The Short Story in

South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature      Annual Report National Endowment for the Arts,1987 Reports for 1980 19 also include the Annual report of the National Council on the Arts      Paperbound Books in Print ,1991

Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde,2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer s work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China s history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one s mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1976      Trauma, Resistance, Reconstruction in Post-1994 South African Writing Jaspal Kaur Singh,Rajendra Chetty,2010 The re conceptualization of South Africa as a democracy in 1994 has influenced the production and reception of texts in this nation and around the globe The literature emerging after 1994 provides a vision for reconciling the fragmented past produced by the brutality of apartheid policies and consequently shifting social relations from a traumatized past to a reconstructed future The purpose of the essays in this anthology is to explore within the literary imagination and cultural production of a post apartheid nation and its people how the trauma and violence of the past are reconciled through textual strategies What role does memory play for the remembering subject working through the trauma of a violent past      Harold Pinter Basil Chiasson,Catriona Fallow,2021-01-28 This important book offers a thematic collection of critical essays ideal for undergraduate courses on modern British theatre on Harold Pinter's theatrical works alongside new interviews with contemporary theatre practitioners The life and works of Harold Pinter 1930-2008 a pivotal figure in British theatre have been widely discussed debated and celebrated internationally For over five decades Pinter's work traversed and redefined various forms and genres constantly in dialogue with and often impacting the work of other writers artists and activists Combining a reconsideration of key Pinter scholarship with new contexts voices and theoretical approaches this book opens up fresh insights into the author's work politics collaborations and his enduring status as one of the world's foremost dramatists Three sections re-contextualize Pinter as a cultural figure explore and interrogate his influence on contemporary British playwriting and offer a series of original interviews with theatre makers engaging in the staging of Pinter's work today Reconsiderations of Pinter's relationship to literary and theatrical movements such as Modernism and the Theatre of the Absurd interrogations of the role of class elitism and religious and cultural identity sit alongside chapters on Pinter's personal politics specifically in relation to the Middle East
