Recognizing Ourselves Ceremonies Of Lesbian And Gay Commitment:

Recognizing Ourselves Ellen Lewin, 1998 The author offers a comprehensive account of lesbian and gay weddings in modern America through interviews resulting in a series of detailed profiles which show how new traditions and ultimately new families are emerging within contemporary America

Negotiating Rites Ute Husken, Frank Neubert, 2012 Ritual has been long viewed as an undisputed and indisputable part of especially religious tradition performed over and over in the same ways stable in form meaningless preconceived and with the aim of creating harmony and enabling a tradition's survival The authors represented in this collection argue however that this view can be seriously challenged and that ritual's embeddedness in negotiation processes is one of its central features

Handbook of Lesbian and Gay Studies Diane Richardson, Steven Seidman, 2002-09-25 The creation of a new field of lesbian and gay studies over the past thirty years has been a fascinating project This volume brings together key authors in the field in 26 major essays and provides a clear sense of just how much has been achieved It is a guide to the state of the art and invaluable for scholars throughout the world Ken Plummer Professor of Sociology University of Essex and Editor of Sexualities This book is unique in lesbian and gay studies From politics to health cyber queers to queer families the review essays in this volume cover all the important bases of GLB history and politics The Introduction is a simple and accessible overview of the changing faces of theory and research over many decades This book is bound to be an important resource in a burgeoning field Janice Irvine Associate Professor of Sociology University of Massachusetts Amherst The Handbook of Gay and Lesbian Studies assembled by two leading theorists of sexuality makes available more than two dozen new cutting edge essays in gay studies Essential for social science scholars and students of gay queer studies David F Greenberg Professor of Sociology New York University With this benchmark work lesbian and gay studies comes of age Drawing from a rich team of global contributors and carefully structured to elucidate the core issues in the field it constitutes an unparalleled resource for teaching research and debate The volume is organized into 4 sections History and Theory This covers the roots of lesbian and gay studies the institutionalization of the subject in the Academy the naturalness of heterosexuality science and sexuality the comparative sociology of homosexualities and the heterosexual homosexual division Identity and Community This examines the formation of gay and lesbian identities communities and movements cyber queer research sexuality and space generational issues in lesbian and gay lifecycles and the subject of bisexuality Institutions This investigates questions of the governance of sexualities lesbian and gay health sexualities and education religion and homosexuality homosexuality and the law gay and lesbian workers homosexuality and the family and lesbian gay and queer encounters with the media and popular culture Politics This explores the formation of the gay and lesbian movements impact of globalization antigay and lesbian violence nationalism and transnationalism in lesbian and gay studies and sexual citizenship The result is an authoritative book that demarcates the field stimulates critical discussion and provides lesbian and gay studies with an enriching focal reference point It is quite simply a breakthrough work that will galvanize discussion and research for years to come Same Sex Intimacies Catherine Donovan, Brian Heaphy, Jeffrey Weeks, 2003-09-02 Our families are increasingly a matter of choice and the choices are widening all the time This is particularly true of the non heterosexual world where the last ten years have seen a popular acceptance of same sex partnerships and to a lesser extent of same sex parenting Based on extensive interviews with people in a variety of non traditional relationships this fascinating new book argues that these developments in the non heterosexual world are closely linked to wider changes in the meaning of family in society at large and that each can cast light on the other Same Sex Intimacies gives vivid accounts of the different ways non heterosexual people have been able to create meaningful intimate relationships for themselves and highlights the role of individual agency and collective endeavour in forging these roles as friends partners parents and as members of communities This topical book will provide compelling reading for students of the family sexuality and lesbian and gay studies The Politics of Passion Gloria Wekker, 2006 The Politics of Passion centers on an old institution among the Afro Surinamese working class in which women have multiple sexual relationships with both men and women These women reject marriage because of the bonds of dependency it fosters preferring to create their own families of kin lovers and children Gloria Wekker analyzes this phenomenon known as mati work as she vividly describes the lives of Afro Surinamese women She gives an account of women s sexuality that is not limited to either heterosexuality or same sex sexuality Her work offers new perspectives on black women s sexuality the lives of Caribbean women transnational gay and lesbian movements and an Afro Surinamese tradition that challenges conventional Western notions of marriage gender and sexuality By foregrounding the voices of Afro Surinamese women Wekker illuminates these women s daily lives in light of the changes occurring in Surinamese society She also considers the historical religious psychological economic linguistic cultural and political elements that have shaped their lives The book concludes with stories of women who have migrated to the Netherlands where they have created new vibrant mati communities Lesbian Rites Ramona Faith Oswald, 2014-06-03 Explore affirmation and coping rituals for lesbian singles couples and communities This pioneering book is a multidisciplinary compilation of scholarship addressing lesbians the rituals in their lives and the meaning and impact of those rituals for the women involved and the people and communities around them It offers a diverse range of perspectives on what it means to be a lesbian what ritual is what it means to enact a ritual and how we can understand lesbian ritual experiences Lesbian Rites Symbolic Acts and the Power of Community presents five explorations of ritual that bring forth themes of lesbian centered social change In Death s Midwife Sharon Jaffe creates a narrative that illustrates the power of ritual to reconcile straight and gay Christian and Pagan in end of life situations Next Ruth Barrett s exploration of Dianic traditions provides a brief history of the importance of Goddess worship to radical lesbian feminists and uses those traditions to create life course rituals Marla Brettschneider s Ritual Encounters of the Queer Kind challenges notions of a static lesbian self and instead reworks Judaism and anarchist politics to propose rituals of continuous becoming Krista McQueeney then analyzes the paradoxes of a lesbian commitment ceremony held within a gay affirmative African American congregation in the southern United States Elizabeth Suter and editor Ramona Faith Oswald use exploratory survey data to examine how lesbian couples may use name changing as a strategy to claim family status In addition Lesbian Rites also includes two chapters that examine how lesbians have been compromised if not harmed by the ritualization of heterosexism and homophobia The first is an insightful analysis of the community response to the feminist retreat known as Camp Sister Spirit In this chapter Kate Greene uses Mary Daly s seven patterns of sado ritual syndrome to show how the people opposed to the camp were organized to uphold heterosexual patriarchy through an obsession with purity that defined the camp as a refuge for immorality The second chapter on this subject reviews the editor s own experiences of being hidden and devalued at heterosexual family weddings

