No Power Without an Image Libby Saxton, 2020-09-25 The first detailed study of what filmic images can tell us about iconic photographs No Power Without an Image reveals the multifaceted connections between seven celebrated photographs of political struggles taken between 1936 and 1968 and cinema in all its forms Moving from the paper cinema of magazines via newsreels and film journals to documentary fiction and experimental films this fascinating book draws on original archival research and multidisciplinary icon theory to explore new ways of thinking about the confluence of still and moving images

The Traditio Legis: Anatomy of an Image Robert Couzin, 2015-04-30 This monograph engages in a close reading of the traditio legis highlighting its novelty and complexity to early Christian viewers The image is analyzed as a conflation of two distinct forms of representation each constructed of unusual and potentially multivalent elements Cinema and Art as Archive Aa. Vv., 2015-03-11 T00:00:00+01:00 As Jacques Derrida wrote in 1995 while considering Archive Fever nothing is less reliable or less clear today than the word archive Nevertheless the historic cultural dimension of the contemporary discursive practices in cinema and art develops in the semantic openness of the term in the repositioning of the idea of archive The individual disciplines involved in one such field history of cinema and art theory of cinema and art aesthetics semiotics philology etc begin to open up to questioning the notion of archive even in negative in other words what after Michel Foucault the archive is not or does not seem to be The archive is not the library of libraries or encyclopedia it is not memory it is not museum it is not a database In recent years the attention focused on such ideas has not so much highlighted the impulses turns and specific forms of art art archive as it has revealed in many ways how the archive concerns us in the interrelation of aesthetic political ethical and legal levels among various disciplinary fields Time, Narrative & the Fixed Image / Temps, narration & image fixe, 2021-10-18 This volume focuses on the relationship between time narrative and the fixed image As such it highlights renewed interest in the temporality of the fixed image probably one of the most important trends in the formal and semiotic analysis of visual media in the past decade The various essays discuss paintings the illustrated covers of books comics or graphic novels photo stories postcards television and video art as well as aesthetic practices that defy categorization such as Chris Marker's masterpiece La Jetée The range of works and practices examined is reflected in the different theoretical approaches and methods used with an emphasis on semiology and narratology and to a lesser extent aesthetics and psychoanalysis The interest of this book however does not stem exclusively from the range and scope of the artefacts examined or the methodological issues that are addressed its fundamental importance rests in the contributors' readiness to question the differentiation between fixed and moving images which all too often provides a convenient if not altogether convincing starting point for image analysis The originality and value of the contribution that Time Narrative and the Fixed Image Temps Narration et image fixe makes to the body of theoretical writing on visual media lies in this challenging and comprehensive approach Postcolonial Images Roy Armes, 2005-02-23 A comprehensive

introduction to North African film Semiotics of Images Alexandros Ph. Lagopoulos, Karin Boklund-Lagopoulou, Maria Giulia Dondero, Jacques Fontanille, Maria Ilia Katsaridou, Rea Walldén, 2024-11-18 This book represents a unique collaborative effort to bring together the multiple aspects of the semiotics of images into a coherent approach based on Greimasian and post Greimasian theory Starting with a critical discussion of epistemological and theoretical issues and continuing with methodology and numerous examples of applied analysis it aims to provide the educated reader with a consistent and unified theoretical framework for the semiotic study of visual cultural texts It offers a comprehensive overview of the semiotics of static images such as painting drawing sculpture and photography but also dynamic images such as cinema animation and digital games Readers will benefit from the special emphasis placed on the analysis of the pictorial signifier visual syntax and the structuring of the semantic universe , Photo-texts Andy Stafford, 2010-01-01 What do photographs want Do they need any accompaniment in today's image saturated society Can writing inflect photography or vice versa in such a way that neither medium takes precedence Or are they in constant inexorable battle with each other Taking nine case studies from the 1990s French speaking world from France North Africa and the Caribbean this book attempts to define the interaction between non fictional written text caption essay fragment poem and photographic image Having considered three categories of intermediality between text and photography the collaborative the self collaborative and the retrospective the book concludes that the dimensions of their interaction are not simple and two fold visuality versus alongside textuality but threefold and therefore complex Thus the photo text as defined here is concerned as much with orality the demotic the popular the vernacular as it is with visual and written culture That text image collaborations give space to the spoken spectral traces of human discourse suggests that the key element of the photo text is its radical provisionality Images of Whiteness Clarissa Behar, Anastasia Chung, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 This collection of works emerges from Interdisciplinary Net's second global conference on whiteness entitled Images of Whiteness True to Interdisciplinary's ethos the conference draws scholars and activists from disciplines such as anthropology education art counselling cultural studies gender studies history and literature to engage in a dialogue on whiteness how to see it resist it and challenge it The chapters examine the images and effects of whiteness in literature film and television as well as in ethnographic studies and provide preliminary guidance to engage in anti racist praxis and education OEuvres Complètes de H. de Balzac Honoré de Balzac, 1877
