Reconciliation After Violent Conflict A Handbook:

Reconciliation After Violent Conflict David Bloomfield, Terri Barnes, Lucien Huyse, 2003 How does a newly democratized nation constructively address the past to move from a divided history to a shared future How do people rebuild coexistence after violence The International IDEA Handbook on Reconciliation after Violent Conflict presents a range of tools that can be and have been employed in the design and implementation of reconciliation processes Most of them draw on the experience of people grappling with the problems of past violence and injustice There is no right answer to the challenge of reconciliation and so the Handbook prescribes no single approach Instead it presents the options and methods with their strengths and weaknesses evaluated so that practitioners and policy makers can adopt or adapt them as best suits each specific context Also available in a French language version Reconciling Indonesia Birgit Bräuchler, 2009-09-10 Promoting an interdisciplinary examination of Indonesia this volume goes beyond a mere political and legal approach to reconciliation It offers new understandings of bottom up reconciliation approaches and the cultural dimension of reconciliation , The Witness Experience Kimi Lynn King, James David Meernik, 2017-11-09 This book provides the most comprehensive and scientific assessment to date of what it means to appear before war crimes tribunals This groundbreaking analysis conducted with the cooperation of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY Victims and Witnesses Section examines the positive and negative impact that testifying has on those who bear witness to the horrors of war by shedding new light on the process While most witnesses have positive feelings and believe they contributed to international justice there is a small but critical segment of witnesses whose security health and well being are adversely affected after testifying The witness experience is examined holistically including witness perceptions of their physical and psychological well being Because identity gender and ethnicity and war trauma were central to the ICTY's mandate and the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia the research explores in depth how they have impacted the most critical stakeholders of any transitional justice mechanism the witnesses Coexistence in the Aftermath of Mass Violence Eve Zucker, Laura McGrew, 2020-12-07 Coexistence in the Aftermath of Mass Violence demonstrates how imagination empathy and resilience contribute to the processes of social repair after ethnic and political violence Adding to the literature on transitional justice peacebuilding and the anthropology of violence and social repair the authors show how these conceptual pathways imagination empathy and resilience enhance recovery coexistence and sustainable peace Coexistence or reconciliation is the underlying goal or condition desired after mass violence enabling survivors to move forward with their lives Imagination allows these survivors victims perpetrators bystanders to draw guidance and inspiration from their social and cultural imaginaries to develop empathy and to envision a future of peace and coexistence Resilience emerges through periods of violence and its aftermaths through acts of survival compassion modes of rebuilding social worlds and the establishment of a peaceful society Focusing on society at the grass roots level the authors discuss the myriad and little understood processes of social repair that allow ruptured societies and communities to move toward a peaceful and stable future The volume also illustrates some of the ways in which imagination empathy and resilience may contribute to the prevention of future violence and the authors conclude with a number of practical and policy recommendations The cases include Cambodia Rwanda Sierra Leone Somaliland Columbia the Southern Cone Iraq and Bosnia Consolationscapes in the Face of Loss Christoph Jedan, Avril Maddrell, Eric Venbrux, 2018-10-09 Human beings are grieving animals Consolation or an attempt to assuage grief is an age old response to loss which has various expressions in different cultural contexts Over the past century consolation has dropped off the West s cultural radar The contributions to this volume highlight this neglect of consolation in popular and academic discourses and explore the usefulness of the concept of consolation for analysing spatio temporal constellations Consolationscapes in the Face of Loss brings together scholars from geography philosophy history anthropology and religious studies The chapters use spatial and conceptual mappings of grief and consolation to analyse a range of spaces and phenomena around grief bereavement and remembrance comfort and resilience including battlefield memorials crematoria graveyards and natural burial sites in Europe Authors shift the discussion beyond the Global North by including responses to traumatic grief in post conflict African societies as well as Australian Aboriginal traditions of ritual consolation The book focuses on the relationship between space place and consolation In so doing it offers a new lens for research on death grief and bereavement It offers new insights for students and researchers interrogating contemporary bereavement as well as those interested in meaning making emerging socio cultural practices and their role in personal and collective resilience

T-Kit, Volume 12 Council of Europe, 2012-01-01 Positive Peace in Theory and Practice Tuba Turan, 2015-10-20 Examining the shortcomings of eliciting sustainable intra state peace through the UN system and the underlying positive peace paradigm of the liberal traditions the book maintains that a novel positive peace vision and framework under the auspices of the UN is warranted Building upon grievance based explanations of violent conflicts and conflict transformation research this book develops a comprehensive positive peace framework that involves the early tackling of identity divisions i e Fundamental Conflicts through UN facilitated deliberative and dialogical processes at the 1 5 track diplomacy level This framework is designed to complement current UN post conflict peacebuilding and structural prevention practice By dealing both with how to operationalise early conflict prevention in a workable manner and developing a comprehensive yet viable positive peace approach this book entails an extensive interdisciplinary approach and new in depth analyses of the wide ranging normative and policy aspects of the quest of elevating positive peace to a core objective of UN practice

