Water-resources Investigations ,1982 Death and Salvation in Ancient Egypt Jan Assmann,2011-11-14 Human beings the acclaimed Egyptologist Jan Assmann writes are the animals that have to live with the knowledge of their death and culture is the world they create so they can live with that knowledge In his new book Assmann explores images of death and of death rites in ancient Egypt to provide startling new insights into the particular character of the civilization as a whole Drawing on the unfamiliar genre of the death liturgy he arrives at a remarkably comprehensive view of the religion of death in ancient Egypt Assmann describes in detail nine different images of death death as the body being torn apart as social isolation the notion of the court of the dead the dead body the mummy the soul and ancestral spirit of the dead death as separation and transition as homecoming and as secret Death and Salvation in Ancient Egypt also includes a fascinating discussion of rites that reflect beliefs about death through language and ritual Ancient Records of Egypt: The eighteenth dynasty James Henry Breasted,1906 His Good Name Christina Geisen,Jean Li,Steven B. Shubert,Kei Yamamoto,2021-03-20 The wish to affiliate with a specific cultural social or ethnical group is as important today as it was in past societies such as that of the ancient Egyptians The same significance applies to the self presentation of an individual within such a group Although it is inevitable that we perceive ancient cultures through the lens of our time place and value systems we can certainly try to look beyond these limitations Questions of how the ancient Egyptians saw themselves and how individuals tried to establish and thus present themselves in society are central pieces of the puzzle of how we interpret this ancient culture This volume focuses on the topic of identity and self presentation tackling the subject from many different angles the ways in which social and personal identities are constructed and maintained the manipulations of culture by individuals to reflect real or aspirational identities and the methods modern scholars use to attempt to say something about ancient persons Building on the work of Ronald J Leprohon to whom this volume is dedicated contributions in this volume present an overview of our current state of understanding of patterns of identity and self presentation in ancient Egypt The contributions approach various aspects of identity and self presentation through studies of gender literature material culture mythology names and officialdom Ancient Records of Egypt: The eighteenth dynasty James Henry Breasted,2001 Originally published in 1906 1907 this is the first complete collection in paperback of historical source documents available at the turn of the 20th century translated by James Henry Breasted Volume two considers documents of the Eighteenth Dynasty Light from the Ancient Past, Vol. 2 Jack Finegan,2017-03-14 A photograph map or diagram illustrates the text for every site described in this pilgrimage to Palestine beginning with places connected with John the Baptist and proceeding to Bethlehem and Nazareth Samaria and Galilee Jerash Caesarea Jericho the Mount of Olives
