Warfield, Kate Hetherington, 2018-11-26 The construct of transformation has emerged as a prominent theme in academic discourse Based on the accepted notion that processes and living organisms are in an ongoing state of development it is unsurprising that this concept of transformation would find resonance within literature on the pilgrimage phenomenon Examples of transformational processes intersecting with pilgrimage are the movement from sickness to wellness from grief to closure and from fractured to integrated That the pilgrimage journey itself can be construed as a transformational quest was noted by Winkleman and Dubisch 2005 who stated Life transforming experiences are at the core of both traditional and more contemporary forms of pilgrimage In the current volume Warfield and Hetherington examine the transformational process of pilgrimage journeys Contributors are Sharenda Holland Barlar Anne M Blankenship Valentina Bold Shirley du Plooy Alexandria M Egler Miguel Tain Guzman Kate

Mary Shanahan, 2016-07-28 In the current climate and in an age of increasing hostility towards religion and the study of religion religious education is a much debated area Bringing together an interdisciplinary team of contributors from the USA Britain and Ireland and Australia representing a variety of religious perspectives Does Religious Education Matter provocatively demonstrates that it is vital that religious education is presented as it really is a valuable and rich resource that when taught and engaged with appropriately stimulates essential qualities for global and responsible citizenship critical thinking tolerance respect and mutual understanding The Spiritual and Educational Vision of Parker J. Palmer Elena Soto, 2024-02-09 Have you wrestled with the complexity of classroom teaching Have you often wondered what might be impeding your performance in the classroom Parker J Palmer s exploration into teaching and the problems that teachers encounter offers practical theories that address the questions one has or perhaps might not have thought to ask This book is about Parker J Palmer s theories of education interwoven with his spiritual vision of education Undergirding the spiritual aspect of his vision is his theory about the significance of the teacher s authentic self Within the narrative is the personal story of one teacher s daunting experiences as she ventured into the field of teaching after a career in the corporate world Meeting Palmer while in graduate school and closely studying his work served to modify her perspective about teaching for the better This ultimately changed her as a teacher in ways that could not have occurred had she not had this encounter This book aims to inform as well as to help transform the experience of teaching for both teacher and student International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world
