Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art, V. 3 Mary M. Gedo, 2013-05-13 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history

The Symbolist Roots of Modern Art Michelle Facos, 2017-07-05 With the words A new manifestation of art was expected necessary inevitable Jean Mor announced the advent of the Symbolist movement in 1886 When Symbolist artists began experimenting in order to invent new visual languages appropriate for representing modern life in all its complexity they set the stage for innovation in twentieth century art Rejecting what they perceived as the superficial descriptive quality of Impressionism Naturalism and Realism Symbolist artists delved beneath the surface to express feelings ideas scientific processes and universal truths By privileging intangible concepts over perceived realities and by asserting their creative autonomy Symbolist artists broke with the past and paved the way for the heterogeneity and penchant for risk taking that characterizes modern art The essays collected here which consider artists from France to Russia and Finland to Greece argue persuasively that Symbolist approaches to content form and subject helped to shape twentieth century Modernism Well known figures such as Kandinsky Khnopff Matisse and Munch are considered alongside lesser known artists such as Fini Gyzis Koen and Vrubel in order to demonstrate that Symbolist art did not constitute an isolated moment of wild experimentation but rather an inspirational point of departure for twentieth century developments

Art in the Postmodern Era Grzegorz Dziamski, 2013 Art in the Postmodern Era examines how artists and intellectuals from Central and Eastern Europe got involved in debating postmodernism and how this postmodern in turn impacted the way of thinking about art in Central Europe The book starts with a brief survey of 20th century art and then focuses on the neo avant garde and the birth of postmodern art with its democratization and subsequent shift towards a post artistic epoch when anything can become art The book also raises an important issue concerning art in the time of globalization Series Development in Humanities Vol 3 Twentieth-century Modern Masters Sabine Rewald, 1989 Published in conjunction with the exhibition held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art NYC Dec 1989 Apr 1990 The last great private collection of the art of the School of Paris 81 paintings drawings and bronzes by Bonnard Braque Dali Dubuffet Matisse Miro Picasso and Giacometti among others With accompanying essays and additional illustrations a total of 281 95 in color 10x12 1 4 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism The Clarks of Cooperstown Nicholas Fox Weber, 2009-03-12 Nicholas Fox Weber author of the acclaimed Patron Saints Exhilarating avant garde entertainment Sam

Hunter The New York Times Book Review and Balthus The authoritative account of his life and work Michael Ravitch Newsday gives us now the idiosyncratic lives of Sterling and Stephen Clark two of America's greatest art collectors heirs to the Singer sewing machine fortune and for decades enemies of each other He tells the story as well of the two generations that preceded theirs giving us an intimate portrait of one of the least known of America's richest families He begins with Edward Clark the brothers grandfather who amassed the Clark fortune in the late nineteenth century a man with nerves of steel a Sunday school teacher who became the business partner of the wild inventor and genius Isaac Merritt Singer And by the turn of the twentieth century was the major stockholder of the Singer Manufacturing Company We follow Edward's rise as a real estate wizard making headlines in 1880 when he commissioned Manhattan's first luxury apartment building The house was called Clark's Folly today it's known as the Dakota We see Clark's son Alfred enigmatic and famously reclusive at thirty eight he inherited 50 million and became one of the country's richest men An image of propriety good husband father of four in Europe he led a secret homosexual life Alfred was a man with a passion for art and charity which he passed on to his four sons in particular Sterling and Stephen Clark Sterling the second oldest buccaneering and controversial loved impressionism created his own museum in Williamstown Massachusetts and shocked his family by marrying an actress from the Com die Fran aise Together the Sterling Clarks collected thousands of paintings and bred racehorses In a highly public case Sterling sued his three brothers over issues of inheritance and then never spoke to them again He was one of the central figures linked to a bizarre and little known attempted coup against Franklin Delano Roosevelt's presidency We are told what really happened and why and who in American politics was implicated but never prosecuted Sterling's brother Stephen self effacing and responsible became chairman and president of the Museum of Modern Art and gave that institution its first painting Edward Hopper's House by the Railroad Thirteen years later in an act that provoked intense controversy Stephen dismissed the Museum's visionary founding director Alfred Barr who for more than a decade had single handedly established the collection and exhibition programs that determined how the art of the twentieth century was regarded Stephen gave or bequeathed to museums many of the paintings that today are still their greatest attractions With authority insight and a flair for evoking time and place Weber examines the depths of the brothers passions the vehemence of their lifelong feud the great art they acquired and the profound and lasting impact they had on artistic vision in America

Early Modernism Christopher Butler, 1994 Early Modernism is a uniquely integrated introduction to the great avant garde movements in European literature music and painting at the beginning of this century from the advent of Fauvism to the development of Dada In contrast to the overly literary focus of previous studies of modernism this book highlights the interaction between the arts in this period It traces the fundamental and interlinked re examination of the languages of the arts brought about by Matisse Picasso Schoenberg Eliot Apollinaire Marinetti Ben and many others which led to radically new techniques such as atonality cubism and collage These changes are set in the context both of the art that preceded them and of a new and profound shift in ideas Theories of the unconscious the association of ideas primitivism and reliance upon an expressionist intuition led to a reshaped conception of personal identity and Butler examines the representation of the modernist self in the work of figures including Mann Joyce Conrad and Stravinsky Accessible and wide ranging the book is lavishly illustrated with over sixty illustrations many in color It provides an elegant and incisive guide to a momentous period in the history of European art Monet to Moore Richard R.
