Powers And Submissions Spirituality Gender And Philosophy:

Powers and Submissions Sarah Coakley, 2008-04-15 In this book Sarah Coakley confronts a central paradox of theological feminism what she terms the paradox of power and vulnerability Confronts a central paradox of theological feminism what Coakley terms paradox of power and vulnerability Explores this issue through the perspective of spiritual practice philosophical enquiry and doctrinal analysis Draws together an essential collection of Sarah Coakley's work in this field Offers an original perspective into contemporary feminist theology Powers and Submissions: Spirituality, Philosophy and Gender, 2nd Edition Coakley, 2025-09-25

Christian Doctrine and the Grammar of Difference Janice McRandal, 2015 Rees argues that the doctrinal narrative of creation fall and redemption provides resources to resolve the theological impasse of difference in contemporary feminist theology The divine economy reveals a God who enters into history and destabilizes fixed binaries and oppressive categories As created subjects we are sustained affirmed and drawn back into the Triune life patterns present in liturgy prayer and practices of contemplation The grammar of Christian faith cannot ultimately be uncovered except in prayer opened beyond itself to a source of life and giving Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2017-10-24 A passion for justice and truth motivates the bold challenge of Revisioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Unearthing the ways in which the myths of Christian patriarchy have historically inhibited and prohibited women from thinking and writing their own ideas this book lays fresh ground for re-visioning the epistemic practices of philosophers Pamela Sue Anderson seeks both to draw out the salient threads in the gendering of philosophy of religion as it has been practiced and to re-vision gender for philosophy today The arguments put forth by contemporary philosophers of religion concerning human and divine attributes are epistemically located yet the motivation to recognize this locatedness has to come from a concern for justice This book presents invaluable new perspectives on the philosopher's ever increasing awareness of his or her own locatedness on the gender often unwittingly given to God the ineffability in both analytic and Continental philosophy the still critical role of reason in the field the aims of a feminist philosophy of religion the roles of beauty and justice the vision of love and reason and a gendering which opens philosophy of religion up to diversity

The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2004-06-01 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II's call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re-evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society God, Value, and Nature Fiona Ellis, 2014 This book takes on board the assumption that we should be naturalists and argues that the position can accommodate the idea of God Naturalism and theism are no longer logically incompatible and the fashionable atheism of our times is shown to depend upon an unwarranted commitment to scientism and a questionable conception of God The Mind of Christ Stephen T. Pardue, 2013-09-12 This book brings a variety of theological resources to bear on the now widespread effort to put humility in its proper place In recent years an assortment of thinkers have offered competing evaluations of humility so that its moral status is now more contentious than ever Like all accounts of humility the one advanced in this study has to do with the proper handling of human limits What early Christian resources offer and what discussions of the issue since the eighteenth century have often overlooked is an account of the ways in which human limits are permeable superable and open to modification because of the working of divine grace This notion is especially relevant for a renewed vision of intellectual humility the primary aim of the project but the study will also suggest the significance of the argument for ameliorating contemporary concerns about humility s generally adverse effects Women, Sexuality and the Political Power of Pleasure Susie Jolly, Andrea Cornwall, Kate Hawkins, 2013-06-13 This pioneering collection explores the ways in which positive pleasure focused approaches to sexuality can empower women Gender and development has tended to engage with sexuality only in relation to violence and ill health Although this has been hugely important in challenging violence against women over emphasizing these negative aspects has dovetailed with conservative ideologies that associate women s sexualities with danger and fear On the other hand the media the pharmaceutical industry and pornography more broadly celebrate the pleasures of sex in ways that can be just as oppressive often implying that only certain types of people young heterosexual able bodied HIV negative are eligible for sexual pleasure Women Sexuality and the Political Power of Pleasure brings together challenges to these strictures and exclusions from both the South and North of the globe with examples of activism advocacy and programming which use pleasure as an entry point It shows how positive approaches to pleasure and sexuality can enhance equality and empowerment for all Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition Graham Joseph Hill, 2020-07-24 Jesus is calling his church to be a multiethnic and missional people who listen and learn from the many voices of world Christianity Graham Joseph Hill issues a moving call for churches to be missional by being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ Hill does this by exploring the thinking of twenty five Asian African Latin American Indigenous African American diaspora Caribbean Oceanian Eastern European and Middle Eastern pastors and theologians These are as diverse as Melba Padilla Maggay Emmanuel Katongole Lamin Sanneh Oscar Muriu Ruth Padilla DeBorst Pope Francis Richard Twiss Lisa Sharon Harper Willie James Jennings Ada Mar a Isasi D az Soong Chan Rah and Mitri Raheb These voices show us the future of missional churches in world Christianity When churches are conformed to Christ they make disciples heal a broken world and witness to Jesus and his gospel Jesus forms us in his image and moves us to be a people of shalom humility character justice peace wisdom prayer beauty and witness The church has had a Reformation but now it needs a Conformation Hill explores biblical themes and the voices of world Christianity to show that a missional church is conformed to the image of the incarnate crucified resurrected and glorified Christ Conformity to Christ is the heart of missional ecclesiology and discipleship

Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D. Kamitsuka, 2007-07-20 In the early years of contesting patriarchy in the academy and religious institutions feminist theology often presented itself as a unified front a sisterhood The term feminist theology however is misleading It suggests a singular feminist purpose driven by a unified female cultural identity that struggles as a cohesive whole against patriarchal dominance Upon closer inspection the voice of feminist theology is in fact a chorus of diverging perspectives each informed by a variety of individual and communal experiences and an embattled scholarly field marked by the effects of privilege and power imbalances This complexity raises an important question How can feminist theologians respect the irreducible diversity of women's experiences and unmask entrenched forms of privilege in feminist theological discourse In Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D Kamitsuka urges the feminist theological community to examine critically its most deeply held commitments assumptions and goals especially those of feminist theologians writing from positions of privilege as white or heterosexual women Focusing on women's experience as portrayed in literature biblical narrative and ethnographic writing Kamitsuka examines the assumptions of feminist theology regarding race and sexuality She proposes theoretical tools that feminist theologians can employ to identify and hopefully avoid the imposition of racial or sexual hegemony thus providing invaluable complexity to the movement's identity and ultimately contributing to current and future Christian theological issues Blending poststructuralist and postcolonial theoretical resources with feminist and queer concerns Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference makes constructive theological proposals ranging from sin to christology The text calls feminist theologians to a more rigorous self critical approach as they continue to shape the changing face of Christian theological discourse

The Way of the Dragon or the Way of the Lamb Jamin Goggin, Kyle Strobel, 2021-08-31 Rediscover the wisdom of the cross and the power that truly sets you free Pastor Jamin Goggin and theology professor Kyle Strobel invite you on a journey to uncover Jesus seemingly contradictory way to power weakness Why do so many rock star pastors implode under the spotlight How have so many Christian leaders and institutions been lured by toxic and abusive power Why are so many Christians tempted to chase worldly success and status Because according to Jamin Goggin and Kyle Strobel rather than seeking kingdom power embodied by Jesus our churches and leaders have embraced a form of power that is antithetical to the cross In The Way of the Dragon or the Way of the Lamb Goggin and Strobel help you see a different kind of leadership a richly biblical vision of power through weakness This revised and updated edition also features a brand new chapter for those who've been impacted by toxic and abusive power Join the authors on a journey to gather wisdom from great sages of the faith such as J I Packer Dallas Willard Marva Dawn John Perkins James Houston Eugene Peterson As you listen in on their conversations you will rediscover the wisdom of the cross and the power that truly sets us free The Way of the Dragon or the Way of the Lamb will not only shape your leadership and your ministry but it will also shape your soul and reorient you to the way of Jesus New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie,2006 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II s call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society Reforming a Theology of Gender Daniel R.

