Hawkins, Lynn D. Wardle, David Orgon Coolidge, David Coolidge, 2002-01-30 As divorce rates in the United States reach alarming levels the institution of marriage receives more and more criticism as an unrealistic endeavor However the contributors to this volume view marriage as a vital social institution not merely one kind of intimate relationship They argue for stronger support through legal and policy reform in order to strengthen for the benefit of individuals communities and the nation The contributors address hot button issues such as same sex marriage effects of divorce on children and the role of fathers in addition to issues such as the permanence of marriage covenant marriage and the role of religion in marriage This work brings together the work of respected legal scholars and social scientists who articulate why we should care about strengthening the institution of marriage what we can do and what challenges we face Despite dramatic social change marriage remains a critical social institution that promotes individual family and community well being The contributors to this book believe that marriage deserves our best efforts to revitalize it instead of a conscious agenda of benign neglect Here assembled in one place is a clear pro marriage research and policy agenda aimed at revitalizing this institution based on principles of the best interests of children husbands and wives and society at large Contributors from both the social sciences and legal studies illuminate critical issues from a variety of important perspectives providing a comprehensive and respectful treatment of a timely and often divisive subject The Faith Factor in Fatherhood Don E. mentoring women masculinity and the church this book will open your eyes to fresh ways to participate in solutions that will truly set black America free Although the Black Lives Matter movement keeps the church on the margins the authors in this volume believe that enduring change cannot happen unless God speaks directly to these issues in light of the gospel This is a revised edition of an earlier book Keeping Your Head Up With contributions from Vincent Bacote Bruce Fields Rev Howard Brown Ralph C Watkins Rev Eric M Mason Rev Lance Lewis Rev Anthony Carter Ken Jones Natalie Haslem Rev Ken Jones Rihana Mason Yvonne RB Banks African American Women and HIV/AIDS Dorie J. Evangelism & Discipleship in African-American Churches Lee N. June,Matthew Parker,1999 Here is a comprehensive guide to the how to s of the African American church and many aspects of its ministry Saving Souls, Serving Society Heidi Rolland Unruh,Ronald J. Sider,2005-10-06 Recent years have seen unprecedented attention to faith based institutions as agents of social change spurred in part by cuts in public funding for social services and accompanied by controversy about the separation of church and state The debate over faith based initiatives has highlighted a small but growing segment of churches committed to both saving souls and serving society What distinguishes faith based from secular activism How do religious organizations express their religious identity in the context of social services How do faith based service providers interpret the connection between spiritual methodologies and socioeconomic outcomes How does faith motivate and give meaning to social ministry Drawing on case studies of fifteen Philadelphia area Protestant churches with active outreach Saving Souls Serving Society seeks to answer these and other pressing questions surrounding the religious dynamics of social ministry While church based programs often look similar to secular ones in terms of goods or services rendered they may show significant differences in terms of motivations desired outcomes and interpretations of meaning Church based programs also differ from one another in terms of how they relate evangelism to their social outreach agenda Heidi Rolland Unruh and Ronald J Sider explore how churches navigate the tension between their spiritual mission and the constraints on evangelism in the context of social services The authors examine the potential contribution of religious dynamics to social outcomes as well as the relationship between mission orientations and social capital Unruh and Sider introduce a new vocabulary for describing the religious components and spiritual meanings embedded in social action and provide a typology of faith based organizations and programs Their analysis yields a framework for Protestant mission orientations that makes room for the diverse ways that churches interrelate spiritual witness and social compassion Based on their observations the authors offer a constructive approach to church state partnerships and provide a far more objective understanding of faith based social services than previously available