On Sexuality and Power Alan Sinfield,2004 It is widely supposed that the most suitable partner will be someone very much like oneself gay fiction and cinema are often organized around this assumption Nonetheless power differentials are remarkably persistent as well as sexy What are the personal and political implications of this insight Sinfield argues that hierarchies in interpersonal relations are continuous with the main power differentials of our social and political life gender class age and race therefore it is not surprising that they govern our psychic lives Recent writing enables an exploration of their positive potential especially in fantasy as well as their danger On Sexuality and Power focuses on the writing of the last thirty years revisiting also Whitman Wilde Mann Forster and Genet and reassessing the very idea of a gay canon

Out in Public Ellen Lewin,William L. Leap,2009-05-04 Out in Public addresses and engages us in the new and exciting directions in the emerging field of lesbian gay anthropology The authors offer a deep conversation about the meaning of sexuality subjectivity and culture Affirms the importance of recognizing gay and lesbian social issues within the arena of public anthropology Explores critical concerns of gay activism in a variety of global settings from the U S the European Union Singapore Nigeria India Nicaragua and Guadalajara Offers a unique focus on the politics of being gay and lesbian in cross cultural perspective Deals with broad ranging issues that affect human sexuality and human rights globally Winner of the 2009 Ruth Benedict Prize in the category of Best Anthology

No Place Like Home Christopher Carrington,2009-01-14 In this rich surprising portrait of the world of lesbian and gay relationships Christopher Carrington unveils the complex and artful ways that gay people create and maintain both homes and chosen families for themselves Carefully separating stereotype from reality Carrington investigates family in the gay and lesbian community Relying upon interviews and observation the author analyzes the loves and routings of 52 diverse lesbian gay and bisexual couples in the Bay area He closes the work with a discussion of the raging same sex marriage debate and posits an enlightened solution to this dilemma Library Journal

Between Sodom and Eden Lee Walzer,2000-03-30 Astonishingly Israeli lesbians and gays have been able to achieve many political goals that still elude America s gay community Israel s Supreme Court has mandated same sex spousal benefits the military which never barred gays to begin with has removed its last official restrictions Israel's parliament boasts a Subcommittee for the Prevention of Sexual Orientation Discrimination and school curricula are gay friendly all of this in a country where religious interests wield extraordinary power and whose identity today is the object of fierce struggle Between Sodom and Eden the first book to explore this rapidly changing landscape is based on interviews with over one hundred Israelis as well as Palestinians Lee Walzer explores how within a decade Israel has evolved from a society that marginalized homosexuals to one that offers some of the most extensive legal protections in the world He traces the political religious and social factors that make Israel a gay rights trendsetter examining the interplay between Judaism and homosexuality the growing prominence of gay themes in Israeli literature film music and television and the role of the media in advancing lesbian and gay political progress

Families We Choose Kath Weston, 1997 This study brings together two areas of investigation relationships of gay and lesbian individuals with their biological families and lesbian and gay relationships in the context of research on alternative forms of family

Up from Invisibility Larry Gross, 2001-12-26 A half century ago gay men and lesbians were all but invisible in the media and in turn popular culture With the lesbian and gay liberation movement came a profoundly new sense of homosexual community and empowerment and the emergence of gay people onto the media's stage And yet even as the mass media have been shifting the terms of our public conversation toward a greater acknowledgment of diversity does the emerging visibility of gay men and women do justice to the complexity and variety of their experience Or is gay identity manipulated and contrived by media that are unwilling and perhaps unable to fully comprehend and honor it While positive representations of gays and lesbians are a cautious step in the right direction media expert Larry Gross argues that the entertainment and news media betray a lingering inability to break free from proscribed limitations in order to embrace the complex reality of gay identity While noting major advances like the opening of the Oscar Wilde Memorial Bookstore the first gay bookstore in the country or the rise of The Advocate from small newsletter to influential national paper Gross takes the measure of somewhat more ambiguous milestones like the first lesbian kiss on television or the first gay character in a newspaper comic strip

Fashioning Sapphism Laura Doan, 2001-01-03 The highly publicized obscenity trial of Radclyffe Hall's The Well of Loneliness 1928 is generally recognized as the crystallizing moment in the construction of a visible modern English lesbian culture marking a great divide between innocence and deviance private and public New Woman and Modern Lesbian Yet despite unreserved agreement on the importance of this cultural moment previous studies often reductively distort our reading of the formation of early twentieth century lesbian identity either by neglecting to examine in detail the developments leading up to the ban or by framing events in too broad a context against other cultural phenomena Fashioning Sapphism locates the novelist Radclyffe Hall and other prominent lesbians including the pioneer in women's policing Mary Allen the artist Gluck and the writer Bryher within English modernity through the multiple sites of law sexology fashion and literary and visual representation thus tracing the emergence of a modern English lesbian subculture in the first two decades of the twentieth century Drawing on extensive new archival research the book interrogates anew a range of myths long accepted without question and still in circulation concerning to cite only a few the extent of homophobia in the 1920s the strategic deployment of sexology against sexual minorities and the rigidity of certain cultural codes to denote lesbianism in public culture Auden's Games of Knowledge Richard R. Bozorth,2001 The first full length consideration of Auden as a homosexual poet this volume shows that Auden s career was tied to a process of gay self interrogation unparalleled in modern poetry and argues that he was driven by a powerful yearning to comprehend the psychological political and ethical implications of same sex desire Auden s theories about poetry in the 1930s and after reflected an intense concern with how to write publicly as a homosexual poet That struggle was made manifest in his love poetry which Bozorth argues constitutes a kind of erotic autobiography exploring the distinct challenges of homosexual love Bozorth s approach is manifold examining the poet s engagements with avant garde poetics gay subculture psychoanalysis leftist politics and theology This book proposes that from his early fascination with secret agent and trickster figures to his later theories of poetry as an I Thou relation Auden viewed poetry as a fictional but primal erotic encounter with the reader Symptoms of Modernity Matti Bunzl,2004-02-03 This book is an ethnography of Central European modernity in the form of a comparative study of Jews and queers in late twentieth century Vienna The Wedding Complex Elizabeth Freeman,2002-10-31 A queer literary and cultural studies examination of the wedding ceremony rather than the resulting marriages which finds it to be a space of more open possibilities than might normally be supposed Business, Not Politics Katherine Sender,2005-01-05 In a hard hitting book that refutes conventional wisdom Katherine Sender explores the connection between the business of marketing to gay consumers and the politics of gay rights and identity She disputes some marketers claims that marketing appeals to gay and lesbian consumers are a matter of business not politics and that the business of gay marketing can be considered independently of the politics of gay rights identity and visibility She contends that the gay community is not a preexisting entity that marketers simply tap into rather it is a construction an imagined community formed not only through political activism but also through a commercially supported media She argues that marketing has not only been formative in the constitution of a GLBT community and identity but also has had significant impact on the visibility of gays and lesbians

Odd Girls and Twilight Lovers Lillian Faderman,1991 A broad spectrum of lesbian life past and present Changing Contours of Domestic Life, Family and Law Anne Bottomley,Simone Wong,2009-09-17 Drawing from a wide range of material and socio legal methods this collection brings together original essays written by internationally renowned scholars investigating emerging patterns in the shape and form of the legal regulation of domestic relations Taking as a focus the theme of caring and sharing the collection includes chapters which reflect on the changing contours of what we think of as domestic relations the impact which legal recognition carries in making visible some relationships rather than others the potential for normative values carried within patterns of legal recognition and regulation intersections between private law and public policy the role of private law in the allocation of responsibility and privilege the differential impact of seemingly progressive policies on economically vulnerable or socially marginal groupings tensions between family law models and models carried within other fields of private law and unusually architectures in law and the built environment designed to facilitate broader accounts of domestic relationships This thoughtful provocative and wide ranging collection will be a must for anyone whatever their discipline background interested in the insights and potential offered by a fresh engagement with the complexity of domestic relations and the law Authors Anne Barlow Anne Bottomley Susan Boyd and Cindy Baldassi Alison Diduck Susan Scott Hunt Nan Seuffert Carol Smart Simone Wong and Claire Young The Deatabase Book International Debate Education Association,2004 An invaluable resource for debaters The Deatabase Book provides background arguments and resources on more than 125 debate topics in areas as diverse as business science and technology environment politics religion culture and education All topics have been updated and 15 new topics added for the revised edition Each entry presents an introduction placing the topic in context arguments pro and con sample motions and Web links and print resources for further research Organized in a handy A Z format the book also includes a topical index for easy searching BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
