Red Skelton Christmas Show:

A Critical History of Television's The Red Skelton Show, 1951-1971 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-05-07 The Red Skelton Show was on the air for 20 years the longest running primetime network comedy variety series on television It was a top 10 series for nine years an accomplishment surpassed only by Gunsmoke and Home Improvement The series has a few unimpressive achievements too such as becoming the first top 10 series to be cancelled by a network Here is the history of The Red Skelton Show beginning with its debut in 1951 one of the top five that year The show then declined in popularity moved from CBS to NBC in 1953 slowly rose back to the top In its glory days of the 1960s it became an hour long show and finished at number two in two different years The cancellation of the show by CBS in 1970 despite its place in the top 10 was a surprise the last season back with NBC was a failure Appendices list cast and crew credits and special guests by season and offer information on the post Red Skelton lives of many of the principal players Red Skelton Wes Gehring, 2013-09-10 For more than twenty years Hoosier comic Red Skelton entertained millions of viewers who gathered around their television sets to delight in the antics of such notable characters as Freddie the Freeloader Clem Kaddiddlehopper Cauliflower McPugg and Sheriff Deadeye Noted film historian Wes D Gehring examines the man behind the characters someone who never let the facts get in the way of a good story Gehring delves into Skelton's hardscrabble life with a shockingly dysfunctional family in the southern Indiana community of Vincennes his days on the road on the vaudeville circuit the comedian's early success on radio his up and down movie career with Metro Goldwyn Mayer and his sometimes tragic personal life Television Specials Vincent Terrace, 2013-07-03 This is a complete revision of the author's 1993 McFarland book Television Specials that not only updates entries contained within that edition but adds numerous programs not previously covered including beauty pageants parades awards programs Broadway and opera adaptations musicals produced especially for television holiday specials e.g. Christmas and New Year's Eve the early 1936-1947 experimental specials honors specials In short this is a reference work to 5,336 programs the most complete source for television specials ever published Encyclopedia of Television Series, Pilots and Specials Vincent Terrace, 1986 Holiday Specials on Television, 1939-2021 Vincent Terrace, 2023-01-27 In November 1939 NBC's fledgling television station W2XBS broadcast the first known holiday special The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade Despite its small viewership very few TV sets existed at the time the experimental telecast was a harbinger of a now beloved American tradition the holiday television special This book offers a thorough account of holiday television specials in the United States from 1939 to 2021 highlighting variety shows comedic performances musical spectacles and more From familiar favorites 1964's Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer to campy one-offs 1985's He Man and She Ra A Christmas Special the 1140 programs are covered alphabetically and feature performance casts production credits and storylines for each Three appendices cover lost holiday specials along with Christmas and Halloween themed episodes of popular television series Television Variety Shows David M.

Inman,2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers comics singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee Within two years another variety show Texaco Star Theatre became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason Milton Berle Sid Caesar Ed Sullivan Red Skelton Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis Dean Martin Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode Air date guest stars sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included
