regional organizations in different policy fields offer comprehensive overviews of the main actors institutions historical development and current issues      Worlds in Transition Joseph Camilleri,Jim Falk,2009-01-01 We are living through a unique moment of transition marked by a frenetic cycle of invention construction consumption and destruction However there is more to this transition than globalization argue the authors of this unique and penetrating study In their highly innovative approach they set this transition against a broader evolutionary canvas with the emphasis on the evolution of governance The book s detailed analysis of five strategic sectors economy environment health information and security points to an intricate and rapidly evolving interplay of geopolitical cultural an      Hard Power, Soft Power and the Future of Transatlantic Relations Thomas L. Ilgen,2016-04-22 The dynamics of transatlantic relations in the twenty first century have been shaped by an American preference for the exercise of its considerable hard power capabilities while Europeans have preferred to draw upon the considerable soft power resources that have grown from their enviable internal processes of integration These diverging power preferences have differential impacts on the management of Atlantic security economic and social and cultural relations The contributors long time observers and analysts of the Atlantic partnership debate how problematic security relations are likely to continue to be discuss how successfully economic affairs will be managed and examine the continuing frictions in domestic politics of social and cultural matters that should be manageable if both European and American leaders work actively and responsibly to encourage policy convergence
