Roberts, 2003-01-01 Post Traumatic Stress Disorder is a medically recognized disorder that develops as a result of a traumatic event as a result of PTSD an individual may suffer nightmares and flashbacks and become hypervigilant angry or emotionally numb This work describes PTSD causes symptoms effects and coping strategies While there is no cure individuals and their loved ones can find healthy ways to cope and it is important to recognize the strengths that arise in both individuals and families as a result of living with the disorder This handbook describes how the characteristics of PTSD manifest in daily life and details its effects on the emotional mental and physical aspects of an individual's life including disorders and physical disabilities that may occur jointly or as a result The work analyzes the affect of PTSD on the couple and the family detailing possible reactions and compares the characteristics of healthy and PTSD families The work explains how and by whom the disorder is diagnosed with discussion of cross cultural perspectives on PTSD and the effects of cultural difference on its diagnosis and treatment The study describes mental health approaches to treatment such as individual group and substance abuse counseling Techniques such as exposure therapy Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing and Traumatic Incident Reduction are also discussed The work describes drug treatments including anti-anxiety and antidepressant medications Newer approaches to treating PTSD such as biofeedback relaxation techniques and herbal medications are also explained A conclusion suggests effective strategies for living with PTSD and indicates directions for future research Appendices include the definitional criteria for PTSD a list of resources for PTSD survivors and information about veterans' benefits A filmography and bibliography are also provided Cinema and Brexit Neil Archer, 2020-09-03 Neil Archer's original study makes a timely and politically engaged intervention in debates about national cinema and national identity Structured around key examples of culturally English cinema in the years up to and following the UK's 2016 vote to leave the European Union Cinema and Brexit looks to make sense of the peculiarities and paradoxes marking this era of filmmaking At the same time as providing a contextual and analytical reading of 21st century filmmaking in Britain Archer raises critical questions about popular national cinema and how Brexit has cast both light and shadow over this body of films Central to Archer's argument is the idea that Brexit represents not just a critical moment in how we will understand future film production but also in how we will understand production of the recent past Using as a point of departure the London Olympics opening ceremony of 2012 Cinema and Brexit considers the tensions inherent in a wide range of films including Skyfall 2012 Dunkirk 2017 Their Finest 2017 Darkest Hour 2017 The Crown Netflix 2016 Paddington 2014 Paddington 2 2017 Never Let Me Go 2011 Absolutely Fabulous The Movie 2016 The Trip 2010 The Inbetweeners Movie 2011 Mr Bean's Holiday 2007 The World's End 2013 Sightseers 2012 One Day 2011 Attack the Block 2011 King Arthur Legend of the Sword 2017 and The Kid Who Would be King 2019 Archer examines the complex national narratives and representations these films expound situating his analyses within the broader commercial contexts of film production beyond Hollywood highlighting the negotiations or contradictions at play between the industrial imperatives of contemporary films and the varied circumstances in which they are made Considering some of the ways a popular and globally minded English cinema is finding means to work alongside and through the contexts of Brexit he questions what are the stakes for and possibilities of a global culturally English cinema in 2019 and beyond

Public Feminism in Times of Crisis Leila Easa, Jennifer Stager, 2022-07-26 Public Feminism in Times of Crisis examines the public practice of feminism in the age of social media While their concept of public feminism emerges from a moment of acute crisis the Trump years and the Covid 19 pandemic Leila Easa and Jennifer Stager locate its foundations in history journeying through broad swatches of time looking for connections between the centuries through art and literature and culture Each chapter focuses on what public feminists do in the world Public feminists gain control over an archive that otherwise contains or excludes them they recover their own stories and subjective experiences sometimes for activist use they examine images and language that construct women in patriarchal texts they situate the individual within a collective and the collective within an individual they confront the limitations of such situating due to the containment of patriarchy and reclaim new systems of power in response and they resurface a deep history for the alternative strategies of memorializing they employ In navigating these practices the authors also attend to the material conditions of writing histories as well as those shaping and enabling public feminist acts and protests more broadly

Home Invasion Horrors Ryan Izay, 2025-07-11 Home invasion narratives have been around nearly as long as cinema itself popularized by the silent era's race to the rescue movies and classic Hollywood's gangster raid films and influenced by the slasher and stalker sub genres They emerged as a fully formed sub genre following the success of major releases like The Strangers 2008 and The Purge 2013 with more than 100 such films issued in the 2010s alone Commonalities and differences can be found in the home invasion films featuring criminals stalkers and psychopaths in addition to the inverted and hybrid releases that revise established narratives This book examines the history cinematic and societal influences and reasons for the popularity of home invasion films offering potential allegorical readings of the narratives and a comprehensive list of these films

Introduction to Scream (2022 film) Gilad James, PhD, Introduction to Scream is an upcoming horror movie directed by Matt Bettinelli Olpin and Tyler Gillett This movie is planned to be the fifth installment in the Scream franchise which began in 1996 Neve Campbell Courteney Cox and David Arquette will reprise their roles as Sidney Prescott Gale Weathers and Dewey Riley respectively Along with the original cast members the movie will also feature new characters played by Jack Quaid Melissa Barrera and Jenna Ortega among others The plot of Introduction to Scream revolves around a series of murders in a small town which bear a striking resemblance to the killings depicted in the original Scream movies Sidney Gale and Dewey return to their hometown to investigate the murders and they are soon joined by a new group of teenagers who become targets of the killers The movie promises to be a modern take on the classic slasher genre with meta humor suspense and some scares Fans of the franchise are eagerly anticipating the release of Introduction to Scream which is set to hit theaters in January 2022
