Somerset County William A. Schleicher,Susan J. Winter,1999 Between the Watchung Mountains to the north and the Sourland Mountains to the west lies the fertile valley of the Raritan River Stout Dutch Huguenot German Scottish and English settlers began to cultivate family farms here as early as the 1680s For almost a hundred years the tramp of soldiers feet and sounds of cannons had been unknown but that was about to change With its location astride two major routes between New York and Philadelphia it is little wonder that Somerset County became the Crossroads of the Revolution A friendly populace and the protection of the mountains made this a safe haven for General Washington s army His soldiers camped for three winters including the harshest winter of the Revolution in Somerset and in the adjacent areas of central New Jersey Washington spent more time here than any other place during the War for Independence It was in this historically significant county that the first military academy in the nation was built the 13 star flag was first flown over American troops after its adoption by Congress and the Regulations for the Infantry of the United States was written by General von Steuben

Holstein-Friesian Herd Book Holstein-Friesian Association of America,1896 Somerset County in Vintage Postcards Alan A. Siegel,1999-03-01 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too
