Recovery Of Meaning An Essay On The Good

Lucretia B. Yaghjian

Recovery Of Meaning An Essay On The Good:

The Recovery of Meaning Charles Douglas McGee,1966 What Does It Mean to Grow Old? Thomas R. Cole,1987-08 In What Does It Mean to Grow Old essayists come to grips as best they can with the phenomenon of an America that is about to become the Old Country They have been drawn from every relevant discipline gerontology social medicine politics health anthropology ethics law and asked to speak their mind Most of them write extremely well and their sharply individual voices are heard Writing Theology Well Lucretia B. Yaghjian,2006-11-24 In its creative integration of the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology Writing Theology Well provides a standard text for theological educators engaged in the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it will also encourage excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts Writing Theology Well 2nd Edition Lucretia B. Yaghjian,2015-09-24 A working guide for students conducting theological writing and research on theology and biblical studies courses this book integrates the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology to provide a standard text for the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it also encourages excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts This 2nd Edition includes new chapters on Writing Theology in a New Language which explores the linguistic and cultural challenges of writing theology well in a non native language and Writing and Learning Theology in an Electronic Age addressed to distance learning students learning to write theology well from online courses and dealing with the technologies necessary to do so The Recovery of Philosophy in America Thomas P. Kasulis,Robert Cummings Neville,1997-05-01 Philosophy in America enjoyed a golden age at the end of the nineteenth and beginning of the twentieth centuries with the flourishing of distinctive and original schools of pragmatism idealism and naturalism These American philosophies shared a family of conceptions of human experience far richer than their contemporary European schools of empiricism and phenomenology The American conceptions of experience embrace critical and speculative conceptions of reason presenting decisive alternatives to the Kantian foundationalist project that expressed itself in positivism analytic philosophy and phenomenology During the middle part of the twentieth century these American philosophies were eclipsed by the European schools however and philosophy was reduced from the public intellectual roles given it by the likes of William James and John Dewey to a narrow academic practice interesting to few other than academic philosophers John Edwin Smith through a long publishing and teaching career at Yale has championed the rich American conceptions of experience and speculative reason and it seems that at the end of this century they are returning in triumph This book celebrates the recovery and new growth of American philosophy in a stunning variety of connected and vital intellectual projects represented by its contributors George Allan Douglas R Anderson Lewis S Ford Errol

Harris Richard Hocking Thomas P Kasulis George R Lucas Jr Robert Cummings Neville Donald W Sherburne Merold Westphal Kuang ming Wu and Carl G Vaught Displaying philosophy's recovery in America this book also honors John Edwin Smith who has kept the history and trajectory of philosophy in America in sight and who contributes a prophetic commentary on the other essays The Philosopher's Index, 1978 Selected Essays, Volume II Andrew Louth, 2023 These two volumes contain selected essays written over forty years by Andrew Louth a major scholar in the fields of Theology and Patristics early Christian thought Many of the essays in volume II concern the nature of theology drawing from a famous group of twentieth century Russian thinkers exiled after the 1917 Communist revolution The Philosopher's Index Richard H. Lineback, 1978 Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage, Volume II Erlinda Gonzales-Berry, Charles M. Tatum, 1996-01-01 This second volume in the series contains articles by the leading scholars on Hispanic literary history of the United States given at the annual convention on Recovering the U S Hispanic Literary Heritage The articles in this volume are in five sections The Recovery Project Comes of Age Assimilation Accommodation or Resistance History in Literature Literature in History Writing the Revolution and Recovering the Creation of Community Selected Works of D.T. Suzuki, Volume III Daisetsu Teitaro Suzuki, 2016-08-02 Daisetsu Teitaro Suzuki was a key figure in the introduction of Buddhism to the non Asian world Many outside Japan encountered Buddhism for the first time through his writings and teaching and for nearly a century his work and legacy have contributed to the ongoing religious and cultural interchange between Japan and the rest of the world particularly the United States and Europe This third volume of Selected Works of D T Suzuki brings together a diverse collection of Suzuki's letters essays and lectures about non Buddhist religions and his thoughts on their relation to Buddhism as well as his reflections on the nature of religion itself Some of these writings have been translated into English for the first time in this volume As a long term resident of the United States a world traveler and a voracious consumer of information about all forms of religion Suzuki was one of the foremost Japanese mediators of Eastern and Western religious cultures for nearly seven decades An introduction by Jeff Wilson and Tomoe Moriya analyzes Suzuki's frequent encounters with texts and practitioners of many religions considers how events in Suzuki's lifetime affected his interpretations of Christianity Shinto and other traditions and demonstrates that his legacy as a scholar extends well beyond Buddhism Recovering 9/11 in New York Robert Fanuzzi, Michael Wolfe, 2014-04-23 This collection of essays offers a rich variety of approaches to how people and institutions in greater New York have sought to find meaning in the 9 11 attacks on the World Trade Center now a decade on The views and practices documented here join memory recovery and rebuilding together to form a vital new chapter in New York's metropolitan history Contributors contest the dominant nationalist narrative about 9 11 to generate a more local and socially engaged form of scholarship that connects directly with the experiences of people who lived or came to work in New York that fateful day and the years that followed In doing so these essays give academics and clinical professionals an opportunity to reflect upon and work with the people of a community in this case metropolitan New York as essential partners and even the main protagonists in creating new paradigms to capture the significance of these events and their aftermath The collection is comprised of sixteen essays by experts drawn from a wide range of scholarly and professional fields They investigate how people across the New York metropolitan region initially responded to and have since remembered the events of September 11th as they rippled out into the city the surrounding metropolitan region and the nation at large They engage directly with the emotional and psychological aftermath of the attacks approaching the questions of healing and teaching from a variety of institutional professional and non professional perspectives The volume concludes with a selection of essays that grapple with the challenge of Representing 9 11 Contributors to this section evaluate contemporary novels and films that have risked engagement with deep narrative traditions to translate the recent memory of public events into resonant stories and imaginative language Readers are invited to consider how all these responses in literature memorials media representations and the words and actions of diverse individuals still contribute to the complex yet inescapable challenge of making meaning of 9 11

