Phyllis Tickle, 2006-11-13 Phyllis Tickle's inspirational trilogy The Divine Hours™ was the first major literary and liturgical reworking of the sixth century Benedictine Rule of fixed hour prayer an age old discipline of saying prayers at certain times of the day This highly regarded trilogy has become one of America's best loved and most frequently consulted manuals for observing this ancient form of Christian worship Now in The Night Offices Tickle offers the perfect complement to The Divine Hours™ bringing together prayers psalms hymn texts religious poetry and other readings not included in the original trilogy covering the offices for the hours from late evening Compline to early morning Prime Fans of the Divine Hours™ will recognize Tickle's simple elegant format her use of a modern calendar rather than a liturgical one and the single ribbon in the binding to track one's progress through the year As in the trilogy Tickle makes primary use of the Book of Common Prayer and the writings of the Church Fathers and she draws all the scriptural readings from the Revised Standard Version

The book includes a set of Matins Lauds and Prime specific to each day of the week and varied only by month Thus the Monday reading for January would be used every Monday in January but Monday in February would have new offices for it The cumulative total being 84 Matins 84 Lauds and 84 Prime 252 offices fits neatly into a single nightstand edition a small compact book that can be comfortably held in the hand Easy to use poetically rich with a superb sampling of devotional works The Night Offices will be welcomed by a broad readership Christian and non Christian alike
