Hornberger

Negotiating Identities Education For Empowerment:

Negotiating Identities Jim Cummins, 1996 Aimed at empowering teachers and students in a culturally diverse society this book suggests that schools must respect student s language and culture encourage community participation promote critical literacy and institute forms of assessment in order to reverse patterns of under achievement in pupils from varying cultures The book shows that students who have been failed by schools predominantly come from communities whose languages cultures and identities have been distorted and devalued in the wider society and schools have reinforced this pattern of disempowerment

Negotiating Identities Jim Cummins, 2001 Jim Cummins offers answers to the problems of the devaluation of children because of their ethnic social or cultural backgrounds in this revised and expanded edition

An Introductory Reader to the Writings of Jim Cummins Jim Cummins, Colin Baker, Nancy H. Hornberger, 2001 The contribution of Jim Cummins to bilingualism and bilingual education has been substantial and profound This reader provides a comprehensive compilation of his most important and influential texts The book also provides a detailed biographical introduction and a commentary on the growth of ideas over three decades

International Handbook of English Language Teaching Jim Cummins, Chris Davison, 2007-12-31 This two volume handbook provides a comprehensive examination of policy practice research and theory related to English language teaching ELT in international contexts Nearly 70 chapters highlight the research foundation for the best practices frameworks for policy decisions and areas of consensus and controversy in the teaching and development of English as a second and or additional language for kindergarten through to adult speakers of languages other than English In doing so it problematizes traditional dichotomies and challenges the very terms that provide the traditional foundations of the field A wide range of terms has been used to refer to the key players involved in the teaching and learning of the English language and to the enterprise of English language teaching as a whole At various times and in different contexts the following labels have been used in countries where English is the dominant language to describe programs learners or teachers of English English as a second language ESL English as an additional language EAL limited English proficient LEP and English language learners ELL In contexts where English is not the dominant language the following terms have been used English as a foreign language EFL English as an international language EIL and English as a lingua franca ELF

Linguistic Anthropology Alessandro Duranti, 2009-05-04 Linguistic Anthropology A Reader is a comprehensive collection of the best work that has been published in this exciting and growing area of anthropology and is organized to provide a guide to key issues in the study of language as a cultural resource and speaking as a cultural practice Revised and updated this second edition contains eight new articles on key subjects including speech communities the power and performance of language and narratives Selections are both historically oriented and thematically coherent and are accessibly grouped according to four major themes speech community and communicative competence the performance of language language socialization and literacy practices and the power of language An extensive introduction provides an original perspective on the development of the field and highlights its most compelling issues Each section includes a brief introductory statement sets of guiding questions and list of recommended readings on the main topics

Bilingual Education Jim Cummins, David Corson, 1997 This volume provides a comprehensive account of the implementation of bilingual education programmes in countries throughout the world Bilingual programmes have been implemented to achieve a variety of educational and social goals in different contexts Some programmes are intended to support the maintenance of national minority languages or to revitalize languages whose long term survival is threatened others aim to help recent immigrants succeed academically while making the transition to instruction taught primarily through the majority language of the society In addition bilingual programmes have been used to teach additional languages to students from the majority or dominant language group Similar theoretical principles underlie the development of bilingual conversational and academic skills in all these diverse contexts

Language, Power, and Pedagogy Jim Cummins, 2000-01-01 As linguistic diversity increases in countries around the world policy makers and educators are faced with complex and conflictual issues regarding appropriate ways of educating a multilingual school population This volume reviews the research and theory relating to instruction and assessment of bilingual pupils focusing not only on issues of language learning and teaching but also the ways in which power relations in the wider society affect patterns of teacher pupil interaction in the classroom

Encyclopedia of Bilingualism and Bilingual Education Colin Baker, Sylvia Prys Jones, 1998 This encyclopedia is divided into three sections individual bilingualism bilingualism in society and bilingual education It includes many pictures graphs maps and diagrams The book concludes with a comprehensive bibliography on bilingualism

Narrative Inquirers in the Midst of Meaning-Making Elaine Chan, Dixie K. Keyes, Vicki Ross, 2012-06-28 Illustrates interim narrative field texts of identity as teacher educator stories and demonstrates how researchers utilize common places of temporality sociality and place in analyzing narratives This title describes conceptualizations of narrative research processes bringing forward narrative tools and methods of layering narratives

Indigenous Community-based Education Stephen May, 1999-01-01 This edited collection provides examples of indigenous community based initiatives from around the world Examples include programmes among Maori in Aotearoa New Zealand S mi in Norway Aboriginal People in Australia Innu in Canada and Native Americans in the mainland US Hawai i Canada and South America Contributors include indigenous educational practitioners and indigenous and non indigenous academics long associated with the study of indigenous education
