Recollections in Verse of Fifty Years of Changes in New Hampshire Abraham F. Emerson,1948 Realizing Metaphors David M. Bethea,1998-11-24 Readers often have regarded with curiosity the creative life of the poet In this passionate and authoritative new study David Bethea illustrates the relation between the art and life of nineteenth century poet Alexander Pushkin the central figure in Russian thought and culture Bethea shows how Pushkin on the eve of his two hundredth birthday still speaks to our time He indicates how we as modern readers might realize that is not only grasp cognitively but feel experience the promethean metaphors central to the poet s intensely sculpted life The Pushkin who emerges from Bethea s portrait is one who long unknown to English language readers closely resembles the original both psychologically and artistically Bethea begins by addressing the influential thinkers Freud Bloom Jakobson and Lotman to show that their premises do not by themselves adequately account for Pushkin s psychology of creation or his version of the life of the poet He then proposes his own versatile model of reading and goes on to sketches the tangled connections between Pushkin and his great compatriot the eighteenth century poet Gavrila Derzhavin Pushkin simultaneously advanced toward and retreated from the shadow of his predecessor as he created notions of poet in history and inspiration new for his time and absolutely determinative for the tradition thereafter Early Recollections Arthur Clark,2013-05-13 This book reviews the extensive literature on early recollections and organizes various interpretive systems of evaluating early memories The practitioner will find specific and detailed guidelines for administering and interpreting early recollections to help integrate these memories into counseling and psychotherapy Following a carefully articulated contextual approach to early recollections which synthesizes three perspectives subjective interpersonal and objective come suggestions for using early recollections in the counseling process and a full length case study to explicate the model and demonstrate the utility of using this approach Records and Recollections of St. Cuthbert's College, Ushaw Old alumnus,1889 Charles
