Looking Homewardreports From The Homefront Line:

Looking Homeward... R. F. Smith (Jr.), 1986 From the editor's desk Dr Smith preaches in the pulpit of Huntington's WV Fifth Avenue Baptist Church located in the Tri State area of West Virginia Ohio and Kentucky He is a popular after dinner speaker for civic business and professional conventions He writes for a newspaper syndicate that places his writings in more than 1000 newspapers around the nation with a combined readership of over sixty million This book reveals his unique insights into life reflected in the home and lived out in the challenges of everyday life He presents in fresh literacy style a rare behind the scenes view of home life and interprets the view in down to earth language This book takes you through the valleys of living and provides you with views from mountaintops and all levels of terrain in between In Looking Homeward Dr Smith gives reports from the homefront that cover life from marriage through the experience of dying and death and stimulates enthusiasm for living life with positive anticipation The publishers Letters on the Home Front Caroline Margaret Webber, 2000

Homeward Bound Elaine Tyler May, 2008-09-23 In the 1950s the term containment referred to the foreign policy driven containment of Communism and atomic proliferation Yet in Homeward Bound May demonstrates that there was also a domestic version of containment where the sphere of influence was the home Within its walls potentially dangerous social forces might be tamed securing the fulfilling life to which postwar women and men aspired Homeward Bound tells the story of domestic containment how it emerged how it affected the lives of those who tried to conform to it and how it unraveled in the wake of the Vietnam era's assault on Cold War culture when unwed mothers feminists and secular humanists became the new enemy This revised and updated edition includes the latest information on race the culture wars and current cultural and political controversies of the post Cold War era The Girls Next Door Kara Dixon Vuic, 2019-02-04 The story of the intrepid young women who volunteered to help and entertain American servicemen fighting overseas from World War I through the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq The emotional toll of war can be as debilitating to soldiers as hunger disease and injury Beginning in World War I in an effort to boost soldiers morale and remind them of the stakes of victory the American military formalized a recreation program that sent respectable young women and famous entertainers overseas Kara Dixon Vuic builds her narrative around the young women from across the United States many of whom had never traveled far from home who volunteered to serve in one of the nation's most brutal work environments From the Lassies in France and mini skirted coeds in Vietnam to Marlene Dietrich and Marilyn Monroe Vuic provides a fascinating glimpse into wartime gender roles and the tensions that continue to complicate American women's involvement in the military arena The recreation program heightened the passions of troops but also domesticated everyday life on the bases Their presence mobilized support for the war back home while exporting American culture abroad Carefully recruited and selected as symbols of conventional femininity these adventurous young women saw in the theater of war a bridge between public service and private ambition This story of the women who talked and listened danced and sang adds