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria Hybrid

Justice ,2024-12-11 The last decade has seen the unexpected re emergence of hybrid and internationalised courts institutions which operate with varying combinations of national and international law procedure and staff Whilst the establishment of the permanent International Criminal Court should have made hybrid mechanisms largely obsolete hybrids have recently been established or proposed for atrocity crimes committed in Chad South Sudan Israel Palestine the Central African Republic Kosovo Syria Sri Lanka Myanmar The Gambia Liberia and Ukraine Hybrid Justice critically examines the resurgent promise of hybrid courts Focusing on the fields practices innovations and of hybrid courts the contributors evaluate hybrids success and in doing so help to clarify the conditions and mechanisms that makes hybrids likely to succeed in their mandates and impacts The authors focus on hybrid courts and resilience the resilience of hybrid mechanisms to withstand political and other pressures to deliver justice and accountability and the potential contribution of hybrids to the resilience of affected communities Borne out of a collaboration between lawyers academics and activists this edited volume provides a uniquely comparative account of the development of hybrid courts in recent years Building a Future on

Peace and Justice Kai Ambos,Judith Large,Marieke Wierda,2008-12-04 Results of the 2007 Nuremberg Conference on Peace and Justice Tensions between peace and justice have long been debated by scholars practitioners and agencies including the United Nations and both theory and policy must be refined for very practical application in situations emerging from violent conflict or political repression Specific contexts demand concrete decisions and approaches aimed at redress of grievance and creation of conditions of social justice for a non violent future There has been definitive progress in a world in which blanket amnesties were granted at times with little hesitation There is a growing understanding that accountability has pragmatic as well as principled arguments in its favour Practical arguments as much as shifts in the norms have created a situation in which the choice is increasingly seen as which forms of accountability rather than a stark choice between peace and justice It is socio political transformation not just an end to violence that is needed to build sustainable peace This book addresses these dilemmas through a thorough overview of the current state of legal obligations discussion of the need for a holistic approach including development analysis of the implications of the coming into force of the ICC and a series of hard case studies on internationalized and local approaches devised to navigate the tensions between peace and justice Victim Healing and Truth Commissions Holly L. Guthrey, 2015-02-23 This book intends to contribute to the growing body of transitional justice literature by providing insight into how truth commissions may be beneficial to victims of mass violence based on data collected in Timor Leste and on the Solomon Islands Drawing on literature in the fields of victim psychology procedural justice and transitional justice this study is guided by the puzzle of why truth telling in post conflict settings has been found to be both helpful and harmful to victims of mass violence Existing studies have identified a range of positive benefits and negative consequences of truth telling for victims however the reasons why some victims experience a sense of healing while others do not after participating in post conflict truth commission processes continues to remain unclear Hence to address one piece of this complex puzzle this book seeks to begin clarifying how truth telling may be beneficial for victims by investigating the question What pathways lead from truth telling to victim healing in post conflict settings Building on the proposition that having voice a key component of procedural justice can help individuals to overcome the disempowerment and marginalisation of victimisation this book investigates voice as a causal mechanism that can create pathways toward healing within truth commission public hearings Comparative empirical studies that investigate how truth telling contributes to victim healing in post conflict settings are scarce in the field of transitional justice This book begins to fill an important gap in the existing body of literature From a practical standpoint by enhancing understanding of how truth commissions can promote healing the findings and arguments in this volume provide insight into how the design of transitional justice processes may be improved in the future to better respond to the needs of victims of mass violence Intractable Conflicts Daniel Bar-Tal, 2013-03-18 This book provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary original and holistic analysis of the socio psychological dynamics of intractable conflicts Daniel Bar Tal s analysis rests on the premise that intractable conflicts share certain socio psychological foundations despite differences in context and other characteristics He describes a full cycle of intractable conflicts their outbreak escalation and reconciliation through peace building Locally Led Peacebuilding Stacey L. Connaughton, Jessica Berns, 2019-09-09 The authors of this edited volume present a case for why locally led peacebuilding matters and how it can have measurable and meaningful impact even beyond preventing political violence This book contributes a set of local voices to a global problem how to prevent armed conflict and lead to lasting peace The authors argue that locally led peacebuilding by community based organizations both formal and informal plays a crucial role in preventing violence and cultivating peace one that is complementary to peacebuilding work done by local state and national governments within countries and between nation states Through the case studies presented Locally Led Peacebuilding presents evidence for how and why locally led peacebuilding can prevent violence and invites practitioners and scholars to critically examine the implications of locally led initiatives From these examples we all have an opportunity to learn about creating implementing researching and funding locally led peacebuilding Contemporary Regional Planning Issues ,2025-07-30 Regional planning aims to envision a better future for a region and proposes policies to achieve a desired vision of regional development It encompasses various aspects of the human and biophysical environments covering extensive geographical areas or jurisdictions with identifiable common characteristics In this regard this book offers a state of the art examination of how contemporary regional planning challenges are addressed globally It includes contributions from leading researchers and scholars in the field of regional planning from Canada the USA Israel Indonesia Turkey and Norway Based on empirical research the book discusses a variety of topics including how the relocation of Indonesia s capital city could potentially resolve the country s longstanding regional inequities and multidimensional conflicts the intricacies of planning in contested cities and the dual role of urban planning in conflict resolution how regional planning balances local autonomy and regional objectives river basin development as a sustainable planning strategy for a port city and positioning the Arctic landscape regions in the global system of growth and development The book is insightful thought provoking and easy to understand It could serve as an essential reference material on contemporary regional planning for students planners NGOs government officials and international institutions interested in regional development planning Restorative Justice Marian Liebmann,2007 Provides an accessible introduction to the philosophy of restorative justice and its application in a wide range of settings demonstrating how it can help to rehabilitate both victims and offenders when harm has been done

