Stein, 2016-07-12 In 1959 Richard Bellamy was a witty poetry loving beatnik on the fringe of the New York art world who was drawn to artists impatient for change By 1965 he was representing Mark di Suvero was the first to show Andy Warhol's pop art and pioneered the practice of off site exhibitions and introduced the new genre of installation art As a dealer he helped discover and champion many of the innovative successors to the abstract expressionists including Claes Oldenburg James Rosenquist Donald Judd Dan Flavin Walter De Maria and many others The founder and director of the fabled Green Gallery on Fifty Seventh Street Bellamy thrived on the energy of the sixties With the covert support of America's first celebrity art collectors Robert and Ethel Scull Bellamy gained his footing just as pop art minimalism and conceptual art were taking hold and the art world was becoming a playground for millionaires Yet as an eccentric impresario dogged by alcohol and uninterested in profits or posterity Bellamy rarely did more than show the work he loved As fellow dealers such as Leo Castelli and Sidney Janis capitalized on the stars he helped find Bellamy slowly slid into obscurity becoming the quiet man in oversize glasses in the corner of the room a knowing and mischievous smile on his face Born to an American father and a Chinese mother in a Cincinnati suburb Bellamy moved to New York in his twenties and made a life for himself between the Beat orbits of Provincetown and white glove events like the Guggenheim's opening gala No matter the scene he was always considered one of us partying with Norman Mailer befriending Diane Arbus and Yoko Ono and hosting or performing in historic Happenings From his early days at the Hansa Gallery to his time at the Green to his later life as a private dealer Bellamy had his finger on the pulse of the culture Based on decades of research and on hundreds of interviews with Bellamy's artists friends colleagues and lovers Judith E Stein's Eye of the Sixties rescues the legacy of the elusive art dealer and tells the story of a counterculture that became the mainstream A tale of money taste loyalty and luck Richard Bellamy's life is a remarkable window into the art of the twentieth century and the making of a generation's aesthetic Bellamy had an understanding of art and a very fine sense of discovery There was nobody like him I think I certainly consider myself his pupil Leo Castelli Orange Coast Magazine, 1986-05 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle

This sampler was designed for art specialists and art museum educators with a basic understanding of teaching discipline-based art education content. The introduction offers a brief history of the Sampler and explains its intended purpose and use. Then 8 unit models with differing methodologies for relating art objectives to the four disciplines: aesthetics, art criticism, art history, and art production are presented. The sampler consists of two elementary units, two units for middle school, two units intended for required high school art, one high school studio/ceramic unit, and a brief unit for art teachers and art museum educators that focuses on visits to art museums. Learning activities, resource material, and learning strategies are given for the units along with a sequence of lessons organized on a theme. Action Art John Gray, 1993-05-30. This comprehensive international bibliography is the first to attempt documentation of this diverse field, covering the history of Artist's Performance. It focuses on its early twentieth-century antecedents in such movements as Futurism, Dada, Russian Constructivism, and the Bauhaus, as well as its peak period in the 1950s, 1960s, and 1970s, with such developments as Gutai, Fluxus, Viennese Actionism, Situationism, and Guerrilla Art Action. Major emphasis is also given to sources on 115 individual performance artists and groups. More than 3700 entries document print and media materials dating from 1914 to 1992. Organized for maximum accessibility, the sources are also extensively cross-referenced and are indexed by artist, subject, title, and author. Three appendices identify reference works, libraries, and archives, and addenda material not found in the book text, and two others list artists by country and by group or collective. Happenings Mildred L. Glimcher, 2012-02-21. In early October 1959, thirty-two-year-old Allan Kaprow presented a performance piece entitled 18 Happenings in 6 Parts. This unique conjunction of visual, aural, and physical events performed for an intimate art-world audience by his friends and colleagues would change the course of art history. The genre of artwork that evolved from this debut would become known as Happenings. Author Mildred Glimcher, an art historian, author, and close observer of contemporary art for more than fifty years, provides a vivid and comprehensive look not only at the events but also at the culture and society that surrounded it. This new volume provides a comprehensive look at this revolutionary art form. Prepared in conjunction with an exhibition at the Pace Gallery in New York, it focuses on the years that saw the movement's birth in New York and Provincetown, Mass., and the artists who made the genre a legend: Red Grooms, Allan Kaprow, Robert Whitman, Jim Dine, Claes Oldenburg, Simone Forti, Carolee Schneemann. Together they created a new and outrageous art form with an "anything goes" attitude, one whose influence is still felt within the contemporary art world. Glimcher visits the formative years of the movement in great detail.
