Autobiographical Writings on Mexico Richard D. Woods, 2024-10-14 This is the definitive bibliography of autobiographical writings on Mexico. The book incorporates works by Mexicans and foreigners with authors ranging from disinherited peasants, women, servants, and revolutionaries to more famous painters, writers, singers, journalists, and politicians. Primary sources of historic and artistic value; the writings listed provide multiple perspectives on Mexico's past and give clues to a national Mexican identity. This work presents 1,850 entries including autobiographies, memoirs, collections of letters, diaries, oral autobiographies, interviews, and autobiographical novels and essays. Over 1,500 entries list works from native-born Mexicans written between 1691 and 2003. Entries include basic bibliographical data: genre, author's life dates, narrative dates, available translations into English, and annotation. The bibliography is indexed by author, title, and subject, and appendices provide a chronological listing of works and a list of selected outstanding autobiographies.

Dividido en cuatro partes: Del paraíso al destierro, El exilio, Retornos y De vuelta en casa. Recuerdos y olvidos 1906-2006 es el volumen en que Ayala recoge sus memorias que recorren todo el siglo XX hasta adentrarse en el XXI.

Beyond Folklore? Xosé M. Núñez Seixas, 2023-12-19 This book analyzes the promotion of subnational identities undertaken by Spanish fascism and the Franco regime between 1930 and 1975 as well as their patterns of survival, accommodation, and adaptation. It examines the proactive attitudes of the various actors committed to the dictatorship, from Falangists to Francoist intellectuals to Catholic conservatives, alongside their repressive or annihilating approach to regional cultures and languages. As in most Fascist regimes between 1922 and 1945, a narrative of the ethnocultural, ethnoterritorial, and historic diversity of the nation persisted with differing degrees of intensity and different tendencies. These discourses and practices were not limited exclusively to the ideological and social sphere of anti-Francoism and the roots of the State of the Autonomous Communities, which gave rise to the extension of political autonomy to all.

Spanish regions from 1978 onwards date back to the deep structure of the dictatorship with foundations in demands put forward by the local provincial and regional elites within later Francoism The volume is primarily written for scholars and students of Iberian Studies European Modern and Contemporary History Cultural Studies especially those with an interest in memory studies fascism nationalism and regionalism cultural resistance under dictatorship and transitions from dictatorship to democracy The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 El Monitor de la educación común ,1915 Recuerdos y bellezas de España José María Quadrado,1861 Recuerdos de medio siglo Carlos I.
