Adaptation in Visual Culture Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2017-12-06 This book gathers together essays written by leading scholars of adaptation studies to explore the full range of practices and issues currently of concern in the field The chapters demonstrate how content and messaging are shared across an increasing number of platforms whose interrelationships have become as intriguing as they are complex Recognizing that a signature feature of contemporary culture is the convergence of different forms of media the contributors of this book argue that adaptation studies has emerged as a key discipline that unlike traditional literary and art criticism is capable of identifying and analyzing the relations between source texts and adaptations created from them Adaptation scholars have come to understand that these relations not only play out in individual case histories but are also institutional and this collection shows how adaptation plays a key role in the functioning of cinema television art and print media The volume is essential reading for all those interested both in adaptation studies and also in the complex forms of intermediality that define contemporary culture in the 21st century

Modern Art on Display K. Porter Aichele, 2016-05-19 Modern Art on Display The Legacies of Six Collectors is structured as a sequence of case studies that pair collectors of modern art with artists they particularly favored Duncan Phillips and Augustus Vincent Tack Albert Barnes and Chaim Soutine Albert Eugene Gallatin and Juan Gris Lillie Bliss and Paul C zanne Etta Cone and Henri Matisse G David Thompson and Paul Klee The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century 1915 1960 By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized
