Dispensationalism, Israel and the Church Craig A. Blaising, Darrell L. Bock, 2010-08-10 The relationship between Israel and the church is a crucial reference point in theology especially in distinguishing between dispensational and nondispensational ways of thinking The thesis of this book is that Israel and the church are distinct theological institutions that have arisen in the historical progress of divine revelation But they are also related as successive phases of a redemptive program that is historically progressive and eschatologically converging The approach to these issues here is neither polemical nor apologetic rather it anticipates a convergence among evangelical scholars in the recognition of both continuity and discontinuity in the Israel church relationship This book has three purposes To offer a contemporary dispensational treatment of that relationship through an exegetical examination of key texts with a focus on theological concerns To foster genuine dialogue with nondispensational thinkers regarding major biblical themes tied to the plan of God To identify the changes in dispensational thought that have developed since the publication of Charles Ryrie's book Dispensationalism Today in 1965 Covenant in the Persian Period Richard J. Bautch, Gary N. Knoppers, 2015-11-11 The 22 essays in this new and comprehensive study explore how notions of covenant especially the Sinaitic covenant flourished during the Neo Babylonian Persian and early Hellenistic periods Following the upheaval of the Davidic monarchy the temple's destruction the disenfranchisement of the Jerusalem priesthood the deportation of Judeans to other lands the struggles of Judeans who remained in the land and the limited returns of some Judean groups from exile the covenant motif proved to be an increasingly influential symbol in Judean intellectual life The contributors to this volume drawn from many different countries including Canada Germany Israel South Africa Switzerland and the United States document how Judean writers working within historiographic Levitical prophetic priestly and sapiential circles creatively reworked older notions of covenant to invent a new way of understanding this idea These writers examine how new conceptions of the covenant made between YHWH and Israel at Mt Sinai play a significant role in the process of early Jewish identity formation Others focus on how transformations in the Abrahamic Davidic and Priestly covenants responded to cultural changes within Judean society both in the homeland and in the diaspora Cumulatively the studies of biblical writings from Genesis to Chronicles demonstrate how

Jewish literature in this period developed a striking diversity of ideas related to covenantal themes YHWH, the Husband of Israel Seock-Tae Sohn, 2002-11-18 Modern Judaism Nicholas Robert Michael De Lange, Miri Freud-Kandel, 2005 This collection of newly commissioned essays covers the major areas of thought in contemporary Jewish studies including considerations of religious differences sociological philosophical and gender issues geographical diversity and inter faith relations Jeremiah, Lamentations F.
