Long Journey Of Garcia Mendes:

Topographies of Tolerance and Intolerance Marjorie Elizabeth Plummer, Victoria Christman, 2018-08-07

Topographies of Tolerance and Intolerance challenges the narrative of a simple progression of tolerance and the establishment of confessional identity during the early modern period. These essays explore the lived experiences of religious plurality providing insights into the developments and drawbacks of religious coexistence in this turbulent period. The essays examine three main groups of actors: the laity, parish clergy, and unacknowledged religious minorities in pre and post Westphalian Europe. Throughout this period, the laity navigated their own often fluid religious beliefs, the expectations of conformity held by their religious and political leaders, and the complex realities of life that involved interactions with co-religious and non-co-religious family, neighbors, and business associates on a daily basis. Contributors are James Blakeley, Amy Nelson Burnett, Victoria Christman, Geoffrey Dipple, Timothy G. Fehler, Emily Fisher, Gray Benjamin, J. Kaplan, David M. Luebke, David Mayes, Marjorie Elizabeth Plummer, William Bradford Smith, and Shira Weidenbaum.

The Strange Adventures of Andrew Battell, of Leigh, in Angola and the Adjoining Regions Andrew Battell, 2019-11-29

In The Strange Adventures of Andrew Battell of Leigh in Angola and the Adjoining Regions, Battell engages readers with a vivid firsthand account of his travels in Angola during the late 16th century. Written in a lively and descriptive prose style, the narrative captures the peculiarities of African societies, the complexities of cultural encounters, and the exploitative dynamics of European colonialism. Through his exploratory lens, Battell provides a unique perspective on the geography, people, and customs of the region, situating his experiences within the broader context of European colonial narratives of the time. Andrew Battell, an Englishman born in Leigh, spent many years in Angola, often as a captive and eventually as a trader. His firsthand experiences exposed him to various indigenous cultures, enriching his understanding of the region's socio-political landscapes. His life as an adventurer and intercultural mediator informs the depth and authenticity of his writing, reflecting a deep curiosity and an ability to traverse disparate worlds. This compelling work is recommended for readers interested in the intersections of exploration, colonial history, and anthropology. Battell's captivating adventures serve not only as a travelogue but also as a significant commentary on the consequences of imperial ambition, making it an essential read for those who seek to understand the complexities of cultural exchange. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. Hand-picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance.
