Reconstructing Architecture For The Twenty First Century An Inquiry Into The Architects World:

Reconstructing Architecture for the Twenty-first Century Anthony Jackson, 1995-01-01 Jackson exposes the inadequacies of old conceptions of architecture as embodying metaphysical properties and of architects as the sole keepers of this esoteric knowledge He challenges architects to acknowledge and celebrate building as an expression of the ideals and values of the broader based classless communities to which they now belong Reconstructing Architecture for the Twenty-first Century Anthony Jackson, 1995 The Canadian Architect, 1997 Gordon Atkins Graham Livesey, 2005 Included in the book is an essay exploring Gordon Atkins role as an architect an interview with Atkins that explores in detail his design philosophy formative training and upbringing This highly illustrated volume features sixteen projects that span most of his career Jacket Appendx, Culture, Theory, Praxis, 1999 Toward a Critical Pedagogy for the Environment, 1998 Constructing a Place of Critical Architecture in China Guanghui Ding, 2016-03-09 For the past 30 years The Chinese journal Time Architecture Shidai Jianzhu has focused on publishing innovative and exploratory work by emerging architects based in private design firms who were committed to new material theoretical and pedagogical practices In doing so this book argues that the journal has engaged in the presentation and production of a particular form of critical architecture described as an intermediate criticality as a response to the particular constraints of the Chinese cultural and political context The journal s publications displayed a dual critique a resistant attitude to the dominant modes of commercial building practice characterised by rapid and large scale urban expansion and an alternative publishing practice focusing on emerging independent architectural practitioners through the active integration of theoretical debates architectural projects and criticisms This dual critique is illustrated through a careful review and analysis of the history and programme of the journal By showing how the work of emerging architects including Yung Ho Chang Wang Shu Liu Jiakun and Urbanus are situated within the context of the journal s special thematic editions on experimental architecture exhibition group design new urban space and professional system the book assesses the contribution the journal has made to the emergence of a critical architecture in China in the context of how it was articulated debated presented and perhaps even produced within the pages of the publication itself The protagonists of critical architecture have endeavoured to construct an alternative mode of form and space with strong aesthetic and socio political implications to the predominant production of architecture under the current Chinese socialist market economy To rebel against certain forms of domination and suppression by capital and power is by no means to completely reject them rather it is to use thos Canadian Books in Print, 2003 Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art, 1998 Geografía política de las universidades públicas mexicanas Daniel Cazés, Eduardo Ibarra Colado, Luis Porter Galetar, 2003 AA Files, 1996 Choice, 2005-09 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library, 1997 Canadian Book Review Annual, 1995 Architecture and the Image at the Turn of the 21st Century Sanja Rodeš, 2024-06-28 This book examines architecture image and media relationships as productive for architecture and architectural discourses By arguing that the relationships between architecture and media cannot be dismissed via linear criticism of architecture and media or image these relations are instead seen as a part of a sphere a mediasphere of complex relationships In lieu of anything like a consensus on the contemporary condition of architecture referring to the late twentieth and the twenty first centuries the starting point of this book is that the relationships between architecture media and images continue to multiply owing to continuous technological advancements Contemporary architecture considered in this book is related to the selected circumstances of high visibility where architectural images are propelled into visibility and conflated with non architectural images This takes architecture outside of architectural only discourse and into the public realm By granting higher visibility to both the architectural images and architecture in the public realm architecture can also be influenced by the various perceptions of the general public and can enter public consciousness via non architectural media With increased visibility architecture s far reaching presence calls for more structured analysis of its nature and potential As the analysed architecture in this book is associated with the discourses outside of architecture some of which relate to terrorism natural disaster and branding and consumption the limits of contemporary architectural discipline are questioned and extended This book is written for academics and students in architectural history theory and criticism particularly those interested in visual and media studies
