Flinders has at last found his Boswell Paul Brunton The Weekend Australian Estensen's book is a work of painstaking scholarship worn lightly it will be an enduring contribution to Australian history Gillian Dooley Australian Book Review Estensen gives us the ups and downs of the man in the commander's jacket She has taken an 18th century mariner and made a 21st century man of him Martin Terry Sydney Morning Herald In 1790 a stubborn sixteen year old defied his father and went to sea Here began the remarkable career of Matthew Flinders R N a career that ended in his fortieth year just days after the publication of A Voyage to Terra Australis his life's work detailing his epic voyage of circumnavigation of the Great South Land The Life of Matthew Flinders is a story of persistence and audacious risk taking driving ambition and frustration obstinate determination and doubt It is a richly detailed account of tragedy and short lived triumph of exile on an enemy island of love thwarted and a painful early death It is also the story of a man who became one of the great navigators of the nineteenth century an adventurer who left an indelible mark on a continent and a nation Last Flocks of the Geese Philip Dodd, 2019 A book of clear verse Geese migrate through its lines Tall ships leave Liverpool Bay An iceberg breaks free of Antarctica Ivory burns in Kenya The healing of the rift between nations is contemplated An exhibition of Pre Raphaelite art is visited The crossing of the Rubicon is dared Franz Kafka writes his tales The spirit of T S Eliot revisits The Waste Land Shakespeare drinks with his acting company Autumn in Yerevan Armenia is mirrored Utopia is mused on Childhood is remembered Love celebrated Archie Leach sails from Bristol to New York Matthew Flinders becomes the first man to circumnavigate Australia Noah's ark moors on mount Ararat The death of the last white rhinoceros is lamented Weland the smith lifts his hammer Hugh Minn finds an alien in his loft Various other visions and inspirations are explored Readers of these lines will hopefully find them worthy of study The History and Politics of Exhumation Michael L.

Nash, 2019-10-21 This book argues that a serious scholarly study on exhumation is long overdue Examining more well known cases such as that of Richard III the Romanovs and Tutankhamen alongside the more obscure Michael Nash explores the motivations beyond exhumation from retribution to repatriation Along the way he explores the influence of Gothic fiction in the eighteenth century the notoriety of the Resurrection Men in the nineteenth century and the archeological heyday of the twentieth century Exploration Map by Map DK, 2025-05-06 Discover the epic history of human exploration and migration and the stories of fearless pioneers the world over with this stunning tour of history map by map Charting everything from the movement of early Homo species out of Africa some 1.8 million years ago to the astonishing voyages of Polynesian sailors across the Pacific from 4 000 BCE and from the California Gold Rush to the Race for Space entries explain the movements of people and cultures who set off into the unknown in search of adventure or a better life Specially commissioned maps show the key driving factors of each journey and why certain routes were chosen over others whether due to climate terrain or territory while stunning contemporary examples offer fascinating insights into the unique world views and political motivations of the people who commissioned them and the cartographers who created them The voyages of history's greatest explorers from Zheng He to Ibn Battuta and Marco Polo are brought to vivid life with accompanying photos illustrations and original artefacts along with recent missions to chart the depths of the oceans and the surface of Mars And entries also explore the experiences of established Indigenous groups and the impact of settler populations Packed with fascinating detail and bursting with lavish illustrations Exploration Map by Map is a must have title for anyone who loves maps history or the pioneering spirit

1606 Evan McHugh,2006 Until 1606 the Great South Land was a mystery to Europeans When Dutchman Willem Janszoon captain of the Duyfken landed at Cape York 400 years ago he thought he was in New Guinea By the time Matthew Flinders charts were published in 1814 Australia had emerged on the map and in name This book tells the stories of the seafaring explorers the shipwrecks mutinies and daring escapes that came after Janszoon including the voyages of Torres and La Perouse Dampier Cook and D Entrecasteaux These are tales of adventure discovery and navigational triumph in the face of hardship starvation and disaster at the far end of the world BOOK JACKET Geography,

Technology and Instruments of Exploration Fraser MacDonald,Charles W.J. Withers,2016-04-22 Focusing on aspects of the functioning of technology and by looking at instruments and at instrumental performance this book addresses the epistemological questions arising from examining the technological bases to geographical exploration and knowledge claims Questions of geography and exploration and technology are addressed in historical and contemporary context and in different geographical locations and intellectual cultures The collection brings together scholars in the history of geographical exploration historians of science historians of technology and importantly experts with curatorial responsibilities for and museological expertise in major instrument collections Ranging in their focus from studies of astronomical practice to seismography meteorological instruments and rockets from radar to the hand held barometer the chapters of this book examine the ways in which instruments and questions of technology too often overlooked hitherto offer insight into the connections between geography and exploration Towards a Sociology of the Coast Nick

Osbaldiston,2017-10-20 This book seeks to understand the coast as a place that has deep significance both historically and sociologically Using several case studies in Australia the author uses Max Weber s approach to rationalisation to understand the different ways coasts have been interpreted throughout modern history While today coastal places are known for their aspects of lifestyle or adventure their histories underpinned by colonialism and industrialization are vastly different The author examines the delicate dichotomy between the alternative experiences the coast provides today versus the ideals and values imposed upon it in times gone by The author makes an ethical argument about the ways in which we use and experience the coast today will adversely affect the lives of future generations in an attempt to generate further discussion amongst students and scholars of the sociology of place as well as coastal managers and stakeholders
