Neglected Voices John Indermark,2001-06 Forgotten Voices Ali Abdullatif Ahmida,2005-08-18 In Forgotten Voices Ali Abdullatif Ahmida employs archival research oral interviews and comparative analysis to rethink the history of colonial and nationalist categories and analyses of modern Libya Forgotten Voices of the British Empire Carol Ann Boshier,2022-02-16 This study investigates the contribution made by outsiders in accumulating knowledge from the days of the East India Company until the early twentieth century when photography became an important tool for recording information It focuses on heterogeneous voices on the periphery who interacted with the indigenous population to produce knowledge in original or unexpected ways that extended beyond the limits prescribed by the term colonial Largely unrecognized today their endeavors to satisfy their own intellectual curiosity or improve their material circumstances produced a perspective on colonial life that stripped away conventions where their ordinary everyday experiences sometimes became extraordinary as they forged new networks throughout the subcontinent and beyond its frontiers Their journeys and experiences offer a discursive historical construct as significant as official reports censuses and surveys and contribute towards our understanding of the diverse creative processes through which intellectual histories of the colonial state were constructed Forgotten Voices Of The Great War Max Arthur,2012-08-31 In 1960 the Imperial War Museum began a momentous and important task A team of academics archivists and volunteers set about tracing WWI veterans and interviewing them at length in order to record the experiences of ordinary individuals in war The IWM aural archive has become the most important archive of its kind in the world Authors have occasionally been granted access to the vaults but digesting the thousands of hours of footage is a monumental task Now forty years on the Imperial War Museum has at last given author Max Arthur and his team of researchers unlimited access to the complete WWI tapes These are the forgotten voices of an entire generation of survivors of the Great War The resulting book is an important and compelling history of WWI in the words of those who experienced it Forgotten Voices of D-Day Roderick Bailey,2010-01-26 6 June 1944 the day Allied forces crossed the Channel and began fighting their way into Nazi occupied Northwest Europe Initiated by airborne units and covered by air and naval bombardment the Normandy landings were the most ambitious combined airborne and amphibious assault ever attempted Their success marked the beginning of the end for Nazi Germany Drawing on thousands of hours of eyewitness testimony recorded by the Imperial War Museum Forgotten Voices of D Day tells the compelling story of this turning point in World War 2 Hearing from paratroopers and commandos glider pilots and landing craft crewmen airmen and naval personnel we learn first hand what it was like as men waited to go in as they neared the beaches and drop zones and as they landed and met the enemy Accounts range from memories of the daring capture of Pegasus bridge by British glider bourn troops to recollections of brutal fighting as the assault forces stormed the beaches Featuring a mass of previously unpublished material Forgotten Voices of D Day is a powerful and important new record of a defining moment in modern history Forgotten Voices of The Holocaust Lyn Smith, 2010-09-15 Following the success of Forgotten Voices of the Great War Lyn Smith visits the oral accounts preserved in the Imperial War Museum Sound Archive to reveal the sheer complexity and horror of one of human history's darkest hours The great majority of Holocaust survivors suffered considerable physical and psychological wounds yet even in this dark time of human history tales of faith love and courage can be found As well as revealing the story of the Holocaust as directly experienced by victims these testimonies also illustrate how even enduring the most harsh conditions degrading treatment and suffering massive family losses hope the will to survive and the human spirit still shine through Forgotten Voices of the Victoria Cross Roderick Bailey, The Imperial War Museum, 2010-10-14 It wasn't until after he was safely back in the aircraft again that I heard that he'd actually been out on the wing to try to put the fire out Remember that we were flying at about 90 miles an hour at a height of 13 000 feet Squadron Leader RP Widdowson on Sergeant James Ward who earned his VC in 1941 The Victoria Cross awarded to the most courageous and determined servicemen is the highest military decoration that can be bestowed In Forgotten Voices Victoria Cross first hand accounts of soldiers sailors and airmen describe the incredible events that earned these extraordinary men the VC in the last century Captivating and often humbling these stories depict exceptional acts of bravery in unimaginable situations of men who would say they were just doing their duty Introduction by General Sir Richard Dannatt

Forgotten Voices Of The Second World War Max Arthur, 2012-06-30 The Imperial War Museum holds a vast archive of interviews with soldiers sailors airmen and civilians of most nationalities who saw action during WW2 As in the highly acclaimed Forgotten Voices of the Great War Max Arthur and his team of researchers spent hundreds of hours digging deep into this unique archive uncovering tapes many of which have not been listened to since they were created in the early 1970s The result will be the first complete oral history of World War 2 We hear at first from British German and Commonwealth soldiers and civilians Accounts of the impact of U S involvement after Pearl Harbour and the major effects it had on the war in Europe and the Far East is chronicled in startling detail including compelling interviews from U S and British troops who fought against the Japanese Continuing through from D Day to the Rhine Crossing and the dropping of the Atom Bomb in August 1945 this book is a unique testimony to one of the world's most dreadful conflicts One of the hallmarks of Max Arthur's work is the way he involves those left behind on the home front as well as those working in factories or essential services Their voices will not be neglected Forgotten Voices of the Blitz and the Battle For Britain Joshua Levine, 2010-09-30

Drawing material from the Imperial War Museum's extensive aural archive Joshua Levine brings together voices from both sides of the Blitz and the Battle of Britain to give us a unique complete and compelling picture of this turbulent time In June 1940 British citizens prepared for an imminent German onslaught Hitler's troops had overrun Holland Belgium and France in quick succession and the British people anticipated an invasion would soon be upon them From July to October they watched the Battle of Britain play out in the skies above them aware that the result would decide their fate Over the next nine months the Blitz killed more than 43 000 civilians For a year the citizens of Britain were effectively front line soldiers in a battle which united the country against a hated enemy We hear from the soldiers airmen fire fighters air raid wardens and civilians people in the air and on the ground on both sides of the battle giving us a thrilling account of Britain under siege With first hand testimonies from those involved in Dunkirk and the Battle of Britain Black Saturday on 7th September 1940 when the Luftwaffe began the Blitz to its climax on the 10th May 1941 this is the definitive oral history of a period when Britain came closer to being overwhelmed by the enemy than at any other time in modern history Forgotten Voices of Mao's Great Famine, 1958-1962 Xun Zhou, 2013-11-26 A powerful account of China s Great Famine as told through the voices of those who survived it