Patterson,2022-08-11 Judith Butler and conservative Christian theology are often perceived to be antithetical on questions of gender In Reforming a Theology of Gender they are shown to be strange bedfellows By engaging in dialogue with Butler on her terms desire violence and life this book absorbs the heart of Butler s critique revealing a righteous law and a seductive image in conservative theologies of gender The law of Adam and Eve manifests in the unjust administration of guilt grief and death By confronting this law which in fact condemns all in their bodies further reflection on Butler s thought leads to thinking about where one finds life in one s body of death The seductive image of Adam and Eve is revealed to be a false hope and a site that induces slave morality or body works based righteousness Butler s voice is strangely prophetic because it calls the church to offer hope and life by reorienting its gaze from the beautiful yet lifeless bodies of Adam and Eve to the bloodied and scarred risen body of Jesus Christ Gender in the end is shown to be a vocation of becoming what one is not The Relational Power of God Eleanor O'Donnell,2023-01-23 When we find the courage to allow our rebel voice to speak many of us question traditional Christian beliefs about God s power and how it is exercised in the world and in the church We ask What if God is not in omnipotent control of everything What if God s exercise of power is relational and noncoercive instead What if it is the quality rather than the quantity of God s power that really matters This book focuses on the theology of power that emerges when we ask such questions It draws on the social Trinitarian theology of Jurgen Moltmann and the process thought of Charles Hartshorne to image God as a Social Trinity in process This vision of God understands the Holy Trinity to be fully relational and thoroughly with us and all creation To think of God and God s power this way ensures freedom for creature and creation and enables a viable response to the problem of evil and suffering It also leads to the conclusion that human relationships in the world and in the church are best modeled on the power sharing solidarity of the Triune God Challenging the Myths of Gender Equality Michael Muonwe,2014-07-26 CHALLENGING THE MYTHS OF

GENDER EQUALITY THEOLOGY AND FEMINISM The book offers critical insight into the significance of synergy between feminist theory and theological anthropology in combating sexism in our society today The analysis of feminisms challenge of male chauvinistic discourse that has been for centuries an instrument of patriarchal manipulation is very elucidating The authors use of Genesis creation narrative to show how God intends that all live in love and communion and show equal regard to each other is exceptionally provocative Even though Michael believes that Jesus may not be rightly termed a feminist in the modern understanding of the term he demonstrates how Jesus critical stance towards some androcentric structures of his day is a testimony to his vision and mission of inclusive kingdom where all are equal The book is very important for anyone committed to ensuring a society devoid of gender based discriminations and violence Prof Dr Annemie Dillens remarks on the book is worth noting Michael Muonwe has made it clear that the experiences by women of social exclusion and disadvantage require a thorough dialogue between feminism and Christianity In a global context where Christianity and feminism are mutually condemning each other this book offers a profound insight into many differences within feminism and feminist theology and thus avoids all too easy generalizations Both the author and his work continue to encourage me and I hope all readers will also acknowledge the value the richness and the joy of doing theology Catholic University of Leuven Belgium According to Prof em Dr Peter Schmidt This book should be known by many not only by those who are already engaged on the problem of gender inequality but maybe still more by those who have no real knowledge of the problem and its urgency The author is not only an expert on the matter but both his clarity of thought and style and his genuine commitment to the cause make it a most commendable reading Catholic University of Leuven Belgium

Exploring Lost Dimensions in Christian Mysticism Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-04-15 Mystical theology has developed through a range of meanings from the hidden dimensions of divine significance in the community's interpretation of its scriptures to the much later science of the soul's ascent into communion with God The thinkers and questions addressed in this book draws us into the heart of a complicated beautiful and often tantalisingly unfinished conversation continuing over centuries and often brushing allusively into parallel concerns in other religions Raising fundamental matters of epistemology representation metaphysics and divine reality contributors approach the mystical from postmodern feminist sociological and historical perspectives through thinkers such as Meister Eckhart Thomas Aquinas Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola William James Evelyn Underhill Ernst Troeltsch Rudolf Otto Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Marion and Jean Louis Chr tien Medieval and early modern radical prophetic approaches are also explored This book includes new essays by Sarah Apetrei Tina Beattie Raphael Cadenhead Oliver Davies Philip Endean Brian FitzGerald Ann Loades George Pattison Simon D Podmore Joel D S Rasmussen and Johannes Zachhuber