An Introduction to Transitional Justice Olivera Simić,2020-07-30 The Second Edition of An Introduction to Transitional Justice provides a comprehensive overview of transitional justice judicial and non judicial measures implemented by societies to redress legacies of massive human rights abuse Written by some of the leading experts in the field it takes a broad interdisciplinary approach to the subject addressing the dominant transitional justice mechanisms as well as key themes and challenges faced by scholars and practitioners Using a wide historic and geographic range of case studies to illustrate key concepts and debates and featuring discussion questions and suggestions for further reading this is an essential introduction to the subject for students Ethical Loneliness Jill Stauffer,2015-09-01 Ethical loneliness is the experience of being abandoned by humanity compounded by the cruelty of wrongs not being acknowledged It is the result of multiple lapses on the part of human beings and political institutions that in failing to listen well to survivors deny them redress by negating their testimony and thwarting their claims for justice Jill Stauffer examines the root causes of ethical loneliness and how those in power revise history to serve their own ends rather than the needs of the abandoned Out of this discussion difficult truths about the desire and potential for political forgiveness transitional justice and political reconciliation emerge Moving beyond a singular focus on truth commissions and legal trials she considers more closely what is lost in the wake of oppression and violence how selves and worlds are built and demolished and who is responsible for re creating lives after they are destroyed Stauffer boldly argues that rebuilding worlds and just institutions after violence is a broad obligation and that those who care about justice must first confront their own assumptions about autonomy liberty and responsibility before an effective response to violence can take place In building her claims Stauffer draws on the work of Emmanuel Levinas Jean Am ry Eve Sedgwick and Friedrich Nietzsche as well as concrete cases of justice and injustice across the world The Violence of Victimhood Diane Enns,2015-08-06 We know that violence breeds violence We need look no further than the wars in the western Balkans the genocide in Rwanda or the ongoing crisis in Israel and Palestine But we don t know how to deal with the messy moral and political quandaries that result when victims become perpetrators When the line between guilt and innocence wavers and we are confronted by the suffering of the victim who turns to violence judgment may give way to moral relativism or liberal tolerance compassion to a pity that denies culpability This is the point of departure in The Violence of Victimhood and the impetus for its call for renewed considerations of responsibility judgment compassion and nonviolent politics To address her provocative questions Diane Enns draws on an unusually wide ranging cast of characters from the fields of feminism philosophy peacebuilding political theory and psychoanalysis In the process she makes an original contribution to each enriching discussions that are otherwise constricted by disciplinary boundaries and an arid distinction between theory and practice Transition to Peace Ho-Won Jeong,2021-10-15 This book enhances our understanding of how societies torn by violence can be rebuilt Instabilities in those societies continue to be fuelled by political marginalization economic social inequality violent crimes and injustice Historically international response has been largely inadequate due to a failure of adaptation to local circumstances This collection focuses on how peacebuilding programmes can be more effectively carried out to create a more functional society In a nutshell this volume sheds light on local practice and experiences that can be utilized to meet unique circumstances of countries that have suffered from a destructive conflict The collection will investigate the transition to peace by highlighting the missing links between peacebuilding norms and practice political economy emotions justice and reconciliation
