Revealing Male Bodies:

Revealing Male Bodies Nancy Tuana, William Cowling, Maurice Hamington, Greg Johnson, 2002-05-06 Revealing Male Bodies is the first scholarly collection to directly confront male lived experience There has been an explosion of work in men s studies masculinity issues and male sexuality in addition to a growing literature exploring female embodiment Missing from the current literature however is a sustained analysis of the phenomenology of male gendered bodies Revealing Male Bodies addresses this omission by examining how male bodies are physically and experientially constituted by the economic theoretical and social practices in which men are immersed Contributors include Susan Bordo William Cowling Terry Goldie Maurice Hamington Don Ihde Greg Johnson Björn Krondorfer Alphonso Lingis Patrick McGann Paul McIlvenny Terrance MacMullan Jim Perkinson Steven P Schacht Richard Schmitt Nancy Tuana Craig L Wilkins and John Zuern The Male Body in Representation Carmen Dextel, Silvia Gerlsbeck, 2022-03-21 This international and multidisciplinary volume focuses on the male body and constructions of gender in a variety of cultural productions and formats Locating the subject matter in relevant theoretical fields it looks at representations of male bodies in various contexts through paranoid and reparative lenses Organized into four major sections the contributions assembled in this book feature engaging readings of non conforming bodies fashionable bodies passing bodies and pioneering bodies that to different degrees foreground their critical and creative potentials In its full scope the book acknowledges the plurality of gendered experiences and the diversity of male bodies The Male Body in Representation Returning to Matter adds to Cultural Studies scholarship interested in the body and gender in general and contributes to the fields of Masculinity and Body Studies in particular Male Confessions Björn Krondorfer, 2009-12-03 Male Confessions examines how men open their intimate lives and thoughts to the public through confessional writing This book examines writings by St Augustine a Jewish ghetto policeman an imprisoned Nazi perpetrator and a gay American theologian that reflect sincere attempts at introspective and retrospective self investigation often triggered by some wounding or rupture and followed by a transformative experience Krondorfer takes seriously the vulnerability exposed in male self disclosure while offering a critique of the religious and gendered rhetoric employed in such discourse The religious imagination he argues allows men to talk about their intimate flawed and sinful selves without having to condemn themselves or to fear self erasure Herein lies the greatest promise of these confessions by baring their souls to judgment these writers may also transcend their self imprisonment American Taboo Lauren Rosewarne, 2013-08-13 America s often unspoken morality codes make many topics taboo in the land of the free This book analyzes hundreds of popular culture examples to expose how the media both avoids and alludes to how we derive pleasure from our bodies Flatulence male nudity abortion masturbation these are just a few of the taboo topics in the United States What do culturally enforced silences about certain subjects say about our society and our latent fears This work provides a broad yet detailed overview of popular culture s most avoided topics to explain why they remain off limits and examines how they are presented in contemporary media or in many cases delicately explored using euphemism and innuendo The author offers fascinating in depth analysis of the meaning behind these portrayals of a variety of both mundane and provocative taboos and identifies how new television programs films and advertising campaigns intentionally violate longstanding cultural taboos to gain an edge in the marketplace

Interdisciplinary Approaches to Disability Katie Ellis, Rosemarie Garland-Thomson, Mike Kent, Rachel Robertson, 2018-12-12 How can a deep engagement with disability studies change our understanding of sociology literary studies gender studies aesthetics bioethics social work law education or history Interdisciplinary Approaches to Disability the companion volume to Manifestos for the Future of Critical Disability Studies identifies both the practical and theoretical implications of such an interdisciplinary dialogue and challenges people in disability studies as well as other disciplinary fields to critically reflect on their professional praxis in terms of theory practice and methods Topics covered include interdisciplinary outlooks ranging from media studies games studies education performance history and curation through to theology and immunology Perspectives are drawn from different regions from the European Union to the Global South with chapters that draw on a range of different national backgrounds Our contributors who write as either disabled people or allies do not proceed from a singular approach to disability often reflecting different or even opposing positions The collection features contributions from both established and new voices in international disability studies outlining their own visions for the future of the field Interdisciplinary Approaches to Disability will be of interest to all scholars and students working within the fields of disability studies cultural studies sociology law history and education The concerns raised here are further in Manifestos for the Future of Critical Disability Studies

Hospitality of the Matrix Irina Aristarkhova, 2012 This book analyzes the question where do we come from by discussing the matrix The author then applies this to the science technology and art of ectogenesis and proves the question can the machine nurse

Hybridity in Life Writing Arnaud Schmitt, 2024-04-28 This book offers new perspectives on text image hybridity in the context of life writing Each chapter explores the very topical issue of how writers and artists combine two media in order to enhance the autobiographical narrative and experience of the reader It questions the position of images in relation to text both on the page and in terms of the power balance between media It also shows how hybridity operates beyond a semantic and cultural balance of power as the combination of text and images are able to produce content that would not have been possible separately Including a range of life writing and different visual media from paintings and photography to graphic memoirs and social media this edited collection investigates the point at which an image whether fixed or moving enters the autobiographical act and confronts the verbal form

Autobiographical Comics Elisabeth El Refaie, 2012-10-24 A troubled childhood in Iran Living with a disability Grieving for a dead child Over the last forty years the comic book has become an increasingly popular way of telling personal stories of considerable complexity and depth In Autobiographical Comics Life Writing in Pictures Elisabeth El Refaie offers a long overdue assessment of the key conventions formal properties and narrative patterns of this fascinating genre The book considers eighty five works of North American and European provenance works that cover a broad range of subject matters and employ many different artistic styles Drawing on concepts from several disciplinary fields including semiotics literary and narrative theory art history and psychology El Refaie shows that the traditions and formal features of comics provide new possibilities for autobiographical storytelling For example the requirement to produce multiple drawn versions of one s self necessarily involves an intense engagement with physical aspects of identity as well as with the cultural models that underpin body image The comics medium also offers memoirists unique ways of representing their experience of time their memories of past events and their hopes and dreams for the future Furthermore autobiographical comics creators are able to draw on the close association in contemporary Western culture between seeing and believing in order to persuade readers of the authentic nature of their stories

Politics, Identity, and Mobility in Travel Writing Miguel A. Cabañas, Jeanne Dubino, Veronica Salles-Reese, Gary Totten, 2015-06-26 This collection examines the intersections between the personal and the political in travel writing and the dialectic between mobility and stasis through an analysis of specific cases across geographical and historical boundaries The authors explore the various ways in which travel texts represent actual political conditions and thus engage in discussions about national transnational and global citizenship how they propose real world political interventions in the places where the traveler goes what tone they take toward political or socio political violence and how they intersect with political debates Travel writing can be viewed as political in a purely instrumental sense but as this volume also demonstrates travel writing s reception and ideological interventions also transform personal and cultural realities This book thus examines the ways in which politics material effects inform and intersect with personal experience in travel texts and engage with travel s dialectic of mobility and stasis In spite of globalization and efforts to eradicate the colonial vision in travel writing and in travel writing criticism this vision persists in various and complex ways While the travelogue can be a space of discursive and direct oppression these essays suggest that the travelogue is also a narrative space in which the traveler employs the genre to assert authority over his or her experiences of mobility This book will be an important contribution for interdisciplinary scholars with interests in travel writing studies global and transnational studies women s studies multicultural studies the social sciences and history