God and Difference Linn Marie Tonstad, 2015-10-05 God and Difference interlaces Christian theology with queer and feminist theory for both critical and constructive ends Linn Marie Tonstad uses queer theory to show certain failures of Christian thinking about God gender and sexuality She employs queer theory to dissect trinitarian discourse and the resonances found in contemporary Christian thought between sexual difference and difference within the trinity Tonstad critiques a broad swath of prominent Christian theologians who either use queer theory in their work or affirm the validity of same sex relationships arguing that their work inadvertently promotes gendered hierarchy This volume contributes to central debates in Christianity over divine and human personhood gendered relationality and the trinity and provides original accounts of God sexual difference and Christian community that are both theologically rich and thoroughly queer

Lived Religion Meredith B McGuire, 2008-08-22 How can we grasp the complex religious lives of individuals such as Peter an ordained Protestant minister who has little attachment to any church but centers his highly committed religious practice on peace and justice activism Or Hannah a devout Jew whose rich spiritual life revolves around her women s spirituality group and the daily practice of meditative dance Or Laura who identifies as Catholic but rarely attends Mass and engages daily in Buddhist style meditation at her home altar arranged with symbols of Mexican American popular religion Diverse religious practices such as these have long baffled scholars whose research often starts with the assumption that individuals commit or refuse to commit to an entire institutionally framed package of beliefs and practices Meredith McGuire points the way forward toward a new way of understanding religion She argues that scholars must study religion not as it is defined by religious organizations but as it is actually lived in people s everyday lives Drawing on her own extensive fieldwork as well as recent work by others McGuire explores the many seemingly mundane ways that individuals practice their religions and develop their spiritual lives By examining the many eclectic and creative practices of body mind emotion and spirit that have been invisible to researchers she offers a fuller and more nuanced understanding of contemporary religion

Power For: Feminism and Christ's Self-Giving Anna Mercedes, 2011-09-22 Contesting the feminist critique of the dangers of Christianity s self giving ethics this book advances a contemporary feminist christology engaging the strength of self giving power

The Oxford Handbook of the Epistemology of Theology William James Abraham, Frederick D. Aquino, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of the Epistemology of Theology brings together leading scholars in the fields of theology and epistemology to examine and articulate what can be categorized as appropriate epistemic evaluation in theology Part one focuses on some of the epistemic concepts that have been traditionally employed in theology such as knowledge of God revelation and scripture reason and faith experience and tradition This section also considers concepts that have not received sufficient epistemological attention in theology such as saints authority ecclesial practices spiritual formation and discernment Part two concentrates on epistemic concepts that have received significant attention in contemporary epistemology and can be related to theology such as understanding wisdom testimony virtue evidence foundationalism realism antirealism skepticism and disagreement Part three offers examples from key figures in the Christian tradition and investigates the relevant epistemological issues and insights in these writers as well as recognizing the challenges of connecting insights from contemporary epistemology with the subject of theology proper namely God Part four centers on five emerging areas that warrant further epistemological consideration Liberation Theology Continental Philosophy modern Orthodox writers Feminism and Pentecostalism This authoritative collection explores how the various topics figures and emerging conversations can be reconceived and addressed in light of recent developments in epistemology Each chapter provides an analysis of the crucial moves positions and debates while also identifying relevant epistemic considerations This Handbook fulfils the need for the development of this new conversation that will take its natural place in the intersection of theology and epistemology It links the fields of theology and epistemology in robust meaningful and significant ways
