmes of the British Council and Arts Council and the UK s fraught relations with UNESCO to GCSE literature anthologies and the origins of The Satanic Verses in migrant Camden The state did not shape literary production in a vacuum Rogers argues but its policies practices and priorities were also inexorably shaped in turn Demonstrating how archival work can potentially transform our understanding of literature this book challenges how we think about literature s value by asking what state involvement has meant for writers readers institutions and the ideal of autonomy itself The Novels of Mulk Raj Anand Neena Arora,2005 Dr Mulk Raj Anand Through His Rare Prolificity Bold Experimentation And Aesthetic Sensibility Has Made Immense Contribution To Indian As Well As World Literature In English His Choice Of Unconventional Subjects And Characters Has Been Determined By His Dickensian Humanistic Philosophy He Set Up New Trends By Introducing Negative Hero Anti Hero In His Novels His Fictional World Is Peopled By Characters From Various Strata Of Society From The Lowest To The Highest Rungs In The Hierarchy Anand Has Revealed Exceptional Psychological Insight In The Portrayal Of These Characters Who Once Were Real Men And Women And Are Not Mere Phantoms Of Fantasy However His Otherwise Authentic And Objective Delineation Of Characters At Places Gets Marred When His Reformistic Vigour Supersedes His Aesthetic Integrity Resulting In A Serious Injury To The Integritas Consonantia And Claritas The Chief Requisites Of A Work Of Art The Present Book The Novels Of Mulk Raj Anand Traces Both The Strengths And Weaknesses Of Dr Anand As A Novelist And Studies His Protagonists In The Perspective Of Other Aspects Of His Novels It Would Be Highly Useful For Students Teachers And Researchers In The Field Of English Literature Contemporary Fiction, Celebrity Culture, and the Market for Modernism Carey Mickalites,2022-01-13 Arguing that contemporary celebrity authors like Zadie Smith Ian McEwan Martin Amis Kazuo Ishiguro Salman Rushdie Eimear McBride and Anna Burns position their work and public personae within a received modernist canon to claim and monetize its cultural capital in the lucrative market for literary fiction this book also shows how the corporate conditions of marketing and branding have redefined older models of literary influence and innovation It contributes to a growing body of criticism focused on contemporary literature as a field in which the formal and stylistic experimentation that came to define a canon of early 20th century modernism has been renewed contested and revised Other critics have celebrated these renewals variously arguing that contemporary literature picks up on modernism's unfinished aesthetic revolutions in ways that have expanded the imaginative possibilities for fiction and revived questions of literary autonomy in the wake of postmodern nihilism While this is a compelling thesis and one that rightly questions an artificial and problematic periodization that still lingers in academic criticism those approaches generally fail to address the material conditions that structure literary production and the generation of cultural capital whether in the historical development of modernism or its contemporary permutations This book addresses this absence by proposing a materialist history of modernism's afterlives

Literary Secularism Amardeep Singh, 2008-12-18 Literary Secularism Religion and Modernity in Twentieth Century Fiction shows the path to secularization in the modern novel in comparative perspective Writers as diverse as George Eliot James Joyce Salman Rushdie Orhan Pamuk Taslima Nasrin and

James Wood have all struggled with religious orthodoxy in their personal lives and are some of the most important and representative secular writers in the modern world canon But their novels which are far more than mere anti religious manifestos directly reflect the continued power of religious communities and institutions in the modern world While religion is in a very real sense displaced from epistemological centrality in modernity all of these writers suggest that religious texts rituals and communities have a force that is in George Eliot s words still throbbing in modern life In a series of close readings Literary Secularism argues that the intimate often deeply ambivalent representation of religion is a key feature of modern writing and is central to the larger intellectual and historical project of modernity Literary Secularism is then a complex literary ethos which impinges as much on style language and novelistic form as on theme The close readings here of novels such as George Eliot s Daniel Deronda Rabindranath Tagore s Gora James Joyce s Ulysses and Salman Rushdie s The Satanic Verses all hinge on the ambiguity of religious and secular discourses In some cases the ambiguity is expressed through the affective and embodied experience of the protagonists whose private subjectivity often conflicts with their public identities The conflict between present and private is also explored in a dedicated chapter on secularism and feminism in India as well as with regard to the global crisis of secularism that has emerged following the terrorist attacks of 9 11 While the particular experiences of the various narratives vary somewhat from author to author all of the authors in this study are interested in defining a way of being secular that no sociological or ideological formula can fully describe Correspondingly while works of literature are certainly artifacts marking key moments in the history of secularisation literature by itself doesn t produce secularism in either the cultural or the political context In arguing for the literary as a historically specific social and cultural mode of secularity Literary Secularism offers a unique perspective on the problem of secularisation that may be of interest to fields such as literary criticism religious studies the sociology of religion and political theory