The Essay At the Limits Mario Aquilina, 2021-04-08 In the hands of such writers as Rebecca Solnit Claudia Rankine David Shields Zadie Smith and many others the essay has re emerged as a powerful literary form for tackling a fractious 21st century culture The Essay at the Limits brings together leading scholars to explore the theory the poetics and the future of the form The book links the formal innovations and new voices that have emerged in the 21st century essay to the history and theory of the essay In so doing it surveys the essay from its origins to its relation to contemporary cultural forms from the novel to poetry film to music and from political articles to intimate lyrical expressions The book examines work by writers such as Theodor W Adorno Kwame Anthony Appiah Francis Bacon James Baldwin Roland Barthes Maurice Blanchot Ta Nehisi Coates Annie Dillard Brian Dillon Jean Genet William Hazlitt Samuel Johnson Karl Ove Knaussgaard Ben Lerner Audre Lorde Oscar Wilde Michel de Montaigne Zadie Smith Rebecca Solnit Wallace Stevens Eliot Weinberger and Virginia Woolf

The Routledge Handbook of Progressive Rock, Metal, and the Literary Imagination Chris Anderton, Lori Burns, 2025-02-26 This Handbook illustrates the many ways that progressive rock and metal music forge striking engagements with literary texts and themes The authors and their objects of analytic inquiry offer global and diverse perspectives on these genres and their literary connections from ancient times to the modern world from children s literature to epic poetry from mythology to science fiction and from esoteric fantasy to harsh political criticism The musical treatments of these literary materials span the continents from South and North America through Europe and Asia The collection presents critical perspectives on the enduring and complex relationships between words and music as these are expressed in progressive rock and metal The book is aimed primarily at an academic market valuable for second through final year students on undergraduate courses devoted to both popular music and to literary studies and to postgraduate programs and researchers in a range of fields including popular music studies musicology creative music performance and composition songwriting literary studies narrative studies folklore studies science fiction studies cultural studies liberal studies and sociology and for media and history courses that have an interest in the intersection of narratives music and society The Good Is One, Its Manifestations Many Robert Cummings Neville, 2016-09-30 Building on his long standing work in metaphysics and Asian philosophy Robert Cummings Neville presents a series of essays that cumulatively articulate a contemporary progressive Confucian position as a global philosophy Through analysis of the metaphysical and moral traditions of Confucianism Neville brings these traditions into the twenty first century According to Confucianism rituals define most of our relations with other individuals social institutions and nature and while rituals make possible the positive institutions of high human civilization they may also lead to harmful behaviors including racism xenophobia and sexism Neville argues that the amendment of rituals that institutionalize oppression is a positive task which should be undertaken from within a skillfully ritualized life rather than in the form of external criticism Confucianism in Neville s hands is a left wing progressive liberal political philosophy one that can address institutionalized oppression and suggest a path for moving forward In Search of the Common Good Dennis McCann, Patrick D. Miller, 2005-02-04 Biblical scholars and theologians search for the meaning of the common good for our time The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, 1875 Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of Philosophy Professor Edward Craig, Edward Craig, 2013-01-11 The most complete and up to date philosophy reference for a new generation with entries ranging from Abstract Objects to Wisdom Socrates to Jean Paul Sartre Ancient Egyptian Philosophy to Yoruba Epistemology The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of Philosophy includes More than 2000 alphabetically arranged accessible entries Contributors from more than 1200 of the world s leading thinkers Comprehensive coverage of the classic philosophical themes such as Plato Arguments for the Existence of God and Metaphysics Up to date coverage of contemporary philosophers ideas schools and recent developments including Jacques Derrida Poststructuralism and Ecological Philosophy Unrivalled international and multicultural scope with entries such as Modern Islamic Philosophy Marxist Thought in Latin America and Chinese Buddhist Thought An exhaustive index for ease of use Extensive cross referencing Suggestions for further reading at the end of each entry Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of Philosophy Routledge (Firm), 2000 The scholarship of this monumental and award winning ten volume work is available in one affordable book that brings together more than 2 000 entries from the original in a shortened more accessible format Extensively cross referenced and indexed Bacon's Essays with Introduction, Notes and Index by Edwin A. Abbott ... Francis Bacon, 1889 Essays on Art and Language Charles Harrison, 2003-09-12 Critical and theoretical essays by a long time participant in the Art Language movement These essays by art historian and critic Charles Harrison are based on the premise that making art and talking about art are related enterprises They are written from the point of view of Art Language the artistic movement based in England and briefly in the United States with which Harrison has been associated for thirty years Harrison uses the work of Art Language as a central case study to discuss developments in art from the 1950s through the 1980s According to Harrison the strongest motivation for writing about art is that it brings us closer to that which is other than ourselves In seeing how a work is done we learn about its achieved identity we see for example that a drip on a Pollock is integral to its technical character whereas a drip on a Mondrian would not be Throughout the book Harrison uses specific examples to address a range of questions about the history theory and making of modern art questions about the conditions of its making and the nature of its public about the problems and priorities of criticism and about the relations between interpretation and judgment
