Matthew Arnold,Lionel Trilling,1965 The Powers of Distance Amanda Anderson,2018-06-05 Combining analysis of Victorian literature and culture with forceful theoretical argument The Powers of Distance examines the progressive potential of those forms of cultivated detachment associated with Enlightenment and modern thought Amanda Anderson explores a range of practices in nineteenth century British culture including methods of objectivity in social science practices of omniscience in artistic realism and the complex forms of affiliation in Victorian cosmopolitanism Anderson demonstrates that many writers including George Eliot John Stuart Mill Charlotte Bront Matthew Arnold and Oscar Wilde thoughtfully address the challenging moral questions that attend stances of detachment In so doing she offers a revisionist account of Victorian culture and a tempered defense of detachment as an ongoing practice and aspiration The Powers of Distance illuminates its historical object of study and provides a powerful example for its theoretical argument showing that an ideal of critical detachment underlies the ironic modes of modernism and postmodernism as well as the tradition of Enlightenment thought and critical theory Its broad understanding of detachment and cultivated distance together with its focused historical analysis will appeal to theorists and critics across the humanities particularly those working in literary and cultural studies feminism and postcolonialism Original in scope and thesis this book constitutes a major contribution to literary history and contemporary theory The Essential Matthew Arnold Edited, and with an Introduction by Lionel Trilling Matthew Arnold,1949 The Portable Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold,Lionel Trilling,1980 The Complete Works of W. Levenson,1986-06-27 A Genealogy of Modernism is a study of literary transition in the first two decades of the twentieth century a period of extraordinary ferment and great accomplishment during which the avant garde gradually consolidated a secure place within English culture Michael Levenson analyses that complex process by following the successive phases of a literary movement Impressionist Imagist Vorticist Classicist as it attempted to formulate the principles on which a new aesthetic might be founded The emphasis here falls on the ideology of modernism but throughout the book the ideological question is tied on the one hand to specific literary works and on the other to general movements in philosophy and the fine arts The major figures under discussion Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Ezra Pound Wyndham Lewis and T S Elliot are placed in relation to thinkers who have been largely neglected in the history of modernism Max Stirner Wilhelm Worringer Pierre Lasserre Allen Upward and Hilaire Belloc Levenson thus situates the emergence of a modernist aesthetic within the context of literary theory literary practice and cultural history Taking the Fight to the Enemy Adam L. Fuller,2012-01-01
